ENGINEERS PETITION FOR HONOR SYSTEM IN EXAMS

"I am much gratified at the spirit which the students have shown in this matter and will do all in my power to help them."
—Dean F. S. Jones.

Dean Jones has been interviewed by several committees from the engineering department for the purpose of obtaining his assent and assistance for the formation of an honor system among the students in the engineering department.

He says: "I firmly believe that the establishment of an honor system in the university would promote a better feeling between the faculty and the students, and although it would not be possible to establish a perfect system at the start, in a few years we ought to develop a system equal to the ones that have been successfully conducted for many years at West Point and the University of Virginia."

The system at Virginia has been to give the students their examination papers and to allow them to write their papers in any place they desire to do so. The students feel that they are on their honor and there has never been any cheating discovered since this system was adopted.

Several other engineering professors when interviewed seconded Dean Jones' sentiments and said that they would like to see such a system established at Minnesota.

Y. M. C. A. HAS BUSY WEEK

Over 500 Members in the Y. M. C. A.—And Still They Come

More than five hundred men have now been enrolled in the Y. M. C. A. at the present time and more are coming in every day. The expectations have now been raised from five to seven hundred and visions of the new buildings are growing clearer. At seven hundred the membership of the association will be the largest of any university association in America. There has never been as high as five hundred men in this association before and if two hundred more are enrolled the record, not only for this university, but for the entire list of college associations, will be broken.

SENIOR POLITICS QUIET

Claude Randall and Oliver Lee are up to date the only avowed candidates for the office of president of the senior class, the highest gift in the power of the students during the entire four years of attendance. It has been rumored that Stanley was out for the office but he denies that he is running. Nobody has yet appeared for the offices of vice-president or treasurer, although it is stated that Coapman would be willing to accept re-election as custodian of the class funds.

The three-cornered fight for the secretaryship has been simplified by the withdrawal of Grace Weitzel. Irene Dunn and Rose Marie Schaller are now the remaining candidates who will fight it out at the election next Saturday.

FRESHMAN GIRLS TO BE ENTERTAINED SATURDAY

Musical Program and Dancing — Misses Comstock and Sanford Will Speak

Preparations for the Woman's league party, to be held Saturday in the armory, have now been completed, and everything gives promise of an unusually successful affair. The party will be of especial interest for two reasons. First, it is the opening league function of the year, and second, the freshmen girls will be the chief object of attention.

Every girl in college is invited to the party, tho for the parties to follow only members of the Woman's league will be entitled to invitations. This time, however, it will be a real college jollification for everybody, and especially for the favored freshmen. The upperclassmen have responded royally to the order to take the children under their care, zealous ones having planned to chaperone three or four timid maidens.

To the plea that upperclassmen escort freshmen girls to the party, there was a very general enthusiastic response from college men. They said they would take as many as they could get, and seemed much disappointed when explained the sad fact that men were not wanted.

If any freshman has not received an invitation, the league wishes it to be clearly understood that she is expected to come anyway, for every effort will be made to make her have the time of her life.

The faculty ladies have promised to be in the receiving line with the members of the council. A committee of twenty-five has been specially appointed to see that the new girls make many friends. A musical program has been prepared consisting of vocal and instrumental solos by the best college musical talent. Miss Comstock will speak on the aims of the league and Miss Sanford will tell what it has already accomplished.

The last hour will be spent in dancing, for which the university band will furnish the program. Frappe and wafers will be served between dances.

SOPHOMORES MAY UNITE

Academic and Engineer Classes Will Soon Settle Amalgamation Question

Sophomore politics will be brought to a head very soon for a class meeting will be held either the last of this week or the first of next in both academic and engineer departments. The two meetings will be held at the same time and each department will vote on the proposition of the two organizations amalgamating and set a date for their election. If both decide they would like to unite they will vote together and choose the same officers for the two departments. Some action will also be taken in regard to paying for the property destroyed in the cave-punch, as committees have been appointed to determine if the value put on the destroyed property is not too much.

