More of the Same

Weekend weather forecast calls for cloudy skies and little change in temperature. A few light snow flurries are predicted today. High today, 30; low, light northerly winds.

Banquet to End Greek Week

The Greek week banquet will wind up the ninth annual Greek week Monday.

The banquet will be at 5:30 p.m. in the Union main ballroom. Dr. Donald J. Cowling, chairman of the committee of founders of the Mayo Memorial foundation, will speak on "Our American Heritage."

Dr. Cowling was president of Carleton college, Northfield from 1909 to 1945. He holds four degrees from Yale university and honorary degrees including the doctor of laws degree from the University of Minnesota.

Also on the banquet program are presentation of faculty, alumni and scholarship awards. Trophies for the fraternity and sorority winners in yesterday's competitive events also will be presented at the banquet.

Winners in the competitive events held yesterday in the indoor field house racked up points towards the all-participation trophy. Fraternities winning the relay races were Alpha Delta Phi, first; Phi Delta Theta, second; Alpha Tau Omega, third. Sororities in the relays were Gamma Phi Beta, first; Kappa Alpha Theta, second; Alpha Chi Omega, third.

Winners of the chariot races were fraternities, Alpha Tau Omega, first; Phi Epsilon Pi, second; Phi Delta Theta, third; Sigma Alpha Epsilon, fourth; sororities, Delta Delta Delta, first; Alpha Chi Omega, second; Alpha Omega Pi, third; Delta Zeta, fourth.

Tug-of-war winners were fraternities, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, first; Delta Kappa Epsilon, second; Phi Delta Theta, third; sororities, Alpha Omicron Pi, first; Delta Delta Delta, second; Alpha Chi Omega, third.

Boxer Boxed

Greeks Use Muscles Trying for Trophy

By Tom Snell

It was very Greek out yesterday afternoon and evening. From 3:30 to 10 p.m. the Greeks were tying up the loose ends of Greek week, in which all the fraternities and sororities were trying to out-act and out-muscle one another for the all-participation trophy.

The first order of business was the competitive events. To watch all the effort and seriousness that went into them you would have thought it was the winter Olympics, at least.

After an intricate warming-up process which consisted of the girls combing their hair and the boys putting out their cigarettes, the events began. The first event was the relay race. This was highlighted by a disqualification of the first place team, a re-running of the race and a boxer-dog.

Union Will Fly UN Flag for Two Weeks

The United Nations flag will be raised over the Union in a ceremony at 8:30 p.m. Monday.

The student WORLD group has requested the Union board of governors to fly the flag to remind people they are members of a world community, said Al Upin, chairman.

"The action does not mean that we completely support the U.N. in everything it does," Upin added. "We feel that changes need to be made which will make it a federal world governing body."

York Langton, president of the Minnesota United Nations association, and Malcolm Willey, academic vice president, will take part in the flag-raising ceremony.

The flag will be flown every day for two weeks; then a survey will be taken to determine whether or not the cost is too "prohibitive" to fly it at all times, Upin said.

Brotherhood Week To Start with 'Hellos'

A "hello" campaign will open Brotherhood week Monday.

Members of religious foundations will be stationed at Washington avenue foot bridges to remind passersby to greet everyone they meet with a friendly "hi."

Tags and posters also will remind students that Monday has been designated "Hiday" by the Brotherhood week committee.

Nat King Cole's recording of "My Brother" will be played in the Union during the day.

The Union bookstore will prepare a display of books on human relations for Brotherhood week.

Senate Group Approves U Information Program

The senate committee on student affairs yesterday approved a five-point program for telling high school students about the University.

Under the program women's and men's honoraries, the Daily and the Interfraternity council would coordinate their plans for informing prospective students in the Midwest about various phases of University life.

Representatives who explained their groups' programs to the committee yesterday were Judy Rasmussen, freshman cabinet; Cherry Merritt, women's honoraries; Arnie Hed, the Daily; James Wetherbee, men's honoraries and Interfraternity council.

Mortar Board and Chimes, women's honoraries, have planned a high school leaders' conference to be held March 21 during the high school basketball tournament. Subject of the meeting will be "The Role of Extra-curricular Activities in College Life."

The conference will include discussions, a luncheon and an afternoon tour of the campus.

Men's honoraries and the Interfraternity council also are planning a program for March 21. The program they have proposed is similar to last year's event with discussion groups during the day and a Union open house and dance Saturday night after the basketball tournament.

The Daily presented plans for a high school edition to be circulated to about 150,000 students in Minnesota, Wisconsin, Iowa, Montana and North Dakota and South Dakota.

The edition would picture the benefits an individual derives from a college education, in general, and specifically what goes on at the University.

Freshman cabinet's representative told the committee that the cabinet would like to sponsor a program of high school visits in which freshmen would speak at convocations throughout the state to present a program of information for prospective University students.

The question of loudspeakers arose again at the committee meeting. Dean of Students E. G. Williamson told the committee that Pres. J. L. Morrill has asked the committee to reconsider its decision not to ban the use of public address systems on campus.

Original protest came from Alfred L. Burt, professor of history, who objected to the noise. Pres. Morrill also received a petition from the history department to ban the speakers.

The committee voted to ask for recommendations from the all-University congress.

High kicks and determined faces marked the chorus line of the Delta Gamma sorority skit. This was one of nine acts in the Gopher Gaeties—a variety show put on by the Greek Week committee yesterday to raise money for the American Heart association.

Dean Draws Fire From Frat Alumni

By Howie Ryan

Charges of "breaking faith" in dealing with the four suspended members of Phi Delta Chi last night were leveled at Dean of Students E. G. Williamson by seven prominent Minneapolis druggists.

Headed by Keith K. Keller, the group—alumni of the professional pharmacy fraternity—issued a protest accusing the dean of breaking a promise to extend leniency to the four frat members.

