Beloit College Musical Clubs To Give Special Chapel Program Monday

Glee Club of Eighteen Voices Will Contribute to Artfulness of Entertainment.

UNIVERSITY CONCERT IS FIFTH OF SERIES OF ELEVEN

Program for the Occasion will Feature an Old Fashioned Minstrel Show.

A special program of unusual merit will be given in chapel next Monday noon by the Beloit College Musical Clubs, now making their twenty-ninth annual tour. This is not to be one of the regular chapel periods but is a special program given by the musical clubs for students of this University. The concert which they will give in Minneapolis is the fifth in a series of eleven which includes Milwaukee, Green Bay, Menominee, Wausau, Hudson, Rochester, Winona, La Crosse, Sparta and Baraboo. Usually there is a post season concert in Chicago with some eastern college, and also the home concert in Beloit, at which the clubs take in five to six hundred dollars. Whatever money is left after the trip is divided among the members of the clubs, with the exception of a sort of sinking fund which is passed along from one year to another to finance the preparations for the next year's trip.

There are eighteen men in the Glee Club, which is drilled and rehearsed so they sing without a director or accompanist, and the Mandolin Club instrumentation includes five first and five second Mandolins, cello, flute, drum, cornet and trombone.

The program is divided into three parts. In the first and last the clubs alternate, but in the second or middle number they combine and give a College version of a minstrel show, as they used to be before the days of so much vaudeville. The middle part this year is called "el Dorado, or the Land of no Case."

Beloit is one of the smaller colleges, and the work there is confined almost entirely to what is here known as academic. As the school is located in a town of about fifteen thousand, the students are not scattered about as much as here, and there is consequently a much stronger feeling of unity.

The faculty gives the clubs a special leave of absence so that they can get away a little before the spring vacation starts, and their first concert was played early this week.

The concert in Minneapolis is in charge of the Epworth League of the First Methodist Church, and will be given Monday evening at eight o'clock.

Farmers Debate Tonight

College of Agriculture Will Contest With Team Representing Wisconsin's Ag College.

The College of Agriculture of Wisconsin will debate with the College of Agriculture of Minnesota in the Farm chapel tonight. The question to be debated is, Resolved: That a sufficient number of co-operative agricultural banks should be established in Wisconsin and Minnesota to meet the demands for real credit of the farmers of these States. Minnesota has the affirmative and it will be upheld by Arvid Nelson, O. P. Brewster and F. C. Clapp. Wisconsin's team will be made up of H. E. Anderson, C. R. Wiseman, and W. C. Hansen. Music will be furnished by the College Quartette.

A team made up of C. A. Halverson, Neil Head and C. Worth will journey to Wisconsin to uphold the negative side of the question tonight.

Y. W. MEETS THIS NOON.

Nominating Committee will Submit Names of Nominees.

The Y. W. C. A. will hold its regular meeting today, at noon in Shevlin Hall. The talk will be the third of a series on Christian Fundamentals. Rev. A. C. Haupt, rector of St. Matthews Church, in St. Anthony Park, will speak on the subject of "Prayer." Following the short service and address, the nominating committee will submit its report of nominees for four offices. The report will be presented for ratification, with or without amendments.

A. P. Keefe Enters Race For Managing Editorship

Middle Law Student, Former Member of Daily Staff, Announces Candidacy.

Proposes Platform Containing Four Endeavors, Several of Which are New.

A. P. Keefe, a middle law student announces his candidacy for managing editor of the Daily. He has served one year on the Minnesota Daily staff and four years on Twin City newspapers as university correspondent.

This brings the total number of candidates for managing editor to a total of three, Carl Painter, Alfred Joyce, and A. P. Keefe. No further announcements have been made for the board.

Mr. Keefe solicits the consideration and support of the electorate on the following platform:

1. The gathering and publication of news, while it is news and in a news style.
2. The development of the reportorial staff under trained supervision and with proper inducements for industry.
3. An editorial column with a consistent policy, independent but responsible, and with a real "punch."
4. Reportorial representation in all of the professional schools and colleges.

Mrs. Frances S. Potter, Former English Teacher, Passes Away In Chicago

Funeral Services Held at Home Yesterday and Body Taken to Elmira, N. Y. for Burial.

