

MINISTERS ORGANIZE.

Y. M. C. A. Has Formed Club of Prospective Ministers.

One of the phases of the Y. M. C. A. work is to get men to go into the Christian work. There are a number of men in the University who are looking forward to the Christian ministry as a life work. Secretary Hanson called together a number of these young men Wednesday, and an organization was effected with Howard Hare, president, and George Lawton, secretary.

The object of the club will be social fellowship and study for mutual benefit, and also to maintain an interest in the Christian ministry as a life work.

Meetings will be held from time to time, and all men looking forward to the ministry are requested to give their names to one of the officers of the club or the secretary of the Y. M. C. A.

"JACK" CAMPBELL WILL BE THERE

Greater Rooter Mass Meeting to Be Held Saturday After Chapel Time

Pres. Mordoff of the Rooter's Club has called a meeting, if it can be arranged for Saturday morning at chapel hour and wishes as hearty enthusiasm as was shown last week.

Although the game this week is expected to be a victory for Minnesota, he says more enthusiasm should be manifested and the Rooter's Club must get into practice for next week, when it will have to root for a victory.

President Mordoff has ordered the new songs printed on cards, so that everybody may know them. He will also use some of the old standbys.

"Johnny" Campbell will appear on the rostrum Saturday morning to lead in the rooting and singing and other prominent people expect to speak.

A new song which President Mordoff wishes everyone to learn is the following which was printed in the Daily on Wednesday. It is to the familiar tune of Bedellah and the words are as follows:

There's a bunch of husky huskers from Nebraska's sunny land. Who can hit the line and make their runs and kick to beat the band, But there'll be something didding when they meet the Gopher team For things are not just always what they seem.

And did you ever hear of Waterloo?

Chorus—
Ne-bras-ka—
We'd like to ask yo'
Do you think that you will win?
If you score on Min-ne-so-ta
It's now time that you begin
We'll cheer for Minnesota
Until the game is o'er,
For we'll beat you—beat you—beat you
Yes we know that we will beat you and we'll teach you.
Just watch the score.

NEW CLUB WILL SUPPORT DEBATE

Upper Classmen Form Club and Elect Officers—Will Root For Teams

The upper classmen held a rousing meeting yesterday afternoon in the interests of debate and oratory, and organized the "Varsity Forensic League."

Any student of the University of any department is eligible to membership. The constitution as adopted compels every member to attend every contest in debate and oratory if possible.

The officers elected were: Miss Inez Kelsey, president; Mr. A. Colburn, vice-president; Mr. Nebbergall, secretary and treasurer.

The president will have charge of securing rates for the debate and will see to the distribution of tickets.

LAWS START POLITICS.

Members of the Class Think It's Time to Get Busy.

Several members of the Junior Law class are anxious to see the class organize and everything in their power will be done to hold a class meeting next week and elect officers. Several men from the Academic department are with the class and their influence will be used to get one of their crowd in for president. The proposition of wearing class caps will also be discussed and if favorable, caps will be secured.

JUNIORS PLAN CLASS PARTY

Meeting To-Day Will Decide on Plans—Will Supplement Pan-Hellenic

The Junior academics will meet today after the fourth hour in Professor Frankforter's lecture room to discuss and finally settle the Junior Ball problem.

The committee appointed by the chair to investigate the advisability of holding an essentially Junior Function in place of the old Junior Ball, will report, and definite action is to be taken by the class in regard to the matter.

It seems probable that the committee will report favorably on the idea and that an informal ball will be arranged for sometime next spring.

The function will not be exclusive, if given, but open to all members and friends of the University, as was the old ball.

If the class endorses the proposition, committees will be appointed at once to begin the necessary preparations.

The former association now exists as the Pan-Hellenic Club, and its plans have not been fully matured as to the place of holding its annual event.

FRESHMEN—NOTICE!

The names of those students who passed the English examination, taken October fifteenth, have been posted in the registrar's office. Those who took the examination and whose names are not on the list have failed, and are requested to meet Prof. Sanford today at chapel time in the French Seminar room (Library) for the assignment of work.

JEWISH STUDENTS MEET.

Small Gathering Forms Nucleus for Jewish Students' Club.

A meeting of Jewish students was held Wednesday noon in the room used by Professor Smith's Psychology classes. The meeting elected Mr. Bank temporary chairman and Mr. Bannan temporary secretary. Further business was deferred to the next meeting, as the attendance was not sufficiently representative of the Jewish students in the University, men and women, and those present did not think it fair to get ahead on business until all the students had a fair opportunity to appear. The next meeting takes place Wednesday noon, 1:00 p. m., in Professor Smith's Psychology room, Oct. 26.

