1. Report on Climate Assessment Survey

Sheryl Grana reported on the climate assessment survey done at UMD in May of 1995. The largest areas of building concern were exterior lighting and the need for more telephones. Services needed were listed in this priority: child care, lighting, and self-defense/safety classes. Please see climate survey handout for further details including recommendations made on page 13.

Discussion on climate survey use was tabled until next meeting.

2. Grants and Budgeting Committee

Karen D. that the Global Visions forum that is being sponsored by Planned Parenthood and Women's Studies on November 4th is being held on campus. The committee moved and Linda P. seconded to grant the request. It also was brought to the committees attention that the computer has now been ordered and Linda K. will help with any problems.

3. Chancellor report to Regents about Climate (Mandate #6 - Jessica Bailey)

V. Katz investigated and reported to the CW that mandate #6 is diversity, which comes from the University of Minnesota's U2000 document. In Jessica Bailey's report on campus climates last May's UMD athlete training on sexual harassment was misprinted as a campus wide training. A voluntary sexual harassment/assault training will occur during orientation next year.

4. Minutes of October 11, 1995

Minutes of the CW meeting held on Wednesday, October 11th, were approved by consensus with the changes of Judith Kritzmire listed as an excused absence and the correct printing of Jane Maddy's name which was misprinted as Jane Waddy..

5. Women who went to China - all campus event

Georgia will introduce guests at the UMD women who went to China all campus meeting that will be held in the Kirby ballroom on Wed. Nov 1st, from 4:30 to 5:30.

6. Meeting for Women Athletes on 10/25

Meeting will be held tonight for all women athletes and members of the CW who wish to attend.

7. Election

Joanne L. And Linda P. will serve on the election committee pro-tem. Ballots are coming in and will be counted by next meeting.

8. Bathroom stall Door Project

V. Katz talked to Jim Shearer about the bathroom stall door project of putting laminated plastic signs on the inside of doors. He replied that this type of advertisement is very graffiti prone. K. Durst mentioned checking with others who have used laminated products. Discussion will continue at next meeting.

9) Old Business

A time and date will be chosen for the CW Fall retreat at the November 8th meeting.
Meeting adjourned.