WAS FOR TEN YEARS INSTRUCTOR IN ENGLISH DEPARTMENT

Faculty Members Eulogize Former Associate and Her Work.

Mrs. Frances Squires Potter, former teacher of English Literature at Minnesota, died Wednesday afternoon at her home in Chicago, after an illness of more than two years' duration. Mrs. Potter was widely known as an earnest advocate of Woman Suffrage. For ten years she was professor of English at the University of Minnesota. Funeral services were held at the residence yesterday and the body will be taken to the old home in Elmira, New York, for interment.

Mrs. Potter's life was one of beauty, service, and self-sacrifice. Her frank democratic nature and her desire to do good for others is well known. No greater testimonial of her work as a teacher than the unqualified praise and love of her students could be desired. In addition to her benevolent social work she supported and raised three children.

As an instructor, she came to the University of Minnesota in 1901; and throughout the ten years she spent here filled her students with enthusiasm for learning. During that time she published the forceful novel "The Ballingtons," did post graduate work at Cambridge, and contributed to several literary periodicals.

Dr. Burton with whom she was associated, when reviewed yesterday said: "Mrs. Potter was a greatly valued member of the English Department and a woman of the highest accomplishment and character. She had distinct literary powers, and had a wide reputation as a platform speaker. Her withdrawal some years ago from the university was a distinct loss to the institution. Her influence upon the students was always toward the finest educational ideals. Personally, I feel her loss very much."

Her gift of public speaking made her in 1909 secretary to the National Women's Suffrage Association. She was prominent in the General Federation of Women's Clubs and editor of a department in "Life and Labor." She was the first woman in America to be elected to a membership in the University Lecturers' Association.

Rollman Wins Rifle Honors

Minnesota Takes Fourth Place in Intercollegiate Shooting Match.

With the conclusion of Minnesota's intercollegiate rifle schedule, in which the team finished fourth, the computation of the individual averages shows Captain E. Rollman high gun, winning the club championship for the year. Rollman's average was 96%, exactly one-tenth of one percent better than that of Lieutenant Colonel Lambert, who was expected to carry off the honors. Lambert's average is 95.9% his grand total of points in the eleven matches being one less than Rollman's.

Rollman's average is remarkable, in that it is the highest ever made by a Minnesota rifleman. Rydell's average last year of 94.9 was considered the acme of skill with the rifle. Sontag and Countryman are third and fourth, both having averages above 92%.

Under the 85% ruling, Lambert and Rollman will receive the gold medals, while six men will receive the silver 90.. medals. During the course of the

EDUCATORS HEAR WITMER

Noted Psychologist Delivers Address on "Science and Education."

Yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, Dr. Lightner Witmer of the University of Pennsylvania, delivered a very able address to the Education Club on the subject "Science and Education." The University should account itself fortunate in having had so many opportunities to hear Dr. Witmer, who is justly rated as one of the foremost psychologists of the country.

Stage Is Set For Tonight's Big Track Meet In Armory

Entries in High Jump and Shot Put are Announced—Meet to be Run Off in Two Hours.

Howell and Hamilton Expect to Break Indoor Record in Pole Vault and Hurdles.

On the day before the All-University Indoor Track meet, to be held this evening in the Armory, several new entrants announced themselves for the high jump and shot put, bringing the lists to a point where they include every athlete of note in the university.

The events will be so run that the meet will be finished in two hours, starting at 7:30 and finishing at 9:30.

The entrants for the shot put and high jump as they stand now are:

Shot put, Lynn, Robertson, Haskins, Scholtes, Rosenthal, Little, Dyson, Winterble, B. Bierman.

High jump: Thompson, Ostergren, Carman, Smith, Murray, A. L. Bierman, Gould, Jones, Winterble, Haskins, Crowley, and Hyde.

In the pole vault, Howell will attempt to break the Minnesota indoor record of 10 feet 5 inches. This seems very probable since he has often done better than that in practice. He will be pushed hard by McKay, Hammerstein and Kammerer. The latter holds the North Dakota record of 10 feet 11 inches and is expected to do much in tonight's meet.

The 50-yard dash will be made interesting and close by such men as Capt. Spink, of the track team, Moulumb, Sherman, B. Bierman, Martin, Quist, Smith, Johnson, Hamilton, Winterble and Robertson. It is expected that the Minnesota record will be equalled and probably lowered.

