DULUTH -- The spring meeting of the Academic Libraries Section of the Minnesota Library Association will be held at UMD Saturday, April 30, according to UMD Librarian Rudy Johnson.

Dr. Gerhard von Glahn, professor and head of political science at UMD, will speak on the "Literature of Utopia" at a 1 p.m. luncheon in the UMD Campus Club.

UMD Provost Raymond W. Darland will welcome the section members at the luncheon following a noon tour of the expanded and still growing UMD library building.

A business meeting is scheduled for 2:30 p.m. in Room 403, Humanities building with a 3:30 p.m. coffee and social hour in Tweed Gallery winding up the librarians' visit to the campus.
