

DULUTH--One of ten pretty UMD coeds will be crowned Sweetheart of the Corps at the 12th annual Air Force ROTC and Arnold Air Society military ball in Kirby Student Center Saturday night(April 15).

On Tuesday(April 11)---at 9:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m.---the ROTC cadets will view the candidates and begin the balloting which will determine the girl who will be crowned by last year's winner, Sandra Johnson, Duluth.

Also on hand Tuesday to get a view not only of the queen candidates but also the UMD cadets will be Major Frank C. Herron from the Air University, Maxwell Air Force Base, Montgomery, Alabama. He is on campus making his annual inspection of the 133-man corps.

Theme for this year's dance is "The Road to Beyond" with music to be furnished by Bill Richardson and his orchestra.

The candidates nominated by various campus groups for the "sweetheart" title are: Penny Yonke, Duluth(Delta Chi Omega); Theo Luthanen, Ely (Beta Phi Kappa); Gwen Olsen, Duluth(Alpha Phi Omega); Cherie Moore, Duluth ( Alpha Nu Omega); Carol Nordeen, Duluth(Gamma Theta Phi); Joyce Lessard, Silver Bay(Sigma Psi Gamma); Pat Cochran, Duluth(Sigma Phi Kappa); Jerre Swanberg, West St. Paul(Women's Residence); Renee Des Rosier, Chisholm (Sigma Tau Kappa); and Marcia Uttley, Duluth(Gamma Omicron Beta).

Co-chairmen of the ball are Cadet Lt. Leonard Seagren, Grand Rapids, and Cadet Lt. Robert Kuefner, Duluth. Corps commander is Cadet Lt. Col. George Vipond, Duluth; Arnold Air Society president is Cadet Captain Donald Allan, Duluth.

(Queen crowned 10 p.m. Saturday night)