

DULUTH. . . "Playday on the Seaway," UMD's statewide recreational invitational, will attract 250 women from 14 colleges May 6. Sponsor is the Women's Recreation Association.

General chairman Kay Johnson, Proctor, said UMD's Physical Education building will be "open house" for volleyball, basketball, badminton, and apparatus activities. Special demonstrations in gymnastics, aquatics and modern dance are planned, as well as outdoor sports contests. The day's activities will be climaxed with a banquet in Kirby Ballroom.

In charge of events are: Annette Brandes, Askov and Sandra Ness, Duluth, program; Margaret Peterson, Duluth, banquet; Jean Anselmo, Hibbing, registration; Gloria Collard, Duluth, housing, and Beth Yapel, Tower, food.

Invitations chairman Mary Skogman, Cambridge, reports that women will be attending from Augsburg College, Bemidji State, Concordia, Gustavus Adolphus, Hamline, Macalester, Mankato State, Moorhead, St. Benedict College, St. Cloud State, St. Olaf, University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, and Winona State.

Ruth H. Richards, head of women's physical education at UMD, is WRA advisor.