Hamilton, who broke Minnesota's high hurdle indoor record of 7 3-5 and equalled the low hurdle record of 7 feet, is pushed hard by Webster, Stoner, Martin and Sherman, all of whom have shown up well in practice. Martin and Moulumb will figure strongly in the low hurdles.

The feature event of the evening will be without doubt the spectacular 1/4 mile race between Lindeberg and Watson. Lindeberg made himself famous in the 1912 Western Conference half-mile while Watson gained fame when he broke the Western cross (Continued on page 3)

Grad History Club To Meet

Topic for Get-Together on March 31 will be "Panama"—Papers to be Read.

The meeting of the Graduate History Club, which was postponed last Tuesday will be held on Tuesday, March 31 in the History Laboratory. The topic of the evening will be "Panama." Foster H. Kreis will read the first paper on "The Economic Importance of the Panama Canal." Miss Anna Lane will speak on the "History of the Panama Canal." A report on the "Interpretation of the Treaties Involved in the Panama Canal Question" will be given by Miss Franc Hackenburger; and Miss Sobia Magelson will discuss the "Panama Tolls" question.

Dr. Notestein will preside at the meeting, which will convene at 7:30 P. M.

Student Volunteers To Meet In Convention At Hamline College Today

Meetings will be Held in Methodist's University Chapel Today and Tomorrow.

UNIVERSITY DELEGATES WILL MAKE TRIP TOMORROW P. M.

Representatives of Every College and Normal School in State Expected to Attend.

Friday evening will mark the opening of the third State Convention of the Student Volunteer Movement at Hamline University. The convention will be held in the interests of Foreign Missions, and will be conducted along the same lines as the recent Kansas City Convention.

The meetings will be held in the University Chapel at Hamline, from March 27 to 29. The scheduled hours for the meetings are: Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock; Saturday morning at 10:00; Sunday afternoon at 2:30 followed by a banquet in the Hamline M. E. Church; evening meeting Saturday at 7:30 P. M. There will be an afternoon meeting Sunday at 2:30 and the evening service will be held at the First Baptist Church in Minneapolis.

The leaders of the convention bid fair to offer an interesting and helpful program. The list of speakers follows: Mr. J. Lovell Murray at one time a missionary in India, now the Educational Director of the Student Volunteer Movement, who had the entire charge of the exhibition of literature at the Kansas City Convention; Rev. Mr. Erickson, a missionary to Macedonia, who has been sent to America by the Albanian Government to state conditions at the present time in that country, a commission that is not often made; Prof. P. S. Khankjeje from his native land, India; Mrs. McClure, who has also spent much of her time in India; the home field will be represented by Mr. Fred B. Hill of Carleton College, and Rev. Thomas Graham, well known on the Minnesota (Continued on page 4)

Many Try Out For Parts

Fifty Men and Seventy-Five Women Seek Roles in "The Players" Production.

The first tryouts for parts in "Sweet Lavender" the play to be put on by "The Players" the new dramatic club were a great success. Over one hundred and twenty-five tried out in the two days, and of this number fifty were men. At Minnesota it has always been thought hard to get men of talent for this line of university activities. The material was of such an excellent quality that the judges have found it difficult to eliminate the candidates for parts.

Mr. Walton Pyre who in his recent appearance in chapel made such a favorable impression on the students has been engaged to judge the tryouts and coach those who obtain the parts. Mr. Pyre was greatly surprised at the amount of material which he found awaiting him at the first tryout and he highly praises the interest which the students are showing in dramatic art. Dr. Anna Phelan is Faculty representative and has contributed much toward bringing out so large a number of candidates and securing such an efficient judge and coach.

The new club will serve in the same way as the Masquers, their production being played on one of the extension circuits during University Week.

That the new club will be successful there is absolutely no doubt, as the members have been selected with great care. Those who are on the waiting list will have first opportunity next fall, when the club puts on its first play next year.

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

"Granted sufficient community intelligence," said Dean Vance in his recently published article on the Honor System in the Minnesota Magazine, "the laws that are made will soon bear very heavily upon that member of the community who is dishonest, because an intelligent community quickly recognizes that any kind of unfair practices are unsocial."

