Additional Programs

Additional copies of this program are available from Student & Professional Services for the College of Education and Human Development, 110 Wulling Hall, 86 Pleasant St. S.E., University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, MN 55455.

Although care is taken to ensure the accuracy of the information presented here, there may be unintended errors or changes without notice.

Alumni Association Complimentary Membership

Congratulations, new graduates! The University of Minnesota Alumni Association and the College of Education and Human Development Alumni Society are proud to welcome you as our newest alumni of the University of Minnesota.

To help you make the transition from students to alumni, we are giving you a gift of a one-year membership. This complimentary membership is filled with rewards and opportunities and can be the first step toward a lifelong connection to the University.

Getting your free membership is easy. To activate your membership immediately, just fill out the membership card application that is tucked into your diploma cover and mail it to UMAA. If you do nothing, your membership will automatically be activated in early fall when UMAA receives your alumni record from the college.

Order of Events

Prelude

From 7:15 to 7:30 p.m., organ music is provided by Allan W. Mahnke.

Procession

The march of the candidates

Welcome

Steven R. Yussen, Ph.D., Dean of the College of Education and Human Development

Opening Remarks

Mark G. Yudof, President, University of Minnesota

Student Address

Susan M. Johnson, candidate for a master of education (M.Ed.) degree in human resource development

Commencement Address

George Latimer, LL.B., Professor of Urban Studies at Macalester College in St. Paul, is one of the country's leading authorities on urban issues. Latimer served as Mayor of Saint Paul from 1976 to 1990, was Dean of Hamline University Law School in St. Paul, and was an adviser to Secretary Henry Cisneros at the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development. He is actively involved with issues of literacy and early childhood education.

Presentation of the Candidates

Robert C. Serfass, Ph.D., Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, will begin the presentation of the candidates.

Candidates for the Bachelor of Science Degree

The following faculty members will present the candidates: Michael G. Wade, Ph.D., Director, School of Kinesiology and Leisure Studies; and Deborah R. Dillon, Ph.D., Chair, Department of Curriculum and Instruction.

Candidates for the Master of Education Degree

The following faculty members will present the candidates: Mary A. McEvoy, Ph.D., Chair, Department of Educational Psychology; and Jane E. Plihal, Ph.D., Chair, Department of Work, Community, and Family Education.

Conferring of Degrees

Regent William E. Hogan II will confer degrees upon the candidates.

Alumni Welcome

Mary G. Endorf, Ph.D. President, College of Education and Human Development Alumni Society, will congratulate the graduates.

Closing Remarks

Dean Yussen

Hail! Minnesota

The audience will rise and join in singing the University's alma mater:

Minnesota, hail to thee!
Hail to thee our college dear
Thy light shall ever be
A beacon bright and clear;
Thy sons and daughters true
Will proclaim thee near and far;
They will guard thy fame
And adore thy name
Thou shalt be their Northern Star.

Recessional

The audience is asked to remain seated until those in the academic procession have marched out.

In Remembrance

The College of Education and Human Development wishes to remember two members of our college community who passed away during the past year:

Allen Burton, 1954-2001

Allen Burton, professor of kinesiology, died of cancer Sept. 5. Burton joined the faculty in 1986. His major field of study was developmental physical education and motor-skills assessment.

Michelle Eckart, 1947-2002

Michelle Eckart, full-time lecturer in the Department of Educational Psychology, died Jan. 11 from leukemia complications. Eckart was with the college for six years, serving as a supervisor of student teachers, an academic adviser, and an instructor in special education.

Ways to Stay Connected

Be an active University of Minnesota alum!

- 1 Join the University of Minnesota Alumni Association. Your first year's membership is free! The UMAA and the College of Education and Human Development Alumni Society sponsor a wide variety of alumni activities both on and off campus. Call 612-626-1601.
- 2 Volunteer! Contact the college alumni office at 612-626-1601 to find out how you can get involved.
- 3 Support scholarships for current students. Give to the College of Education and Human Development Alumni Society Student Scholarship Fund. Call 612-625-1310 for more information.
- 4 Advocate for University issues. Join the UMAA Legislative Network by calling 612-625-9173 in the Twin Cities or 800-UM-ALUMS in greater Minnesota.
- 5 Continue your education. Alumni educators and human development professionals can participate in workshops and classes. Call 612-625-5060 or visit our Web site at www.education.umn.edu/cps for more information.
- 6 Honor fellow alumni. Recognize fellow alumni professionals through the College of Education and Human Development's Alumni Society Spring Awards.
- 7 Help recruit new students. Contact the University Office of Admissions' Alumni Liaison at 612-624-7057 if you are interested in talking with prospective students.
- 8 Wear your college sweatshirt on Maroon and Gold Casual Fridays. Sign up your school, business, or organization. The Goldy Gopher Prize Patrol will visit you and reward those wearing their school colors with Gopher gear.
- 9 Read The Link and Minnesota. The Link is the news magazine for friends and alumni of the College of Education and Human Development. After joining the UMAA, you also will receive Minnesota magazine, a compendium of news, articles, and information covering the entire University.
- 10 Share your news. Let us know about your personal and professional life by sending information to College of Education and Human Development, Alumni Relations Office, 178 Pillsbury Drive S.E., Minneapolis, MN, 55455, or via e-mail at thelink@umn.edu.

Preparing Leaders in Education and Human Development

The mission of the College of Education and Human Development is to generate knowledge about teaching, learning, and human development and to apply that knowledge to improve education for all individuals. Consistently ranked as one of the most productive professional schools of education in the country — public or private — the college is a state, national, and international leader in teaching, research, and outreach.

The college is organized into six academic units and more than 20 research and service centers, with an emphasis on interdisciplinary, collaborative approaches to addressing critical issues in preschool through postsecondary education, lifelong learning, and human development. Our name reflects the broad scope and impact of the college's teaching, research, and outreach mission and our deep commitment to improving the well-being of children, youth, families, and communities.
