Voted to approve the following rules adopted by the Interfraternity Council for the regulation of fraternities:

Beginning with September 1924 no student shall be rushed or pledged by any fraternity during his first quarter in residence at the University of Minnesota.

I. No Rushing Period

1. There shall be no rushing of any man before the opening day of school of the second quarter in which he is registered.

2. No first quarter student shall be allowed to enter any fraternity house or attend any fraternity function on campus or off campus.

(A fraternity function shall be taken to mean any function in which three or more fraternity men have gotten together at any one time with any man who will be or is likely to be, an eligible candidate.)

3. No girls shall in any way, secretly or otherwise, participate in any rushing.

4. No alumni shall do any rushing at any time prior to the regular rushing period.

II. Rushing Period and Pledging

1. Pledging shall be on the tenth day after six o'clock p.m. of the second quarter counting the first day of classes as day No. 1.

(This means the second quarter of the student's residence.)

2. No man shall be rushed in any capacity after eight-thirty o'clock p.m. except Friday and Saturday and days before holidays.

3. Rushing shall be confined to the campus excepting Friday and Saturday and days before holidays.

4. On week days there shall be two date periods: luncheon and dinner. On Fridays and Saturdays there shall be three date periods: luncheon, dinner, and evening.

5. No fraternity shall be permitted to have more than four dates with any one student during the first five days of rushing.

6. After the regular organized rushing season any fraternity may rush or pledge any eligible student.

III. Penalties

1. All violations of the word or spirit of these rules shall be investigated by a committee of six and the President of the Council, and if they shall decide that the case merits punishment, they shall refer it to the Inter-Fraternity Council. Penalties for violations shall be inflicted by the Council.

2. Penalties for infractions shall not exceed the following: Four weeks deferred rushing and pledging at a time set by the Council, or a fine of one hundred dollars ($100.00).

3. No fraternity shall be prohibited for more than one quarter from pledging any student involved in violation of these rules.