While it is true that the average man or woman in a community existing "in the shadow of a great university" does recognize that unfair practices are unsocial, it is not enough to assume that such recognition will furnish the remedy for the practices. Too often we are fully cognizant of a petty wrong, and sometimes greater wrongs, the mere knowledge of whose existence in our own thought and action does not lead us to repudiate them. There is something more, the cultivation of that moral sense which Dean Vance thinks is all-important, yet little appealed to in modern systems of higher education. Without such a moral sense all progress, social and otherwise, is at a standstill. It is immaterial as to how that sense be developed, whether through religious training and habits of mind or through cold contemplation of the ultimate good of society and its immediate prerequisites; but developed it must be if "the greatest good to the greatest number" is to result.

For those who seek a use for this sense and who would be accredited with the degree of intelligence which Dean Vance characterizes as "sufficient," we have only to point out a few places where the exercise of such faculties is needed today. Is it too much to say that the taking of books from the Library and keeping them "ditched" when we know they are in demand is a case in point? Does it stretch the doctrine to apply it to the taking of Daily's from post office boxes other than our own? We think not. As for classroom honesty, that is beyond the necessity of mention.

In a word we need a moral sense as the fitting compliment of our intellectual attainment.

Prof. Vance Requested

Extracts from Article on Honor System Reprinted at Mr. Skinner's Request.

In order that there be no misunderstanding as to the purport of Dean Vance's analysis of the Honor system, appearing in the March Magazine, the following extracts which Mr. Skinner incorporated in his review of the "Mag." are at his request republished. "The thesis that the true function of a state university is to train young men and young women for citizenship proves itself. It is almost equally self-evident that in this training for efficient citizenship the moral element is the most important. It is exactly in respect to this element that our present scheme of education is least adequate."

"The honor system is misunderstood, partly for the reason that the name ill describes it. It is really a system of student self-government. It is nothing more or less than a delegation, by the faculty of an institution of learning, of the power of government, particularly with reference to matters connected with the conduct of class work and examinations, to the students themselves. It may be called an honor system only in the sense that the faculty thus show their trust in the intelligence, integrity and honor of the student body. After all, however, the question to be determined when it is proposed to allow the students of an institution to govern themselves, does not involve so much their integrity and sense of honor as it does their intelligence."

"It tends to regenerate the relation between student and teacher. Under the old autocratic system, the tendency is for the teacher to look upon the student as a lazy and dishonest person who will cheat and do anything else in his power to get through his courses with the minimum of effort."

On the other hand, the student is apt to regard the professor as an inhuman creature, existing principally for the purpose of being a plague to real human beings; in short, as an enemy and oppressor. In other words, the attitude of teacher and pupil prevailing in the secondary school is projected into the university. Under the honor system the professor trusts the student, and his trust is well rewarded."

News From Other Camps

Ann Arbor, Mich., March 25.—Varying directly with the approach of the spring trip, Michigan's Varsity base ball squad is diminishing in size.
Coach Carl Lundgren, forced to abandon plans for outdoor practice, owing to a sudden change of weather conditions, has divided his squad of diamond artists into two groups, which will practically compose the first and second teams. Instead, therefore, of one big squad of 38 men keeping up indoor practice, only two dozen men composing the Varsity squad, will work in the cage. These men are:

Pitchers: Captain Sisler, Baribeau, Quaintance, Davidson, Metcalf, Kenyon, Vogel, Wheat, Ferguson and Soddy.

Catchers: Baer, Hippler, Benton and Matson.

Infielders: Hughtitt, McQueen, Baker, Howard, Labodie and Shivel.

Outfielders: Sheahy, Robinson and Graham.

The other men, who will compose the Reserve team, Catchers, Wyman and Turner; infielders: Caswell, Rice, Kaiser, Leininger, Powell, Anderson and Diemer; outfielders, Lieserwitz,

Werum, Roehm, Stewart and Saier.— these men will join the first team as soon as weather conditions allow the players to work on South Ferry field.
Early in the week indications pointed to an opportunity for a real outdoor tune-up, but the sudden shift makes it necessary to confine work to the cage.

