DULUTH--Edwin O. Siggelkow, coordinator of student activities at UMD, will be one of the major speakers at the national conference of the Association of College Unions at Greenbrier, West Virginia Sunday through Wednesday(Mar.10-13).

Mr. Siggelkow will speak on "Careers, Employment, Training and Professional Development in the College Union Field" at 2:15 p.m. Wednesday(Mar.13).

He also will be chairman of a discussion session Monday afternoon following a research report on "The Union Director and His Job."

Siggelkow has been national chairman of the association's professional development committee which will hold two sessions during the conference.

There now are more than 600 college unions like UMD's Kirby Student Center, with another 200 in the planning or construction stages.