Fred G. Tracy, '00, is in the general mercantile business at Glyndon.

MANY ALUMNI COACHES OUT

Gridiron Veterans Show the Varsity the Game—Practice on Northrop Field

Against a cold, stiff breeze, which blew across the gridiron, the football squad resumed practice on Northrop Field yesterday afternoon after an absence of two days.

The work was long and hard, a great deal of time being given over to scrimmage.

"Pudge" Heffelfinger,

who has proved a great factor in the moulding of every Minnesota team for the past several years, appeared for the first time this season, and surprised several of the line men in the way he got after them, and showed them how to do things. "Pudge" has promised to appear at practice regularly after this and will no doubt be a great factor in getting a much larger amount of work out of some of the men. The result is sure to be more accomplished players and a better team for Minnesota.

Willis Walker,

an ex-Minnesota star, was also out and aided in putting the men through their paces.

"Jimmy" Irsfield

forgot his pupils on the other side of the river long enough to return to Northrop Field and at times was seen to get excited when the playing of the second grew fiercer than usual.

"Sig" Harris

watched the practice from the sidelines, his moleskins being still occupied in gathering dust in the Armory. There is a feeling that "Sig" may yet catch the fever and get out to work, but if he does not, a little coaching on his part would help wonderfully.

Tomorrow the

Team From Grinnell

will make its annual appearance at Northrop Field. Play will begin at 3:00 o'clock, twenty-five minute halves being the order of the day.

The tickets are 50 cents, $1.00 and $1.50 and are on sale at the usual places.

Charles M. McConn, '03, M. A. '04, is teaching in the preparatory department of the University of Illinois. He reports that he is enjoying his work very thoroughly. His address is 917 W. Green Street, Urbana, Ill.

LOW RATES FOR THE NEBRASKANS

Board of Control Makes Several Concessions the Cornhuskers—Coming in Bunches

The Minnesota Rooters' Club will not be the only boost brigade on Northrop Field, October 29. Nebraska will be here en force. Certain concessions which have been granted by Minnesota to the Nebraska management will insure the attendance of two-thirds of the corn-husker university.

Minnesota has guaranteed the corn-huskers half the gate receipts up to $8,000. Above this amount, the entire receipts go into the treasury of the Maroon and Gold. Besides this, Nebraska is to retain half the proceeds of all seats sold at Lincoln.

The Nebraska management is working in co-operation with the railroad companies, and has secured a $3 rate. Nothing but $2 seats will be occupied by the Nebraska crowd and coupon tickets will be placed on sale which will include transportation to Minneapolis and return, and also admission to the game. This management will prevent the purchase of seats by telegraph order from Minneapolis.

In view of the ridiculously low rate secured and the interest which has been aroused at Lincoln, it is reasonable to expect a delegation of several thousand supporters of the crimson and cream.

ROOTER BRIGADES HAVE END SECTIONS

Athletic Board Reserves Four End Sections of Bleachers for Big Game Rooters

The football management has decided to reserve four sections for the Rooters Clubs at the Nebraska and Wisconsin games.

They are the two end sections on each side, and the rooster captains expect to fill them to overflowing.

The girls will organize a rooters' brigade this afternoon, and will do their best to perpetuate the fame which last year's club attained.

The girls will probably fill an entire section and undoubtedly prove a large factor in making Minnesota touchdowns.

With a rooster section at every corner of the field the boys can't escape an everlasting "Ski-U-Mah," from the quartet of brigades.

Prices will be general admission for both games.

FORUM.

Tonight at 8:00 p. m. in the Y. M. C. A. building. The program for the meeting is: Roll call, Original Rhyme. Speech: "Justice," Eberhard. Original Story, Chap. V., Bolstad. Recitation, Arbid Johnson. Talk, "Conditions in Porto Rico," R. Campbell. Speech, "Foot Ball," Dan Smith. Debate: Resolved that the legislature of Minnesota should abolish the personal property tax. Affirmative, Watson and Jedlicka. Negative, Nebbergall and Saby. Critic, Stroud.

George E. Bray, Eng. '04, is located at Wilmette, Ill., as director in the new Trier Township high school.

GIRLS' MEGAPHONE BRIGADE FORMS.

Meeting at End of Fourth Hour to Elect President.

A meeting of all girls interested in football and team, will be held in Dr. McClumpha's room immediately after the fourth hour today. The purpose is organization and election of a president. As mentioned yesterday, the only candidates yet mentioned are Rose Marie Schaller and Bessie Plummer. Either of these would be a popular and efficient captain of the famous brigade, but it is likely that the basket ball girls will adhere to their resolution and leave Miss Plummer as the sole candidate.