The candidates for the offices have

ABSENCE OF TWO REGULARS CAUSES RAGGED PLAY

Regulars Are Out of Game—Cons Must Be Made Up

An account of the absence of some of the regulars from practice Wednesday afternoon the scrimmage was not all that could be hoped for. Current and Marshall did not don their suits, altho Captain Current appeared upon the field. The absence of these two men from the squad seemed to be a signal for a general shift of men from one position to another and the slowness of the practice was probably due to this fact. McRae and Mowry were both given a trial at right half but neither showed suitable form. Safford and Kjelland alternated at center while Woodrick and Doane divided honors at the left end position. Robertson took care of the quarter back position the whole afternoon and on the whole acquitted himself very creditably.

The scrimmage which lasted for perhaps three quarters of an hour, was marred by fumbles and mistaken signals. Only in the last minute of play was the Varsity able to score a touchdown while the second team never succeeded in making first down.

Ed Rogers reported on the end of the sub eleven some valuable pointers on the duties of that position.

Altho the rules for this year have not yet had severe test at Minnesota, reports from other colleges bring news of dissatisfaction with them. Michigan is reported not to like them; they meet with small favor at Princeton and most of the colleges of the east join in this sentiment.

It is evident at this time of year that a team which expects to make ten yards in three downs must resort to trick plays almost entirely. Sig Harris, however, holds that with a good quarter ten yards is not an impossibility. He said, "Because of the loose style of defensive playing which the new rules demand, it seems

OCTOBER MAG. SELLS FAST

Subscription List Growing—Single Copies Quickly Taken—Comment Favorable

"The reception of the October Magazine yesterday was very gratifying to the editors and management and we feel confident that the year will be successful in every way. The sales have been large, the subscription list is climbing fast, and the comment is in a high degree favorable."

This was the statement of C. K. Michener, managing editor of the Magazine, yesterday in regard to the current issue.

The sale of single copies and the taking of subscriptions will be continued today and tomorrow during the morning hours at the business manager's desk in the rotunda of the library.

Thursday afternoon "The Mag" was placed on sale at Wilson's, the Northwestern, Ferris and Grady, and the "U" cigar store. This is a new departure and shows that the present management is trying to broaden out and reach everybody.

PHARMACISTS WILL SOON HAVE BETTER QUARTERS

"The new pharmacy building which was proposed four or five years ago will, no doubt, now become an actuality."
—Dean F. J. Wulling.

The quarters of the college of pharmacy have never been adequate to its requirements, a condition which is now to be remedied. A prerequisite law requiring graduation from a recognized college of pharmacy before a person becomes eligible for examination and registration as a pharmacist by the state will be enacted by the next legislature. All doubt as to the passage of such a law has been removed by the unanimous instruction of the Minnesota State Pharmaceutical association to its legislative committee to have such a bill introduced into the legislature at its next session.

Attendance Will Trouble

This prerequisite measure will put pharmacy on a par with medicine and dentistry which professions already require attendance at recognized college of medicine or dentistry. The attendance at the college of pharmacy will at least trouble

It has been recognized for some time by the regents that the college has been urgently in need of larger quarters and more equipment. With the certain increased attendance as a result of the proposed obligatory educational requirement, larger quarters will become imperative. The pharmacy building which was proposed four or five years ago will no doubt now become an actuality. The matter is in the hands of the regents.

AUTHORIZE MORE HELP

Regents Also Re-name New Medical Library Willard Hall

Routine work relating to the appointment of new instructors and allowing rebates in fees consumed most of the session of the regents' meeting yesterday.

It was decided to change the name of the new medical building to Willard Hall in honor of the first dean of that college.

Charles Schouten was appointed to act as commandant in the absence of Capt. Sigerfoos.

New Instructors

An assistant professor was authorized for materia medica.

The school of mines was granted an additional instructor.

A number of assistants were authorized for the engineering departments.

Miss Whitney was appointed instructor in the rhetoric department.

Faculty members' wives may hereafter take special university work, paying fees pro rata instead of the full tuition.

ALUMNI DIRECTORS MEET

The first monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the General Alumni association was held last night. The number of memberships has increased from 120 to 520 since July of this year, promising a most successful year for the association.

OPEN TO ALL

We want your opinion—anything pertinent—on current college topics. One function of a college paper is to act as a clearing house for student thought. Communications will be cheerfully printed in the Daily, providing the name of the writer is known to the editor.

If you have any ideas on anything, ideas that you feel would be of value and interest to your fellows, send them in to the Daily. Suggestions, criticisms, roasts or commendation which we think are written with an object to better university conditions will receive due consideration. But please be gentle on our space. Say it short.

