

Release on receipt

UMD NEWS SERVICE
724-8801, Ext 210
May 20, 1966

DULUTH -- Dr. William A. Rosenthal, professor and head of English, will address the 1966 UMD senior class on "The Pursuit of Excellence" at Cap and Gown Day ceremonies at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday (May 25) in Kirby Student Center ballroom.

The graduates will be presented to the gathering by David E. Klimek, president of the senior class, after processional music by the UMD Band playing Edward Elgar's "Pomp and Circumstance."

Provost Raymond W. Darland will preside during the awarding of departmental, academic and service-leadership honors. Academic Dean Thomas W. Chamberlin will assist him.

The band, directed by James R. Murphy, will also perform "Toccata" by Frescobaldi-Kinder with "Marche Hongroise" by Hector Berlioz as the recessional.

A reception for the class will be held in Kirby lounge following the ceremonies.