In addition to the daily hitting practice, the coach is giving the battery enough work to keep them busy, while the infielders are practicing throwing to bases. The whole squad is being trained in running bases, with the Varsity sprinting lanes substituting as baselines.

The Cheshire Cat

Worse Than Sorority Rushing.
The W. S. G. A. is about to hold election of officers. We expect to see the candidates holding parties at the Oak Tree and, walking about the campus with their arms around two or three girls, whispering in their ears honeyed words as to why they are the "best thing available" for the office! Get out your ear muffers, girls!

Keep off the Grass.
In line with this "Keep Off the Grass" idea, why don't they make the brave 3 1/2 hour per week soldiers stay off that grass on the parade ground? There won't be any nice green grass there at all, after a while! Oh, yes! The camp men had to drill 3 1/2 hours yesterday! How they do love the Commandant!

A Gentlemen Kat?
The green sign says—"Gentlemen will not smoke on the old campus." Now, that's alright, but who does the Student Council mean by the term "gentlemen," except of course the Kat?

Why Not Just "Play" School?
And now we have a new dramatic club called the "Garrick Club." This is an exclusive one, too, just remember—only twelve members! If we keep on at this pace, we will have enough dramatic clubs here to turn this into a school of dramatic art!

Society Notes:—
In Mathematical circles, it is interesting to note that Prof. B. L. Newkirk gave his Sophomore Class in Calculus a quiz recently. Physicians entertain high hopes that the class will recover in the dim future.

Mr. John Shadbolt procured a haircut recently. He hopes that he can afford to have a barber shave him also after the Gopher subscriptions are paid.

Mr. Daniel Sullivan was a visitor at the University a few days ago.

campus.
The Friday evening's session will be addressed by Mr. Murray, President Kerfoot of Hamline and Mr. Hill. At the Sunday evening service in Minneapolis the program will include Mr. Murray, Rev. Erickson, Prof. Khankeje, Rev. Graham and Miss Evelyn Camp.

It is expected that every college and normal school of the state will be well represented. The convention is opened to all who are interested in the work of the Volunteer Movement. Those going from this campus are laying special emphasis on the Saturday afternoon and evening meetings, all starting together from the Y. M. C. A. building at 1:30 P. M.

Farm School Seniors Graduate.
The Graduation exercises of the School of Agriculture were held in the chapel Wednesday at 2:30. This closes the School festivities and most of the students have left. Things look quite vacant now on the other campus.

Seniors Complete Plans For Next Informal Dance

Committee in Charge Declares Crowding at Former Dances Obviated This Time.

Tickets will Continue on Sale Today and Tomorrow in Men's Post Office.

Plans have been recently completed to make the next Senior Informal, which will be held April 2nd, something more memorable in its line than anything ever attempted before by the Senior Class.

To prevent the crowding which was apparent at the last Senior Informal the Masonic Temple, a hall capable of easily accommodating two hundred couples has been engaged and everyone is assured of a great abundance of room and excellent music.

As at the previous Senior Dance, a program of eighteen dances is to be given, including two extras. The same orchestra has been engaged and the music promises to be as excellent as that at the previous Informal.

Tickets will be on sale today and tomorrow in the Men's Post Office, but those failing to get tickets before the dance will be able to get them at the door.

Class of 1916—A class meeting will be held in chapel this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

ROLLMAN WINS RIFLE HONOR

matches, five perfect scores were made in the prone position, Lambert and Warner each getting two, while Rollman made the other.

With Rollman, Lambert, Sontag, Countryman, Warner and Carlson sure to be back on the team next year, prospects for a championship team are unusually good. Arrangements for better facilities on the range will be made, and it is expected that five scores above 190 will be turned in for every match.

The club standings for the past season are as follows:
Rollman ..... 96.
Lambert ..... 95.9

Sontag	93.14
Countryman	92.86
Lovering	92.34
Warner	92.2
Carlson, T.	91.15
Bettridge	90.82

Chicago women are congratulating themselves on their success in raising $940 to cover the expenses of the second year's work of Miss Margery Melcher in Calcutta, India. Miss Melcher, who formerly was secretary of the Y. W. C. A. at the University, is directing education and charitable work among women at Calcutta and has made a creditable showing. The league raised the funds to maintain her there during the next year in a ten day campaign.
