ONE FAIR MAIDEN IS IMPRISONED IN VESTIBULE

Unique and Startling Experience Had By Junior Girl—Rescued By Gallant Masculine.

Another "almost a tragedy" on the university campus!

A girl in trouble, of course, but in Folwell Hall this time, not Alice Shevlin. The doors of the hall have a rather unique locking system not supposed to be understood by mere femininity. They have a peculiar habit when the lock is set, of being opened on the inside and locking from the outside. How could a girl be expected to know?

This young lady came into the hall for her mail late Tuesday afternoon and in order to avoid intruding upon the Daily-Gopher-Mag "feed," attempted to leave by the north door. The inside door locked behind her, and the great outside door already locked by the janitor refused to open. She was a prisoner in the vestibule. For an hour she remained in the stifling dungeon. What her thoughts were, as she stood helplessly and listened to the gait below, one can imagine.

At last her calls for help were heard by a passing student who very gallantly came to the rescue. He endeavored to attract the attention of the gay banqueters in the Daily office but their mirth and noise drowned all his pounding on the window pane.

Finally, with the assistance of three other students from the Chi Psi lodge, he managed to rouse the janitor, and together they extracted the much-alarmed co-ed, weary from her long imprisonment, and much frightened at the prospect of spending the night in the close, hot prison.

RED MEN WILL ROOT

Invasion of Noble Chiefs—They Wear Patent-Leathers.

Indian rooters are pouring into the city for the Minnesota-Carlisle football game today. The first to arrive Theodore Mani, a former university student, who is divided in his affections as to the outcome of the game. He was on the Minnesota squad in 1905-06.

Simon Michelet, agent of the White Earth reservation, will arrive in Minneapolis today with a band of the best-known of the blanket Indians of the Northwest. Among them will be several of the old chiefs.

The band of Indians that descended upon Minneapolis last night proved a distinct disappointment to many. The red men were attired in military blue uniforms, with much gold braid. Several who registered extremely descriptive names on the hotel register are privately known as "John" or "Pete" or "Bill." They were adorned with patent leather shoes, which further detracted from any war-like appearance which they might have had.

VICTORY PROPHESED IN MASS MEETING

List of Speakers Rouse Enthusiasm—Minnesota Spirit Shows up Strong.

"Victory if we can, and a better score than Harvard if we lose." This was the spirit of the big mass meeting held at 7:30 last evening in chapel and this is the spirit which will dominate Minnesota's rooting today.

The mass meeting was a big success. The evening hour proved fully as popular a time as the afternoon for holding the big "noise fest" and the chapel was crowded. Minnesota rooters more than made up last evening for any lack of interest which they may have shown in today's game during the early part of the week.

A. O. Colburn led the list of speakers. He was full of confidence, and states that Minnesota was due to win.

Professor Allin of the Political Science Department was next. In a forceful vigorous talk, full of humor and inspiration, he urged the team and students to fight a fair and honest battle, and above all, to stand by the team thru victory or defeat.

Coach Williams told the rooters that the team was better prepared to meet

GOPHERS MEET FAST EXPONENTS OF "NEW" TRICKY FOOTBALL TODAY

CO-ED SUFFRAGE CLUB HOLDS FIRST ELECTION

Organization Completed and Officers Chosen—Prof. West Gives His View.

The Political Equality Club was formally organized yesterday and the following officers were elected: President—Elsa Ueland. Vice-President—Prof. West. Secretary—Miss Peck. Treasurer—Alice Winter. Auditor—Howard Hare.

The officers were appointed a committee to draw up a constitution and chose a name for the club.

Prof. West addressed the meeting on the aims of political equality. "It should be mainly for what it means to woman, to give her greater political dignity, and more as a step to economic equality." He said he cared most to express his hearty sympathy with the organization. "May you convert the entire body of University women to the righteous aims of the club and bring about rapid success," was his last remark.

Dr. Hurd, president of the local Suffrage Club was present.

DEAN CHOOSES DOOR-PLATES

In harmony as usual with the finishings—Number of room and name of occupant engraved on each.

Door plates for Folwell Hall are forth coming. They will be in perfect harmony with the rest of the furnishings and fixtures. Considerable trouble has been experienced in securing just the right pattern. It has been necessary to send to New York for them and the two samples which have been successively sent were not quite perfect in design. The numbers of every room and plates naming the more important ones will be done in lacquered brass. The letters standing in relief against a gunmetal background.

The next law dance will be held on Thursday, November 21st instead of the 22d, as announced in the Daily a few days ago. Preparations are well under way and a large crowd is expected. Wilson's hall has been secured.

Phi Gamma Delta will give an informal dancing party next Wednesday evening in Johnson's Hall.

EAST VERSUS WEST

Hard work has developed smooth team work for Gophers—Lineup uncertain.

"We expect a hard game and will be satisfied with a small score. Minnesota found her weak points in the Chicago game and has had plenty of time to improve. I believe we are meeting a better team than we did last year and that we must play a better game to win."—"Pop" Warner, Carlisle's coach.

It is a real game of football which is to be played on Northrop Field this afternoon. The best team of the east, the fastest, trickiest, gamest, most expert, and most experienced exponents of the "new" football are playing what we of Minnesota sincerely believe to be the best team in the west today, in spite of our defeat while still in a somewhat undeveloped stage two weeks ago.

