DULUTH--Winter quarter enrollment at UMD totals 2,931 undergraduate students, an increase of 268 or 9 per cent higher than a year ago, Provost Raymond W. Darland announced today.

Fifty graduate students at UMD brings the overall winter quarter total to 2,981. Graduate School enrollment is almost double what it was a year ago(26).

There are 1,923 men enrolled at UMD and 1,008 women.

For the entire University, 31,421 students are enrolled or nine per cent above the same quarter in 1962, according to True E. Pettengill, University of Minnesota recorder. Of the grant total, 21,493 are men and 9,928 are women.
