Gals Caught Off Balance

A Daily deliveryman sat wide-eyed in his car yesterday morning and saw all 375 coeds living in Comstock hall come rushing out of the building at 6:30 a.m. in pajamas, coats and pincurls.

Yesterday, it seems, was the day for one of Comstock's two or three fire drills during the school year.

The last drill was full quarter, and the three-bell warning rang at 2 a.m. that time.

Coeds must walk down from all six floors of the building—the elevators can't be used because the ropes might have burned. The girls are supposed to have a coat, shoes and a towel with them.

"This time the building emptied out in four minutes," Kay Pike, Comstock head counselor, said.

Observer Gene Jordan, Arts senior, said later: "There we came driving up—and they came piling out—pincurls, pajamas, coats—and me with a Speed Graphic camera in the back seat and no film."

SUNSHINE brought the voters out into the open in yesterday's campus election. Election judge Mary Jordan is shown handing a ballot to Ruby Brank, Arts senior, while Joseph Nistler, Technology junior, stands in line. This polling place was on the corner of Washington avenue and Church street.

Progressives Sweep Election

The Progressive party swept the spring elections yesterday.

Returns, complete except for women to the Union board, showed the Progressives had taken all six positions on the Arts board, two of three on the All-University congress, seven of 12 for men on the

German Head For 50 Years Plans to Retire

Oscar C. Burkhard, professor of German and chairman of the German department, will retire June 15 after nearly 50 years of service on the University faculty.

He will leave teaching to write, "catch up on a lot of reading" and travel.

The two sabbaticals which he never took give that word "travel" special meaning. One, planned for 1915, and the other which would have begun in 1938, were both cancelled by world wars.

"Now," he says, "I'll enjoy my freedom and travel where I want."

Burkhard joined the faculty of the German department in 1901 after his graduation from the University. He received his master's degree in 1904.

In 1906 he took his only vacation from the University to travel to Germany with the Otteadorffer Memorial Fellowship where he studied for two years at Marburg, Munich and Berlin universities.

He was appointed chairman of the German department in 1938 after the death of Samuel Kroesch, former chairman.

Board of Regents Visit Mayo Clinic

The Board of Regents rushed through a routine business meeting yesterday at Rochester and then devoted itself to learning more about the Mayo Foundation.

The Regents heard Dr. Victor Johnson, director of the Foundation, tell how it became a part of the University graduate school in 1915 with the dual-purpose of training medical men and conducting research in medicine.

Fred B. Snyder, chairman of the Board, and President Morrill expressed their satisfaction with the affiliation between the University and the Foundation.

"We at the University are conscious of our enormous prestige in medicine as a result of our fortunate affiliation with the Mayo Foundation," the President said.

The Regents were then guests at a luncheon in the Mayo Foundation house, the former home of the late Dr. W. J. Mayo. They visited the foundation library and parts of the Mayo clinic in the afternoon.

Music

Chamber Singers Well Received

By Philip Lillestol
Guest Music Critic

★ THE MANY PEOPLE who heard the second annual concert of the University Chamber Singers were warm in their approbation of the fine work that the group did.

Performing a program made of sacred and secular music from the Sixteenth to the Twentieth centuries, the singers showed both their versatility and comprehension of various styles.

Dr. Aliferis has developed a group that has good balance and blend of tonal qualities. His abilities as a director of this group are shown by their sensitivity to the music's slightest suggestion.

The program opened with three early motets in Latin and English. The contrast between the intense and flowing "O Magnum Mysterium" of Victoria and the rhythmic vitality of Gibbons' "Hosanna" displayed two of the group's points of distinction.

Doctor Describes Fungus Infection At 3-Day Course

Histoplasmosis was described to doctors attending a three-day course in pediatrics at the Center for Continuation Study.

The disease is an infection caused by a fungus that grows like yeast and can attack any part of the body. It is similar to tuberculosis.

The disease appears in two forms. One type eventually heals itself. The other resembles disseminative tuberculosis and is always fatal.

The first case of histoplasmosis reported in this country was found in 1926 by Dr. Cecil J. Watson, head of the department of medicine at University hospitals. It was identified by Dr. William A. Riley, professor emeritus of entomology and economic zoology. Doctors have not yet discovered how people catch the disease, nor have they found a cure.

CEDAR RAPIDS, IOWA — (SPECIAL) — The Gopher baseball team failed in a ninth inning effort and lost a tight 4 to 3 ball game to the Iowa State Teachers college Panthers here yesterday afternoon.

The two clubs meet again today with Lloyd Lundeen scheduled to take the hill for the Gophers.

Down 4 to 1 going into the final frame, Coach Dick Siebert's men rallied for two runs and had the tying run on first base with nobody out.

Jerry Smith opened the near victory frame with an infield single. He moved to third when Harry Elliott laced a hard single to left center. Elliott took second on the throw to third in an attempt to catch Smith.

Duane Baglien then stepped up and lined a clean single to center on the first pitch. Smith and Elliott scored and the tying run was on first base.

Len Ferm fouled off an attempted bunt and then forced Baglien at second base. Bob Jacob ended the game by hitting into a double play.

The Teachers pushed over their initial run in the first frame without benefit of a hit. They added two more in the third on four singles and a single run in the seventh on two singles and a sacrifice sandwiched in between.

Connel Advances To NCAA Finals

By Jerry Jacobs

EAST LANSING — (SPECIAL) — Colin Connel is on the threshold of becoming Minnesota's first national collegiate boxing champion after his semifinal win over Herb Carlson of Idaho in the NCAA tournament here last night.

Connel will face Tom Gemmel of Michigan State in tonight's final.

Minnesota's other two first-round survivors, Hal Brown and Dick Newberg fell by the wayside in their second attempts. The Gophers other two entrants, Dave Mackey and Bob Kelson were defeated in first round tests on Thursday.

