Duluth -- A record enrollment of 1,508 students for the first term of UMD Summer Session was announced today by Provost Raymond W. Darland.

It marked the fifth successive year that an increase has been recorded for first term which began June 14 and ends July 17.

The new figure, which includes 154 graduate students, is more than one per cent above the 1,488 students in 1964.

Registration for all four University campuses is 13,529, 531 or four per cent above the 1964 total, according to True E. Pettengil, University recorder.
