Run, Rabbit, Run

Snare Hare Here

TYPING LESSONS were given to a refugee rabbit yesterday by Mary K. Harding, Graduate student, and William Holden, Arts senior, when the beast dropped into Murphy hall to apply for a job on the Gopher staff.

Peter Rabbit didn't mind his mama yesterday. But Peter was sick of small-time stuff. He'd heard about Gophers and he wanted to become one. But all he got for his effort was a bloody nose and a typing lesson.

Mama warned Peter to stay away from Mr. MacMurphy's hall where the Gopher staff hangs out. But young Peter didn't mind mama. He ran away from home, had a skirmish with a nasty old dog who bit him on the nose and pushed him into a Murphy hall window well.

The city-bred Gopher staff, knowing nothing of animal life, hired him and gave him a desk and typewriter.

But just then a Daily Ag campus reporter appeared with a cookbook of rabbit stew recipes. Peter departed, a hare before the news-hound.

Moral: Mother knows best.

'Now, Voyager' to Be Chest Benefit Film

"Now, Voyager," starring Bette Davis and Paul Henreid, will be shown at 8 p.m. today in Northrop auditorium as a benefit movie for Campus Chest.

World Student Service fund is an international student-supported student-relief fund. During the war it provided books and supplies for prisoners of war in Germany and Japan as well as contributing to needy students in Europe and Asia.

The Dean Nicholson scholarship is being used chiefly to augment government aid to veteran students and provide money for such emergency needs as medical and dental bills.

Because the fund is low at present, it is used only to help foreign students cut off from funds from home, when government and scholarship aid proves insufficient.

The Twin Cities Community and War Relief chests provide such community needs as welfare service, neighborhood houses and free summer camps. They contribute to the YMCA, YWCA, Boy and Girl Scouts, Campfire Girls and other similar service organizations.

Morrill to Suggest Use Of Huts for U Housing

By Robert Kerner

The use of temporary shelters for emergency University housing will be suggested to the department of building and grounds today by President J. L. Morrill, according to an announcement last night.

The huts, made by the Jamesway company of Janesville, Wis., are an overnight construction possibility. Similar to army Quonset huts, they are 16 by 24 feet and 16 by 16 feet.

The advantage of these huts lies in their flexibility of size—they can be joined together to form shelters of any desired length. The exterior is of a heavy, canvas-like material that provides more warmth than the steel-sided Quonset huts.

The Jamesway huts are collapsible and can be put together in a short time. They can be put on cement foundations and contain individual heating units. For a given group of huts, a laundry and shower hut also is provided.

The larger huts cost $600 and the smaller, $400. J. N. Price, Jamesway representative, asserts that 74 huts can be made within a week.

Further action will await the decision of the building and grounds department. President Morrill has a complete illustrated pamphlet which he will give the department for consideration.

Meanwhile, University trailer plans are held up. Investigation this week of trailers at Hastings, Neb., by Harry L. Wilson, construction engineer, showed the trailers to be in an extremely poor condition.

Further conferences with FHA authorities will be held in Chicago by Wilson and William L. Nunn, director of University relations, who went to Chicago yesterday.

Attempts will be made in this conference to find better trailers and prefabricated housing for University emergency use.

Use of the Jamesway huts, suggested by The Daily, will be proposed to building and grounds by President Morrill who found that the trailers so far investigated are too poor for University use.

Chest Auction Re-scheduled

Faculty Service Will Go to Highest Bidder

Morrey Castell, professor of philosophy, still doesn't know whose lunch dishes he's going to bus.

The reason: the Campus Chest auction scheduled for yesterday afternoon was cancelled because not enough of Professor Castell's fans showed up.

Katie Roth, auction chairman for the Campus Chest committee, said that the auction—with Professor Castell's services and those of a lot of other faculty members on the block—will be held at 3:30 p.m. tomorrow in Murphy hall auditorium.

Meanwhile, additional faculty members are offering their non-academic services to be placed on the Campus Chest auction block.

