VOL. VIII THE UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1907. NO. 90

BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY AT SENIOR INFORMAL

President Claude Randall Will Be Guest of Honor at Birthday Party March 1.

Twenty-three years ago no one would have imagined that he would ever become president of the senior class at the University of Minnesota. But it came to pass, nevertheless, and the second senior informal Friday night at Johnson School of Music hall, will be a celebration and jubilee incarnation of the birthday anniversary of President Claude Randall.

Not only will the reverend president of the class be the central figure at the revel of dancing, but he will also appear in a special stunt arranged expressly for the occasion, the nature of which has not yet been divulged.

Nearly two hundred thousand dollars was looted from the sub-treasury at Chicago, but Nathan Blackburn says he is "not afeared." He is already handling large sums of advance sales, and smiles a smile of fat satisfaction at the financial prospects of the affair.

"All but one of the prominent senior men in the class," he says, "have purchased tickets, and there is one more left for him, whoever he is. Let him speak quickly."

"A PLEA FOR DIGNITY"

This Is Title of "N. O. K.'s" Slam at the February Number of the Magazine.

The following breezy, scintillant literary aspersions of an unknown author found its way to the copy drawer soon after the appearance of the February Magazine:

"To the Editor of the Daily: 'With the advent of the February Magazine I wish to suggest, in the columns of the Daily, that the name of that publication be changed to 'The Obituary Magazine.'"

"The contents of the present issue is of that too, too cultivated type: The yellow. The so-called 'ghost stories' are a scramble of horror. Is this the sort of dish to set before knowledge-hungry students? The Magazine is redeemed, it must be admitted, by two really fine contributions. Only two! And these saving two are not from student pens! Furthermore, in one of them there is a note of levity which is hardly welcome.

"What the student body wants is something of solid worth, not the titillation of momentary mirth, or the shiver which comes at some uncanny nonsense. We need dignity in our college literature. They have reformed their spelling. Let them reform their reading matter."

"N. O. K." The managing editor announces that the Mag. will be on sale today and tomorrow.

MANY BOOKS BY FACULTY SOON TO BE PUBLISHED

Subject-Matter Ranges From Fiction and Poetry to Science—Many Departments Represented.

Books by members of the Minnesota faculty have appeared not infrequently in the past and have attracted more than local attention. This year an unusually large number of books by faculty members are in the making, the subject-matter varying from fiction and poetry to scientific works.

A book by Prof. Jenks will appear in a short time. It is a story for children, entitled "Balonglong, the Igorite Boy," and a true life of a wild boy in the Philippines.

More From Mrs. Potter.
"The Bumble Boy" is the title of a Lilliputian story which Mrs. Potter will soon finish. It is one of a series of ten stories for children which Mrs. Potter has planned. Mrs. Potter is also engaged upon a more serious work, a political novel, but of this latter work nothing has yet been divulged. The English department will have another contributor also in Miss Peck, who will bring out a volume of poems some time in the coming summer.

History of Minnesota.
For some time past Dr. Folwell has been at work upon a History of Minnesota, and this book will be ready for publication by September. Dr. Wilde has in view the publishing of a text-book on Ethics and also a work on the "Development of Religion." Both of these will be available for use in the philosophy department.

Four History Books.
In the history department four books are under way. Prof. West is working upon "Colonial Life in the Seventeenth Century," and will also bring out a textbook for senior high school work, entitled "American History and Government."

GIRLS DEFEAT SOUTH HIGH

Helen Cummings and Mary Newton Star for Varsity—South High Team Work Strong.

Southside high girls went down to defeat at the hands of the University girls' basketball team last Saturday evening. One glimpse at the basket was all that Sough High got, that score being made by Miss Loweberg on a foul. The varsity girls scored 21.

A good-sized crowd witnessed the opening performance of the co-eds. The varsity girls showed up to advantage, both in field work and basket shooting. Southside tho weak in shooting basket was very strong in team work.

For the varsity Helen Cummings and May Newton did most of the basket shooting.

