VOL. IV

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 1921

NO. 42

Ferdinand Foch, Marshall of France and Commander-in-Chief of the Allied Armies, is scheduled to arrive at the University this morning at 10:30. All members of the University are asked to assemble in the south stand on Northrop Field in order to see and hear our distinguished guest.

On the Minneapolis campus third hour classes will be dismissed. At the University Farm third and fourth hour classes will be excused. There will be an additional inter-campus car leaving the Farm at 9:55.

THE COMMITTEE ON UNIVERSITY FUNCTIONS

THE FLONZALEY STRING QUARTET

Opens the New Chamber Music Course next Thursday, December 1. This concert is NOT one of the All-Star Course. Have you your Chamber Concert tickets?

The Entire Course costs $3. Each single concert $2.

NOTICE

Smoking in the Post Office. The attention of the Administration has been called frequently to the fact that the Mechanic Arts building is a fire trap, and that smoking is indulged in indiscriminately in the Post Office. Loose paper is constantly thrown about on the floor and in the waste paper baskets. Cigarette stubs are dropped everywhere thus causing an exceptionally dangerous situation. Notices requesting students to refrain from smoking in the Post Office have been posted, and many students have been spoken to individually about the matter, but apparently there has been no decrease in the number indulging in it. We now make a final appeal; students are requested not to smoke in the Post Office. Violation of this rule will call for drastic action by the University.

NOTICE TO DEPARTMENTS

All departmental authorizations of work are estimated by the Department of Buildings and Grounds. Only a recapitulation memorandum of labor and material showing the completion of work is sent to departments. Further information may be had by referring the question to the Business Office.
Albert J. Lobb, Comptroller