Faculty services to go to the highest bidders also include those of Charles Bird, professor of psychology, who will wait on tables in a sorority house; Marcia Edwards, assistant dean of the college of education, who will take the knock-down bidder to lunch in the Campus club.

Paul Oberg, chairman of the department of music, will play at a date to be arranged later; Joseph Beach, head of the department of English, will read poetry to a sorority; Elizabeth Carlson, assistant professor of mathematics, will give one hour of mathematics coaching.

Mitchell V. Charnley, professor of journalism, will be the official auctioneer to offer his colleagues' services to the highest bidders.

Proceeds from the auction, including the 10 cent admission fee, will go to the Campus Chest.

YMCA Party for Men Only to Be Held at Ilduhapi

Stag-A-Hapi, an all-male party, will be held Saturday and Sunday at Camp Ilduhapi on Lake Independence. This is the first postwar project sponsored by the YMCA to regain its prewar strength of 600 members.

The program arranged at the Stag-A-Hapi will be informal. Dick Sturges, president of the YMCA, announced that there will be no speeches.

A car caravan will leave the YMCA at 5 p.m. Saturday after the Wisconsin game. Buses will be available for those unable to leave the YMCA at that time.

Herb Julien, Arts junior, has been appointed chairman of the publicity committee.

Reservations should be made in the YMCA office by 5 p.m. tomorrow.

Dusenbury Will Speak At KUOM Meeting

Students who passed the KUOM auditions last Saturday will meet from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. today at the studios. Roswell Otto, Graduate student, will be in charge.

Delwin Dusenbury, dramatic director, will speak. Mary Lou Leonard, vice president of the KUOM workshop, will talk on the techniques of radio broadcasting.

Forty-one students passed out of the 60 who auditioned.

Fred C. Lang Dies from Heart Failure

Fred C. Lang, professor of highway engineering, died of heart failure yesterday in his office, room 217 Experimental Engineering building.

He was found in his office by Marshall Peterson, chief chemist of the highway engineering department, who entered Professor Lang's office to answer a telephone call. Professor Lang had been conducting a laboratory class in engineering, but he temporarily had returned to his office.

Born in London, Minn., in 1886, he attended the University from 1904 to 1908, receiving a degree in civil engineering. He became an instructor in 1918 and a full professor in 1933.

Professor Lang divided his time between the University and the Minnesota state highway department. He was in charge of highway engineering in the University and director of the state highway laboratory.

He was also a member of Minneapolis Engineers club and Sigma Xi, honorary scientific society.

Professor Lang is survived by his wife, Mrs. Hazel Lang; a daughter, Mrs. William Melching; a son, Lt. Frederick Lang, in the army air forces.

President to Ask Lower Vet Tuition

President J. L. Morrill will recommend to the Board of Regents that University veterans be charged resident tuition should congress fail to amend the GI bill, he said yesterday.

The President said he had wired Rep. John Rankin, chairman of the house committee on World war veterans legislation, urging the house to adopt a new section of the GI bill as amended already by the senate.

Amended, the section would allow veterans attending college to receive any future bonuses without deduction of their college expenses. At present, all college expenses of GI bill veterans financed by the federal government will be deducted from future benefits or bonuses.

President Morrill also wrote to all Minnesota members of the house of representatives, informing them of his wire to Rankin and urging their support of the legislation.

Marriage Course Opens With Talk On Physiology

Dr. C. J. Ehrenberg, clinical assistant professor of obstetrics and gynecology, will discuss the physiological aspects of marriage at the first meeting of the AWS-YMCA marriage at 7 p.m. today in Burton hall auditorium.

The meeting today is for women only. Tomorrow there will be a lecture on the same topic for men.

Tickets for the course have been put in Postoffice boxes of students registered for the course. Additional tickets are available in the AWS office, 213 Union.

Paul Cashman, Arts freshman, and Arline Steiner, Arts senior, are co-chairmen of the course.

Artist Creations Give Satisfaction, Says Dr. Phelan

The artist has power to bring completion and satisfaction to himself through his powers of creation, Dr. Anna V. Phelan, professor of English, told the Cosmopolitan club in the Union Saturday.