Connel and Carlson put on a beautiful exhibition of boxing. In the first round, Connel kept his right hand in Carlson's face and brought his left hook up to do the damage.

Carlson came back strong in the second and third rounds with a nice right hand hook but Connel held him at bay.

Connel is a two time NCAA champion and defeated Connel a year ago in the semifinals.

Newberg couldn't solve the long distance punching of Maryland's Ed Reider, losing on a TKO in the third. Reider brought his right hand around like a whip to floor Newberg in the second and again in the third. Newberg hung on gamely, but Reider packed too much power.

Brown was TKO'd in the second round of his bout with Tad Thrash of LSU. Thrash caught Brown with a hard left hook that dazed the Gopher feather. A few seconds later Brown was laying on the canvas from another volley of Thrash's hooks.

Michigan State leads in the race for the team title with 13 points. Minnesota is fifth with six points.

Netmen Face Rugged Big 9 Schedule

The Gopher tennis team will open its Big Nine schedule here May 2 against Iowa.

No pairings have been set up for the squad elimination tournament. The elimination is to cut the 35-man unit down to a workable eight or ten.

Following Iowa, the netmen catch Michigan and Northwestern on successive days. Michigan is paced by Andy Paton, defending Big Nine champion and Northwest Intercollegiate indoor champ.

Northwestern will be even tougher with veterans Ted Peterson and Grant Golden in the lineup. Peterson was Big Nine champion two years ago but lost a close match to Paton in the Big Nine semis last year.

'Mural Softball Loop Has Two Vacancies

Two more softball teams are needed in the intramural diamond ball league to fill out an independent division.

These vacancies will give late comers a chance to enter the spring quarter softball activity. Teams wishing to enter should do so next week in the intramural office, 203 Cooke hall.

If the needed two teams are secured, there will be 32 divisions of four teams each competing in the intramural diamondball chase this quarter. This does not include teams from the farm campus.

The independent league leads the way in the breakdown with 14 entries.

Competition in the softball as well as the baseball loops will consist of round-robin play. Following the round-robin, the one and two teams in each division will battle for the all-University softball crown in a single elimination tourney.

Defending all-U softball kings are the Zetes. Schedules are being drawn up in both softball and baseball by the intramural office and should be ready for team managers next week.

The season opens April 18.

I-M Fencing Tourney Enters Second Phase

The second third of the all-University fencing tourney—intermediate division—opens Tuesday. The event closes Thursday.

The three highest ranking fencers in this group will move up to the advanced division to compete for the all-University fencing titles. This third phase of the tourney begins April 19.

Entered in the intermediate division will be the recent winners of the novice tourney — Donald Mezison, Vernon Gordon and Hobart Banks.

Defending all-U champions are Kent Spaulding, Robert Foster and George Blake. All are competing in the advanced group.

In First Scrimmage

Gridders Meet Today

By Bob Krishef

Bernie Bierman's footballers will get their first taste of scrimmage today.

Bierman will pit the "old" players against the "new" in the opening spring skirmish of the season. The old players consist of last fall's varsity squad while the new outfit will be composed mainly of last year's freshman team together with a few recruits from the "B" squad of a season ago.

For the new men, Dick Munding will start at left end with Jim Reed and Tom Krueger completing the left side at tackle and guard. On the other side, John Carlson holds down guard, Bob Sundin, tackle and Don Johanson, end. Carl Kroening will anchor the line at center.

The backfield has Ted Christian as the signal-caller, George Hudak the tailback, Dick May, right half, and Ron Engle, fullback.

Bierman held off body-contact drills in yesterday's session, choosing to keep his players in one piece for the scrimmage today.

Lakers Win Again, 94-74

The Minneapolis Lakers moved to within one game of the basketball Association of America championship last night with a 94 to 74 win over the Washington Capitols.

It was the Lakers third straight playoff win over the Caps and the seventh straight playoff victory. The teams play in Washington again tonight.

The Capitols must win tonight to stay in the running for the championship.

George Mikan was once again the big gun in the Lakers attack as he poured in 35 points.

The Lakers led 43 to 29 at the half and were never in serious trouble after that. The Caps were playing without the services of their ace forward, "Bones" McKinney.

Mikan was assisted in the scoring department by Jim Pollard's 18 points and Herm Schaefer's 15.

Reserves Trounce Frosh, 16-3

By Lou Johnson

The varsity reserves whipped the freshmen, 16 to 3, in an abbreviated and ragged diamond exhibition yesterday afternoon.

The two teams will tangle again today on the Fourth street field, starting at 1 p.m.

Wayne Pitmon went the distance for the winners. Pitmon, in the seven-inning game, gave up seven hits, walked two and struck out nine.

Second baseman Tom Mee furnished most of the stickwork for the varsity subs. Mee collected two triples and a double in four trips to the plate. Pitmon and catcher Bud Hawkins got two hits apiece off the freshmen hurlers.

Vernon Schultz started on the mound for the freshmen. Schultz pitched good ball, but four errors and three infield hits and a couple of extra base blows caused his downfall in the eight-run third inning. Schultz was followed to the hill by Ever Swanson, Harold Epstein and Ed Oliver. Oliver was impressive in a one inning workout and is slated to start today's game for the freshmen.

The varsity reserves outhit the freshmen 16 to seven. Ralph Turtilin got two of the freshmen's hits, both of which were of the infield variety. Catcher Dick Myklebust blasted a long double in the last half of the third to drive in two of the freshmen's three runs.

Pitmon was given fairly good support afield. The varsity reserves executed a double play and committed only three errors as compared to seven for the freshmen.

A total of 39 players took part in yesterday's game and all those who didn't get in the game are expected to see action today.