STAFF MEETING.

There will be a meeting of the Daily staff in the Daily office at Chapel time Saturday.

DRAMATIC CLUB PLANS THEATRE

Would Co-operate with Woman's League and Have Home in the Projected Building

Are we to have a theatre on the campus?

While the literary societies and women's league plan their new buildings, the Dramatic club is thinking about its future and sees it large.

The club proposes to join with the Women's League in raising funds for the Women's building.

This, with the provision that when completed the structure shall contain a

Theatre for the Dramatic Club

It is hoped that with such an end in view the Club will greatly extend and enlarge its possibilities. President Walker sees in this scheme for a campus theatre a large future.

Dr. Burton Favors

the plan, which is already being seriously agitated.

Miss Rita Kendall, president of the Women's League said yesterday: "The plan of the Women's building has included an auditorium and rostrum and this could very well be used by the Dramatic club, tho not exclusively. I think the plan good."

It is suggested that in case it is not possible to combine with the Women's League an arrangement might be made with the Literary Societies in their recent building scheme. The idea of a campus theatre is new and popular as it should be.

MARTIAL MUSIC.

Nebraskans are Tuning up for the Big Game.

The following clipping from the Daily Nebraskan is interesting as indicating the corn-husker state of mind. This is one of the best, but there are lots more like it:

Tune, "Tale of the Alamo."
We'll shed some tears for Minnesota
When our team runs up the score
Our presence will be felt we guess
When Bender runs some more.
No paper's tale of it will tell,
How much we them outshone,
But we'll give a fair account of it
When we get home.

The suggestion that the Dramatic Club have a playhouse of its own on or near the campus is a good one. If the plan could be carried to a successful conclusion the club, already an important factor in university life, would become one of the best educational features of the university.

Such a theatre would remove in a large part the expense connected with the production of a play and instead of one play a year, chosen for its value at the box office and its adaptability to the road, the club would be able to put on several plays which, in accordance with its real purpose would, either be of interest for their literary merit or significant of the development of the drama. The value of such an institution can hardly be overestimated.

The Club itself under such conditions, would be more beneficial to its members. At present only a small portion of the club membership has an opportunity to appear before the footlights. With a stage of its own it could give every member a chance to do actual dramatic work.

We hope that the present agitation may some day result either in a university theatre or a stage and auditorium in some university building.

Recent developments in the football situation have given rise to considerable discussion of the possibility of a Michigan-Minnesota game.

Michigan needs such a game but after breaking off relations with Minnesota last fall and turning to the East she is hardly in position to enter into negotiations, yet there is small room for doubt but that, were the athletic authorities here to intimate in any way that they were willing to consider the matter, a formal proposal would be forthcoming.

Great as are the practical difficulties in the way of such a game there are many reasons why a game with Michigan is much to be desired.

The existing breach between Michigan and Minnesota is much to be regretted and it would be well if relations might be resumed before a temporary misunderstanding has time to harden into a traditional hostility.

The harm to western football which would result should the season prove financially disastrous to Michigan.

The probability that, without such a game, both Minnesota and Michigan will stand undefeated at the end of the season leaving the western championship to be settled, or rather unsettled, by a six-months newspaper war

Of the practical difficulties in the way of such a game the coach and management are of course the ones to judge. Yet it seems to us, in view of the fact that last year's team was willing to remain in training six weeks for a California game, that it would not be impossible to induce the men to keep up practice for ten days after the Iowa game.

This board to elect its own officers and to have authority to take final action in all matters affecting the student body and to stand as its representatives to the general faculty.

This plan is put forward for the purpose of discussion and in view of the present disorganized condition of the student body is, we believe worthy of serious consideration.

E
R PATTIES

The University needs some board which will be representative of the entire student body and will have the power to take action for the whole University.

This need has become apparent in connection with the agitation for the sick benefit association, the cribbing question and underclass control. The faculty is not the proper body to take action in regard to matters within the student body like the cane rush, freshman smoking and the Junior ball mix-up. Disorganized agitation can do little to secure definite action on such questions as the honor system, the sick benefit association and the fostering of university customs.

Other universities which, like ours, are divided into a large number of distinct colleges have their Student Councils, University Senates and Unions.

We suggest the following plan for discussion:

A board consisting of six representatives from each college, one from the Sophomore, two from the Junior and three from the Senior class.

The Freshmen at Minnesota certainly have an easy time. As we read the cast iron rules laid down at nearly every school big enough to support a college paper, we are inclined to congratulate ourselves that no such hide-bound upper class control exists here.

Yet on a more careful reading of these rules we cannot but be impressed with the fact that under their fantastic guise and apparent arbitrariness there is a good deal of common sense.