Even though poets do not answer our questions or solve our problems, they enable us to understand our own selves and problems, she said. "Poetry is the first expression of the ideal in any form."

Diction which can command imagination is the essence of poetry, Dr. Phelan said. Music and description do not make poetry. "Poetry must create in our own minds experience by intelligent lucidity. It must make sense in its unique potency of words."

Dr. Phelan stated "Contact with poetry arouses us from spiritual lethargy."

Sports in Norris Today

Any coed may attend badminton and speed swimming at 4:30 p.m. today in Norris gymnasium. Senior Pegasus, honorary riding club, will meet at 5 p.m. today in the gymnasium.

Administrative Notices

TO DEANS, ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICERS AND DEPARTMENT HEADS

With increasing frequency University classes are taken on field trips, educational tours and visits to industrial plants. Occasionally accidents occur causing injury to a student and not infrequently property damage. In every such case the natural reaction of the student who has been injured or the citizen who has sustained property damage is to look to the University for remuneration.

The University of Minnesota, as a part of the State of Minnesota, maintains no coverage for injury to students or property damage caused by a University student. The reason for this lack of general coverage lies in the concept of the sovereignty of the state and its immunity to suit for personal injury or property damage. This being so, the only recourse which any citizen has is through a special bill to request legislative consideration of a claim.

It is essential that any members of your staff who take students out of the class room for any reasons whatsoever be cautioned to exercise every possible care in looking after the safety of the students and likewise all possible care to see that no property damage results from any action by a student or group of students. Staff members must realize that by undertaking such trips they are assuming a responsibility which the University cannot legally share in the event of accident or damage. Fewer and safer excursions would seem to be the indicated course under these circumstances.

W. T. Middlebrook,
Vice President,
Business Administration.

NOTICE TO DEANS, DIRECTORS AND DEPARTMENT HEADS

Certification of Pay Rolls

Certification of the regular and miscellaneous pay rolls is a basic responsibility of the individual department and is so recognized in the delegation of authority and approval of individuals authorized to approve departmental documents concerning fiscal matters. When an authorized signature is received by the Office of the Comptroller on a pay roll, it means that services have either already been rendered in full; or that at the time of signing the pay roll, services were being rendered and it was expected that full service would be given by the time the end of the pay roll period arrived. There has been, however, an increasing number of departments certifying pay rolls improperly.

I must again call to your attention that it is essential that this office look to the department head for the original certification and approval of the pay roll. The approval of a pay roll where services have not been rendered is the cause of considerable embarrassment to the University and is open to serious question on the part of any auditors. I urge, therefore, that you carefully examine your departmental procedures to the end that certifications will be complete and proper.

L. R. Lundén, Comptroller.

LIBRARY NOTICE

All departments of the University Library will be closed on Thanksgiving day, Nov. 22, beginning at 6 p.m. on Wednesday the 21st.

It will include Svea Ferm, Home Economics senior; Marilyn Andersen, Home Economics sophomore. Evelyn Harne, Home Economics junior, will act as moderator.

Co-chairmen of the meeting are Gloria Butter, Home Economics junior, and Miss Andersen. Jean Morkassel heads the poster committee; Marilyn Meyers, mimeographing; Barbara Mead and Marjorie Schultz, refreshments. Janet Falkenhagen and Lydia Sturm are in charge of invitations.

Variety Dance Today

The Variety dance will be held from 8 to 10:30 p.m. today instead of tomorrow in the Union main ballroom. Al Wiklund will give dance instruction. Admission is 14 cents. Music is furnished by records.

Miss Anderson will sing the aria, "La Fernando" from "La Favorita" by Donizetti with the orchestra and a group of songs with piano accompaniment.

Included in the group of songs will be "Neue Liebe" and "In dem Schatten meiner Locken" by Hugo Wolf; "Befreit," "Morgen" and "Cecilia" by Richard Strauss.

Miss Anderson is on her tenth tour of the country. She has been awarded several honors in the past months, a doctor of music from Smith college, the merit award of the New York Youth center for her work among underprivileged children of Harlem, and the order of African redemption from the republic of Liberia.