The following is the line-up:
Minnesota. Position. So. High.
Cummings .....l. f. .... Quane
Newton .....r. f. ....Loweberg
Brown .....c. ....Larson
Fleming .....l. g. .... Erickson
Dunn-Schutte. ....r. g. .... King
Saturday, March 2, the University girls play Central High in the armory and a much harder and faster game is expected.

ALUMNUS WILL PREACH BACCALAUREATE SERMON

Rev. John W. Powell, Duluth, First Varsity Man to Give Address.

President Northrop has announced that the baccalaureate sermon will be delivered by Rev. John W. Powell, '93, of Duluth.

Rev. Powell is the first alumnus of Minnesota to give the baccalaureate address.

Secretary of War William H. Taft will deliver the commencement address for the class of 1907. President Northrop received a letter yesterday morning from the statesman, in which he signifies his acceptance of an invitation which was recently extended to him by the University.

Secretary Taft was tendered a similar invitation by the President last year, but the pressure of business made it impossible for him to accept.

The invitation was renewed this year, this time with success.

Secretary Taft will also address the graduates at the University of Iowa.

DEBATERS VISIT SOLONS.

Prof. McElmeel will take his class in debate over to the capitol tomorrow to hear the legislature debate on "The Railroad Rate." A section of seats has been reserved in the gallery for the class.

TO SPEAK IN CHAPEL.

George Walker, ex-'06, of "Prince of India" Company, Will Appear Next Week.

Geo. Walker, ex-'06, who did such excellent work with the Dramatic Club while here in college, comes to Minneapolis with the "Prince of India" company.

Thru the efforts of Mr. Morris Greet and Jacob Wilk, he has been induced to speak in chapel some day next week, probably Monday or Tuesday.

BASE BALL PLAYERS OUT

Material Shows Up Well for Both Freshman and Varsity Squads. Cage Practise Daily.

Work in the baseball cage in the armory is progressing and the candidates for positions on the team are showing up well. The material for the freshmen team, which is to play against the varsity, is abundant and promising. Hand for catcher and Bassett trying for third base and Capron are three strong candidates among the freshmen. There is also plenty of other fast material for the first year aggregation.

Old Men Out.

A number of old men are out for their positions on the varsity and plenty of new material which promises to give the old men a good rub for their places. Grangaard is the only man out for a position behind.

DR. COOKE BEREFT.

Mrs. Cooke, the wife of Dr. L. J. Cooke, died Wednesday from a complication of internal diseases.

FIFTEENTH ANNIVERSARY BANQUET PROMISES WELL

Long List of Toasts by Former Prominent Members—Mrs. F. M. Anderson as Toast Mistress.

The fifteenth anniversary banquet to be given Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock by the Y. W. C. A. promises to be a signal affair.

The present members, the wives of the faculty members, alumnae members, and all former presidents of the association, now residing in the city will be present.

An attractive menu and program of toasts have been arranged. Mrs. Frank M. Anderson, chairman of the advisory committee, will be toast mistress; Mrs. Norman Wilde, chairman of the state committee, will give a short talk.

Mrs. W. L. Gray, president 1891-2, "Alpha;" Mrs. D. G. Colp, president 1898-00, "Twice-Told Tales;" Mrs. Ada B. Hillman, general secretary 1899-1903, 1905, 1906, "A Decade and a Half;" Mrs. J. B. Gilfillan, for the advisory committee, "Reminiscent;" Miss Mary Felton, president 1893-94, "A Summer Conference Long Ago;" Miss Ethel Rockwood, 1907, "A Summer Conference Today;" Miss Edna Gould, president 1906-1907, "Omega." The banquet will be held in Alice Shevlin Hall.

THESPIANS ENTERTAINED.

Cast of "Knight of Burning Pestle" to Appear in Stage Dress.

Miss Hayes will entertain all the girls who took part in the play, "The Knight of the Burning Pestle," at her home, 1701 University avenue southeast, at 7 o'clock Wednesday evening. All members will appear in costume.

TRACK MEN WORK INDOORS

Squad to Be Divided According to the Different Events—Handicap Match in Prospect.