When we stop to consider how many foolish and even harmful things the best meaning Freshman will do while following the devices and desires of his own heart it dawns upon us that these seemingly harsh and humiliating rules are more kind than cruel.

While we firmly believe that every man must work out his own salvation, find his own place and learn from his own mistakes yet it does not seem altogether at variance with this creed to keep a man from doing things which he may afterwards be ashamed of, for which he may perhaps suffer.

Suddenly released from the restrictions of home life, often thrown in a strange social environment and subjected to the temptations of a large city there are many chances for the average Freshman to make serious mistakes.

A little restriction in the matters of dress, prep school and university insignia, smoking and the frequenting of places where intoxicants are sold

Literary Societies Would Like to Join Woman's League For a Home

A new development was reached yesterday, in the building problem when some of the Literary Societies asked for rooms in the Woman's building soon to be built and it is likely that their wish may be granted.

George Walker, representing the Dramatic club has also asked for an auditorium room for its plays.

If the new building is to accommodate these new branches, it is probable that its building will be delayed some time longer and when built will be larger than was at first anticipated.

WHERE?

Site of New Main Still Subject of Debate.

The selection of a site for the new main building is something of a problem. The Daily has taken pains to secure the views of a number of faculty members on the subject and some interesting solutions of the problem have been advanced.

Dean Downey states that there is some idea of changing the building plans so that the new main can occupy the site of the one destroyed.

Dr. McVey is in accord with the ideas of Professor McMillan and believes that if possible the academic, scientific and medical quadrangle should be preserved.

Dean Jones also believes that the quadrangle idea should be followed. He is of the opinion that sooner or later the vacant portions of the campus will be invaded because of the close economy of space which it is necessary to practice, where an institution is located in a city where real estate is at a premium.

THE WHIP

Vol. 1. OCTOBER 21, 1904 No. 5.

We are not in the trust—neither can we be trusted.

WE ENJOY IT.
 A lot of people desirous of inflicting pain, have told us, or insinuated to us, or hinted to our friends that they do not like the Whip. They'll like it a whole lot less before spring.
 It is balm to our soul to listen to the groans of the wounded and the curses of the incensed.

PAY IN ADVANCE.
 We decline to knock that Press Club dance until we see our "comps." The free advertising gag don't go in this office.

ENOUGH.
 The Daily wants a student council. We have a mighty poor opinion of anyone who cannot rest content with the board of athletic control, the Junior ball association, the Gopher Board, the Senior class and the Mag. If this is not a passion for reform suffering from senile dementia, we will retire from the guessing business.

FOUND ITS PLACE.
 "The Red Hand, a Melodrama," will be a success. No one familiar with the personal or cognizant of the politics of the Dramatic Club can doubt it for a minute. Providing always that the cast "acts natural."

SHOWED 'EM.
 The Missouri Independent says the Whip is all right. These Missourians sure know a good thing when showed.

HEAP HELP.
 The Dramatic Club wants to pool profits with the Woman's League. If we remember rightly, the D. C. cleared as much as $25 last year.

NOTICE.
 Teachers—Take the entrance examinations this week. A mispronunciation of coincidence before the General Chemistry class will never do.

WIERD WORDS.
 The circus is coming. Hold your breath and watch the journalistic amateur on the Daily staff conjure forth congelated columns of cueniformic criticism on the convulsive contortions of captivte constrictors.

NOT GUILTY.
 A PERSONAGE holding a position of some height on the staff of our esteemed contemporary, the Switch, argued at some length the other day. The PERSONAGE wished to convince us that we were not funny. It was sad waste of good rhetoric, we admit it. We have one consolation—we are printed.

RAVINGS.
 We are glad the festive Press Club is going to see that the Nebraska boys have a good time while they are here. It's only fair that they should see some Gopher representatives in "Six Cups of Chocolate." The next day they will see some Nebraska representatives look like eleven pieces of fudge.

How glad we all are to see the sun again! It won't take long now for the ground to dry out and the campus in front of the chapel has looked so forsaken! Now come forth, all ye fussers and fusseses, and fuss your fussiest.

In Chemistry, Wednesday, an inquisitive Freshman put his head "real close" to the hood so he could see the H<sub>2</sub>S go into his tube. When he came to from his five-minute H<sub>2</sub>S dream, he said he guessed he'd stick to opium.

Have you seen Billee with his new sword? It is not often that one sees both literary and military genius embodied in one man.

WE DID IT.
 Mr. Engdahl, of the Daily News, dropped into our sanctum yesterday morning. J. Louis reports that the News is three shades yellower since Halloran took a hand at head writing. We broke in Mike ourself.