Foundation Ball Tickets on Sale

Tickets for the Foundation ball will be on sale until tomorrow. Students may purchase tickets in the Union, Folwell hall, Ag Union and Foundation office at $2 a couple.

This is the first time since 1941 that the ball has been held. Since the Foundation was founded in 1937 it has traditionally been held on Thanksgiving eve.

The ball is the chief source of funds for carrying on the work of the Foundation which includes a student scholarship loan fund.

This year, Nat Towles and his 14-piece orchestra will play. The ball is informal and is to be held from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Wednesday in Union main ballroom.

Chaperones for the ball will be Alburey Castell, associate professor of philosophy and Mrs. Castell and Ralph D. Casey, professor of journalism and Mrs. Casey.

YWCA Dramatic Club Will Plan Pageant

A meeting of the YWCA Dramatic club will be held at 4:30 p.m. today in 214 Union.

Plans are underway for the annual YWCA Christmas Pageant. Arrangements will be made for one-act plays, short skits, pantomimes, monologues and choral readings to be given for YWCA functions.

Any students interested in dramatics are invited to sign up at the YWCA office, 215 Union.

Gophers Go to the Movies on Monday Post-Game Holiday

By Donald H. Grawert

Minnesota's Golden Gophers, new holders of the title of Western Conference "cousin," the dubious honor they "won" by losing to Iowa's never-say-die Hawkeyes, took a day off yesterday to reflect on the cause and effect of Saturday's loss to Iowa.

The Gophers suited up without pads for a brief half-hour loosening-up session in the Field house and then adjourned to the Cooke hall projection room to see and hear the game replayed in motion pictures with Bernie Bierman recalling the signals.

No clue to Bierman's lineup plans for the final week of practice was given last night in the brief Field house appearance of the Gophers. It is expected, however, that injuries suffered in the Iowa struggle may necessitate drilling a team other than the one that faced the Hawkeyes.

Two of the bright lights in the otherwise gloomy atmosphere that surrounded the loss to Iowa, Larry Olsonoski and Bob Runkel, will be forced by injuries to stand aside for at least the early part of this week.

Olsonoski, whose play at guard was outstanding in a losing cause, was removed from the game in the first quarter with a wrist injury, sustained on a key block on Dick Lawrence's touchdown effort.

Runkel, at the other guard, suffered a back injury and may be confined to no more than light workouts during the preparations for the Badgers.

Until he was forced to retire from the game Saturday Runkel gave indications that his switch from tackle to guard may go a long way toward solving the Gophers' line problems.

A third injury of consequence was suffered by Tom Cates as he aggravated his week-old rib bruise, but aside from the hurts sported by Olsonoski, Runkel and Cates, the Gophers emerged from the Iowa game in a generally battered but not too serious a physical condition.

Army Retains Top Spot Gophers Drop to 49th

The Cadets from up on the Hudson grabbed 898 out of a possible 900 to hold undisputed possession of first place in the Associated Press weekly poll according to figures released by Howard Claassen, AP sportswriter, last night.

Following their defeat by an inexperienced Iowa eleven the Golden Gophers dropped from 24th to 49th in the national standings.

Standings

Team	W.	L.	T.	Pct.	TP.	OPP.
Indiana	4	0	1	1.000	127	34
Ohio State	5	1	0	.833	130	58
Michigan	4	1	0	.750	99	33
Purdue	3	2	0	.600	115	63
Northwestern	2	3	1	.400	89	101
Illinois	1	3	1	.250	57	66
Wisconsin	1	3	1	.250	55	67
Minnesota	1	4	0	.200	56	122
Minnesota	1	5	0	.167	54	228

Fitch Makes All-Conference Weekly Eleven

Following Iowa's stunning upset over favored Minnesota, two Hawkeye players were honored on the weekly All-Conference team Sunday by Coach Bernie Bierman and sportswriters Charlie Johnson and Halsey Hall of the Minneapolis Star-Journal.

Jerry Niles was given the quarterback post for his great, offensive playing. Harold Loehlen, Iowa, was named at end for his stellar defensive play while Art Renner of Michigan was placed at the opposite flank for his brilliant play against Purdue.

