

Q-1

DULUTH--Robert Louis Stevenson's classic chiller, "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," will be presented by UMD Laboratory school eighth grade students in Main auditorium at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, May 29. A dress rehearsal will be conducted at 2 p.m. The performances will be open free to the public.

Directed by Richard Lidberg, Laboratory school instructor, the play involves a potion that changes the personality of its discoverer.

In the roles of Dr. Henry Jekyll and Mr. Hyde will be Jeff Long and Gregory Anneke. Mary Hunner and Rosann Timpone will share the role of Miss Harriet Utterson, a lady lawyer and close friend of Dr. Jekyll.

Others in the cast are John Powell, playing Dr. Lanyon, a scoffing medical colleague of Dr. Jekyll; Ann Michler as Pauline, Dr. Jekyll's housekeeper; Julie Hanna and Ann Jacobson, sharing the role of Bridget, the cook; Meredith Hansen and Lynda Peterson, double cast as Connie, Bridget's friend; Coralie Bergquist and Barbara Daugherty, double cast as Diana Carew, Dr. Jekyll's sweetheart; Richard Gilleland, as Richard Enfield, Diana's jilted boyfriend; William Baumgarten, as Sir Danvers Carew, and Fred Kline and Rodney Edwards as Inspector Newcomen.

The production crew includes James Bodin, sound; Joseph Gustafson, lighting, and Peter Ario and John Dahlberg, stage.