TO THE FACULTY

The management will adopt the policy of sending the Daily to all members of the corps of instruction, regardless of whether or not they have sent in their subscriptions. We take this step because not a few faculty members have desired the paper, but thought that it was not necessary to order the Daily in order for them to receive it. Accordingly with this issue, we will send the Daily to all faculty members whose addresses we can secure, and those who do not care to take the paper will please notify the business manager by the end of the week.

GET OUT AND RUN

The lack of enthusiasm in cross country work at Minnesota is somewhat appalling in view of the fact that every other member of the Big Nine has at least fifty men out for their first run. Ten men took the run last Wednesday. Unless this number is quadrupled soon, Minnesota's chance for a winning track team next spring are very small indeed, as it has been repeatedly proved that the college with a good cross country team always has a winning track team.

The runs are made short at first and no one need have any fear that he can't keep up, and every man who expects to do any track work should be out regularly.

LAW LITERARY SOCIETY

The Law Literary society meets next Monday evening at 8 o'clock sharp in the freshmen lecture room, Law building, when the following program will be given:

At a recent election the officers chosen for the ensuing term were: Baudler, president; Norton, vice president; Cooper, secretary, and J. W. Peterson, treasurer. VISITORS APPRECIATED.

to me that a quarter who is a good field general will be more necessary than ever before. The quarter will have a great opportunity to use a sequence of plays in such a manner as to spread out the opponent's line and by this to make large gains. I think that a team's efficiency this year will more than ever depend on the quarter."

The committee on athletics has recommended that football men be given until October 20 to make up conditions. At that time each man's record in college and standing in the present semester's work will be looked up and he will be obliged to bring his class marks up and take examinations to remove conditions before he can play football.

The chairman of the faculty committee on athletics gives notice that all football men who have conditions against them are immediately to make formal application for permission to take condition examinations on or before October 20. This matter is of great importance and the committee wishes all football men to whom it applies to attend to the matter at once.

DRAMATIC NOTES

Ben Greet would call "The Umpire" a musical tragedy. But we can forgive him, for he is no longer
 twenty. He does not need entertainment, and to him the stage has a higher mission than presenting choruses of girls, strikingly clothed.
 He presents "Everyman." In "The Umpire" you can see all kinds of women. It is the usual affair with the regulation clown, who here poses as an umpire, assisted by a variety of singers and dancers. It is near the average for its kind, and for the person who enjoys leaving his brains
 at home, it is a satisfactory way of spending his time and money. Fred Mace, the umpire, emulated before as previously as the very funny man in "Piff, Paff, Poff." Blessings on him.

Mr. Daniel Frawley, Consuelo
 Bailey and the Frawley Stock company are presenting "Moths" in the most worthy manner, and are entitled to the patronage of the university.

BUCK ANSWERS QUERIES

Now that Capt. Sigerfoos is gone, all the troubles of the commandant caused by curious freshmen, have passed onto the shoulders of Argyle Buck, the maimed but cheerful veteran, who has charge of all the military paraphernalia to be found at the university. Hour after hour he sits there cleaning the new Krag-Jorgensons that have just arrived, and answering questions innumerable about the wherefore, and whyness, and wherewithal of the soldierly life. But he bears it with the gruff kindness with which he has borne the many, bodily afflictions that have come to him.

He has seen nine commandants come and go, together with all the inconveniences caused by the changes, and so he professes to be heartily willing to instruct the uninitiated in the customs and passing events of the university. His broad knowledge is perhaps accounted for by the fact that he is a constant reader of the Daily.

"Buck" served in the 110th New York cavalry, and still has his old canteen, which he still uses. At his home he has many curios of the war as well as roomfuls of hunting trophies. At odd times he practices taxidermy, and this has given him ample opportunity to form a fine collection of memorials of the chase and battle.

not come out yet because it is not known whether the two departments will be together, or, if they are, how the offices will be divided between them. However, some men are working among their friends with the provision that the two departments do not unite. Those who have been mentioned for the presidency are Max Lowenthal, James Beals, Arthur Hoffman and John Degnan. The candidates for the other offices are still unknown tho they will probably be out as soon as the question of uniting the department is settled.
