UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA, DULUTH

Vol. 24, No. 9, August 15, 1975

UMD LOSES A GREAT FRIEND Edwin O. Siggelkow, for 11 years coordinator of Kirby Student Center and student activities, died early Monday at his home in Minneapolis of a heart attack. While at UMD, Ed won the UMD student faculty-staff award twice, symbolic of the high regard students, faculty and staff held him. In April, 1967, Ed moved to the Twin Cities campus to become director of Coffman Memorial Union, then director of student unions. Last April, Ed was named the outstanding director of student unions in the nation by the Association of College Unions-International.

Memorial services were held yesterday at the Campus Club. Memorials should be made out to the Edwin O. Siggelkow Memorial Fund, University of Minnesota Foundation, 107 Walters Library, University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, 55455.

Ed, who was 49, is survived by his wife, Sylvia, and four children.

SUMMER GRADUATION NEXT FRIDAY Former UMD University Relations Representative Clarence Anderson will speak to the Summer Session commencement class at 4 p.m., Friday, August 22, at Marshall Performing Arts Center. Anderson, who now is university editor at the University of Southern California, will talk on "Some Reflections on Endangered Species." UMD Provost Raymond W. Darland and UMD Graduate School Assistant Dean M. Harry Lease, Jr., will confer the undergraduate and graduate degrees. A reception for graduates, their families and friends will be held at Kirby Student Center lounge immediately following commencement.

UMD SCORES AGAIN Of more than 60 colleges and universities represented at the May examinations in Minneapolis for the Certified Public Accountant (CPA) rating, UMD's accounting graduates were the most successful. Of 15 UMD grads taking the difficult tests, five or 33% of them passed all subjects, the highest percentage of all campuses. Next in line were St. John's College, 20%; Wisconsin Colleges and Universities, 20%; University of Iowa, 17%; and the University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, 13%. Two additional UMD grads later completed the entire set of tests. The average success mark for all schools was 12%. Dr. Philip Friest, head of the UMD Accounting department, was delighted at hearing the good news this week.

RETURN CONCERT The University Singers will mark their return to the United States with a free, public concert at 8:15 p.m., Tuesday, August 19, in the Marshall Performing Arts Center. The 40-member choir, under the direction of Vernon H. Opheim, has spent the past four weeks touring Northern Europe.