Bob Fitch was named at tackle for the second straight week with Tom Hughes of Purdue receiving the opposite post. This was the eighth consecutive week for Hughes.

The guard slots were filled by two more repeaters from last week, Jim Lecture of Northwestern and Warren Amling of Ohio State.

Mac Wenskunas of Illinois was named at center, while rounding out the backfield with Niles, were Pete Elliot of Michigan and Jerry Thompson of Wisconsin at halves and Pete Pihos of Indiana at full.

Cline Ties Canfield for Scoring Lead

By crossing the goal-line twice against Illinois Saturday, while Michigan was holding Bill Canfield scoreless, Ollie Cline, Ohio State's hard driving fullback, climbed into a tie with Canfield for the Big Ten scoring lead.

Ed Cody, Purdue's great line backer, scored once against the Wolverines to form a three-way tie with George Taliaferro of Indiana and Dick Conners of Northwestern for second place.

Max Schnittker, Ohio State, kicked three PAT's against Illinois to lead the point-after-touchdown parade with 13 placements.

Merland Kispert leads the Gopher scoring parade with 14 points. Other Gophers who have crossed into pay-dirt at least once are: Bob Carley, Tom Cates, Vic Kulbitski, Dick Lawrence, Dick Lutz, Hudson Mealey and Judd Ringer.

Following are the individual scoring leaders to date:

Name, School	TD	PAT	FG	TTL
Canfield, Purdue	6	0	0	36
Cline, Ohio State	6	0	0	36
Cody, Purdue	5	0	0	30

Army 'D' Wins; 'Greeks' to Play

By Dave Mulcahy

Behind the accurate passing of "Whitey" Carlson and the stalwart defense put up by Hargreaves, Lewis and Wise, a smooth-running army D aggregation defeated army A, 12-0, in the finals of the army touchball league on the Fourth street gridiron last night.

The army D eight will meet the ranking team of the Independent league at 7 p.m. Thursday for the University Independent touchball trophy. Pacemaker in the Independent league will be the winner of the NROTC Co. 5-Hospital Busboy tilt which is scheduled for tomorrow night at 7 p.m. on the IM field.

Army D scored within the first four minutes of the game when they plunged over from the one foot line after Carlson's first pass of the evening had given them a first down on the five yard line. Under Army rules a first down is gained when the team marches 20 yards in four plays.

Another difference between this and fraternity rules is two-handed touch rather than the one-handed variety used by the "Greek" teams.

Army D's other touchdown came in the closing minutes of the game when Carlson again drew back and fired a long one to Hargreaves on the 10 yard line.

He immediately was dumped by Jack Collins who played a brilliant defensive game for the "A" squad. A few plays later Carlson's arm again prevailed and Geltman grabbed the pigskin for the last score.

Because the SAEs used an ineligible man in their contest last week with the Betas, which they won 21-7, a replay of that game will be held at 7 p.m. tonight on the Fourth street field.

The Division II playoff in the professional league also will be conducted at that time. Psi Omega will clash with Anchor and Chain for the right to play Phi Rho Sigma for the professional title.

Final entries in the fall quarter basketball tourney must be made by 5 p.m. today, Walter R. Smith, intramural director announced last night. All referees must qualify before Friday since formal competition will begin on Saturday, Smith also announced.

Iowa Game Films Shown

Phil Brain's movies of the Iowa-Minnesota game will be shown at the Quarterback session at 12:30 p.m. today in the Union main ballroom. The plays of the game will be diagramed by a member of the coaching staff.

WAA to Offer Four Sports at Playnight

WAA playnight will offer swimming, badminton, table tennis and shuffleboard from 7:30 to 9 p.m. today in Norris gymnasium.

Any coed may attend and participate in any activity by presenting her health rating card.

ROGER & GALLET

DEL OF THE BRIDGE captured the Daily barber mug for the forthcoming week with his prediction of a 20-14 Iowa victory, which was the closest prediction ventured by the 25 near-campus tonorial artists. Actual score of the game was Gophers 19, Hawkeyes 20.