Minnesota's greatest disadvantage lies in the fact that she is opposing the Indians with a team in which Schuknecht, Bandelin, Kjelland and Case are the only men of any considerable football experience and in which "Shuk" and Case are the only "M" men. This team, with a varsity experience of but three games during the present season is meeting the most experienced team in the country. A victory, or even a low score, would put Minnesota, her new team, (Continued on 3rd page.)

A PROTEST

Since the beginning of the present football season, nothing has so grated on our sense of justice and injustice as the sentiments expressed in the Thursday's issue of a downtown paper. Front-page headlines blazed forth with "Mayor and Everybody Else Guess Against Minnesota."
"Gopher Supporters Are Very Mum."

In a prominent place was placed in bold, black type:

- * * * * *
- * SOME FACTS ABOUT
- * THE GUESSES.
- * Every guesser favored Carlisle.
- * No one gave Minnesota more
- * than 16 points.
- * No one guessed less than 16
- * for Carlisle.
- * Everybody agreed it would be
- * a regular slaughter.
- * * * * *

Nothing can smack more of muck-crism than this. Down-town newspapers exert a powerful influence in moulding public opinion, and for them to deliberately concentrate their efforts towards creating an impression that Minnesota does not believe in her own team, is contemptable.

The rooters are not making the demonstration that was made before the Chicago game because so much is not at stake. But the fact that we are not so noisy does not mean that we are not going to stand by the team and by the coach.

We grant that we are perhaps lining up against the greatest football eleven in the United States. But we ourselves have a wonderful team, and whether we win or whether we lose we were, we are, and we always will the Indians than they were Chicago.

"The rooting during open practice was just what we needed," he added.
Captain Schuknecht prophesied a surprise for the rooters. He was fol-

Art Larkin.

Some one says Oscar has lost the key to the tower door. Anyway it seems to be over or under the rail which does not at all give these

"studes" anything very good to say of the armory janitor. "Oscar open that door quick!"

The band was out in force. The songs were tried, and at the close Elmer Bunce promised that the band would stand by the team. The new boom yell was yelled for the first time in mass meeting.

CARLISLE HERE TODAY.

and her coach on a pinnacle which she has never before attained.

The team has been working hard this week. The few crudities which cost us the Chicago game by the narrow margin of one touchdown have been largely eliminated, and as is shown by quotations from the Indian coach and captain, the Carlisle men realize this and expect to have a much more formidable aggregation to face than did Chicago two weeks ago.

A lower score than Harvard would mean much, and a lower score against the Indians than Chicago makes in their game a week from today would do much to wipe out the sting of defeat. Every man on the team realizes this and will do his best.

The Indians have been in town since Friday. Late yesterday afternoon their coach stated, that everything had been done to alleviate the effects of the long hard trip west and that he thought that by this morning the redskins would be in shape again and fit to play the game with almost as much dash as they displayed against Harvard last week.

The varsity line-up is as yet somewhat unsettled. Chestnut may start the game at quarter with Harry Capron playing his position at the left extremity of the line and George Capron at half. This is by no means certain however, and the line-up may be the same as it was against Chicago. In this case the teams will line-up as follows:

"How the Indians Beat the White Man at Foot Ball"

This was the heading of an article in Sundays Tribune. Now we want to see this in next Sundays Tribune. "How Minnesota beat the redmen at football." Wouldn't that look good to you? Just because we lost when we played Chicago is no sign we will lose Saturday. The game is not played yet and faint heart never won anything. What we need is to brace up and from now on, say "we must beat Carlisle," say it as if you expected to win and by the way you will feel more like a winner if you are wearing one of those smart fancy waist-coats the college toggerly are showing this week—just take a look at the display in the window then go in, buy one and you will brace up and say we are going to beat Carlisle.

NOW FOR A BIG SATURDAY'S BUSINESS!

There is nothing to this financial stringency howl—it's all bosh—and I know. The Northwest never was in such good condition, and Minneapolis in particular. My business is good and the men who come here have money in their pockets to pay for their clothes.

There are fellows who are about to close next minute, always looking for an excuse to buy an $8.98 hand-me-down suit.

I predict one of the greatest Thanksgiving days the Northwest ever had. It is up to you to look the part in one of Harry Mitchell's made-to-order suits.

Now, don't lose out by waiting until you have to take a suit hot from a pile on a shelf of a hand-me-down store and have your best girl say you look so late you never will arrive.

I expect a big business Saturday. I am sure to get it. I just got back from Chicago, where I had to go for more tailors. I know I have the best tailors in the city and will turn out the best work.

I show you the finest of imported woollens—exclusive styles—fabrics you never see in ready-made clothes at any price. No other tailor can show you handsomer woollens. At $15 I will make you a suit or overcoat to order that would cost you $30 at any other tailor, and at $20 a suit or overcoat that will cost you $40 at any other tailor, and at $25 I will make you a suit or overcoat that you can't match at any other tailor's under $45 and $50.

I sell on my personal guarantee—satisfaction or no sale, not sometimes, but always.

Yours truly,