Indoor track work has been progressing rapidly during the past two weeks and the men will now be divided into four squads; one for the jumpers, one for the weight men, the short-distance men in another, and the distance men by themselves.

A handicap contest in the high jump and weights will be begun and a trial will be held once a week and at the end of the indoor season a trophy cup will be presented to the winners in the different contests.

There are about thirty men out regularly, but Dr. Williams still deplores the lack of freshmen. A freshmen-sophomore dual meet will be held this spring, and the freshmen will be allowed to participate in the indoor meet which will be held the latter part of March.

It is probable that the usual freshmen meet with Shattuck will be held.

A Protest.

Only yesterday morning a new goodly packet of blue slips appeared and occasioned for many those sickly aspects of horizon which all thought no longer possible.

Thirty days are allowed the faculty for rendering their reports. But while this tardiness is permitted, we cannot find it justifiable. Three weeks of the new semester are already gone, and for the unfortunates condemned to sever their connection with the college to learn of this necessity after so long a period of assurance and security, seems quite without reason.

That a few individual reports should be delayed is inevitable, but for the records of whole sections to be so long withheld, which we understand to be the case, can hardly be necessary.

Let us not in future be suspended in this debauching consternation for weeks. It thoroely distracts the student from his work of the new semester.

"Whereas, The hand of Providence has seen fit to remove from the midst of us our friend and classmate, George Savage, be it

"Resolved, That the class of 1909 express their deepest sorrow and extend their heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family. Be it also

"Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the Minnesota Daily and a copy be sent to his parents."

CHAPEL MATINEE.

Dramatic Club to Put on "Lulu" in Near Future.

The Dramatic Club at a meeting yesterday decided to put on the play, "Lulu," as a matinee in chapel in about three weeks. It is a comedy dealing with English social life, has a good plot, excellent characterization, and many fascinating situations.

A committee to cast the parts will be chosen later by President John Sinclair.

On Wednesday evening of last week the final sifting for places on the Pillsbury contest was made.

The successful six are Algernon Colburn, Vivian Colgrove, Wm. Davis, Harold Deering, Arnold Gloor and Louis Schwartz.

The contest will occur on Monday evening, March 11. The judges will probably be chosen by Wednesday or Thursday of this week. On the Wednesday preceding the contest the six orations will be submitted to them for judgment upon that and composition, so that the final contest will be one of delivery alone.

'09 ACADEMICS HAVE STRENUOUS SESSION.

Adopt Constitution, Pass Resolutions, Commend Committee, Expel Intruders.

Sophomore academics last Saturday by a unanimous vote sanctioned the work the Gopher election committee.

A constitution was adopted, and a resolution of sympathy was past and ordered sent to the sorrowing parents of Geo. Savage, ex. '09, lately deceased.

Commotion prevailed for a few moments while a nery freshman, who had the audacity to attend the meeting, and a senior academic, were both expelled by the sergeant-at-arms.

GRADUATE CLUB TO MEET.

Prof. and Mrs. Benton to Entertain Organization.

Prof. and Mrs. Benton will entertain the Graduate Club at their home, 516 Ninth avenue southeast, Tuesday evening.

Beside the social character of the meeting, an attempt will be made to effect some sort of organization of graduate members which will bind them more together than is the case at present.

Boyle, who played third base last year with marked ability, is a junior miner this year, and takes a mining trip this spring. It is hoped, however, by the coach, that he will be able to postpone his trip until next year, as he is very much needed on the diamond. First and second bases are wide open for candidates, among whom are Rudolph, Rossman, Montgomery and Keating. These men have shown up well in the cage work.

The indoor work consists of light practise. Keinholtz, the coach, is attempting to teach the men the finer points of the game, while the work is in a small cage where he can get at them. He expresses himself as well pleased with the work up to date.

The Lid.

It is now several months since Mayor Jones vacated the mayor's chair in favor of mayor Haynes and a great many people thought the lid would be raised ere this. We note with much pleasure that such is not the case and you will no doubt notice with much pleasure that there is a new lid at the college toggery, just what you want for spring wear.

Kansas will not go into the Missouri Valley conference if Nebraska stays out.
