Duluth--- The UMD campus will be completely shut down from 6:00 p.m. Saturday (Mar. 21) through Sunday (Mar. 22) in order to accomplish power changes, according to UMD Provost Raymond W. Darland.

Electrical technicians will spend Sunday replacing power cables recently damaged during construction of the addition to Kirby Student Center. They also will extend electrical service to the Home Economics building now under construction.

Darland said Tweed Art Gallery, normally open Sunday afternoons, will be closed and there will be no one manning Kirby Information Desk until 8:00 a.m. Monday.
