Duluth--- The works created in UMD's 19th annual Summer Painting Workshop will be displayed at Tweed Gallery next Thursday and Friday (Aug. 17 & 18).

More than 60 oil and acrylic paintings accomplished by the 30 students in the workshop will be shown. A formal opening will be held at 8 p.m. Thursday for the public, faculty, students and gallery patrons.

The workshop is being directed this year by Ben Cunningham, well-known New York artist whose own works have been exhibited widely in this country.

Some of the students' paintings will be on sale.

Prints from the permanent collection will be shown on the balcony. Paintings on loan from Walker Art Center, Minneapolis, will be exhibited on the main floor from Aug. 21 through Sept. 22.
