

Immediate Release

UMD NEWS SERVICE
RA 4-8801 Ext 210
Feb. 20, 1963

DULUTH--The works of two famous 17th century composers--- Schutz and Schein---will be featured at the winter recital of the UMD Chamber Choir at 8:15 p.m. Tuesday(Feb.26) at Recital Hall.

The early Baroque period will be represented in the choir's presentation of "Four Psalms" by Schutz and "Die Mit Tränensäen" by Schein. Miss Velda Stonecypher, assistant professor of music, will direct the choir.

The program also will include "Four Folk Songs" arranged by Brahms, and works by Berger, Kalmanoff and Fissinger.

Choir members are: Beverly Ankarlo, James Cole, Carole Gowan, Jean Nord, Elizabeth Parks and Paula Quaderer, all of Duluth, Lois Ganfield, Austin, Richard Hintz, Cloquet, Darlene Johnson, Willmar, Patricia Maher, Two Harbors, and Marion Sauter, Proctor.

The public is invited at no charge.