The four were indefinitely suspended Wednesday by the student disciplinary action committee—one for stealing answers to a mid-quarter exam from a professor's locked desk, the other three for stealing furniture from Centennial hall.

In a scathing 350-word statement, the seven pharmacists charged the suspended students were unjustly treated after Williamson had assured the alumni that leniency would be extended if the boys confessed. "Suspension is not leniency," the statement said.

The druggists said it was Keller, not University officials, who obtained written confessions from 36 members of Phi Delta Chi—including the four suspended members.

In a personal statement, Keller said he talked the boys into confessing their wrongdoing in faith that they would be dealt with "intelligently and humanely."

Keller claimed he called the dean to the fraternity house after obtaining the confessions.

"To my shock and astonishment," Keller stated, "Dean Williamson subjected the students to a tirade of abuse in words that are unprintable."

Thursday Keller and the alumni group visited Pharmacy Dean C. H. Rogers in his office and raised their voices so loudly that a secretary called University police.

In the group statement, the druggists also charged that Williamson had assured them that rehabilitation rather than suspension would be the objective of the disciplinary action.

Answering the charges from his home last night, Dean Williamson made the following statement:

"I'll stand on my record and will not take part in a public debate over this situation. I made no deal and do not vote on the disciplinary action committee.

"I did say that I thought the committee would view the students in a better light if they acknowledged what they had done. I also stated to the students they had not exhibited morality expected of pharmacists and indeed of all other college students."

Dean Williamson also denied using profanity or obscenity but did say he was deeply shocked when learning the extent of the

Mardi Gras Will Have New Orleans Setting

Masked dancers, copies of French Quarter street lights, sign posts and billboards will add a New Orleans flavor to the Mardi Gras dance from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. today in the Union main ballroom.

The rear of the ballroom will be decorated to resemble Jack's square, a New Orleans street. The rest of the ballroom will be divided off as streets leading from Jack's square.

Upstairs, in the rear balcony, the Toastmasters will run a "gambling casino," equipped with fake money, for students who want to try their luck at roulette and blackjack.

Winners at the casino will be awarded steak dinners at Twin City restaurants.

Harry Blon and his orchestra will play for dancing in the main ballroom.

Sponsored by the Talent Bureau and the University folk dancers, the intermission program will carry out the Southern theme with a Robert E. Lee riverboat setting and songs from Jerome Kern's "Showboat."

All tables at the dance are reserved. Tickets at $1 a person will be on sale in the Union ticket booth until 12:30 p.m. today. Any remaining tickets will be sold at the door.

Pres. Morrill to Return

Pres. J. L. Morrill will return from a short trip to Washington, D. C., "sometime next week," according to University news service. The president was away on personal business.

Horsehair Yet Charm Shows Latest While Piano Plays

By Dick Margolis

"Note the horsehair braid trim at hips and bodice," said Miss Marilyn Cuddy, commentator at yesterday's Charm, Inc., style show.

While the piano gently played "Some Enchanted Evening," Carole Hokanson stepped about the floor of the Union women's lounge modeling a pink formal with a horsehair braid.

Other girls, and other tunes, followed.

"Here's just the thing to wear at the Comstock-Sanford-Powell halls formal May 21. By that time you should have a good suntan which will show off perfectly against the white of the dress."

This was a flimsy, fluffy affair that failed to reach the shoulders. Not bad.

"Shrimp color is very popular this spring, and note the pleated net ruffle and gathered bodice."

At this point the piano played "Blue Moon," a song that has nothing to do with shrimp. Later pianist Marilyn Miller was asked how she selected her tunes. "Pot luck," she said.

"Ruffled sleeves are coming back . . . velvety pattern on nylon net . . ."

$34.75.

To interrupt the program for a second, it should be noted that the girls were being tugged into their formals by Mrs. Josephine Hirsch of the Bridal Shop, Minneapolis. This was going on in the Union fine arts room, of all places.

"This is a very versatile cape. Detach it and it becomes a flare. Lo! a strapless dress."

And, lo, it really was strapless, but the model had a bit of trouble unfastening it from around her neck. The piano tune was "I'm in the Mood for Love."

"Note the extra overskirt peplum, the soft, feminine style. Very popular this spring."

A peplum is simply a misplaced shawl dangling from the waist. It's named after "peplos," an ancient Greek shawl worn by ancient Greek women. Very expensive, too.

The program ended with Janice Lebo, general college freshman, as "our spring bride." Pianist Miller played "The Anniversary Song." She also played "It Had to Be You," "Little White Lies" and "I'll See You in My Dreams."

Miss Miller was slightly confused when approached after the program by George E. Murk of the musician's union. "Are you in the union?" he asked.

"What? Well, no," replied Miss Miller.

"I see," Murk said, "I see."

Services Set for Day of Prayer

Services for universal day of prayer for students will be conducted at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the Union main ballroom.

The students' search for truth will be the subject of the meditation. Speaker will be the Rev. George S. Siudy, pastor of the First Congregational church, Minneapolis.

Student day of prayer was begun in 1897 by the World Student Christian federation. Most church foundations on campus are members of the federation.

Christian students in more than 50 countries will observe the day of prayer.

OFFICIAL DAILY BULLETIN

Students and staff are urged to read the Official Daily Bulletin as they are answerable for notices that affect them. Please note that notices must be received by 10 a.m. of the day prior to publication. All notices should be sent to the Department of University Relations, 213 Administration. Except for certain notices of campus-wide importance, notices will be printed only once.

Ag Notes

By Will Folwick

The lamb stork has been flying extra sorties to the Ag campus livestock pavilion. For the past 10 days, 33 missions have been completed with one set of triplets, several doubles and singles and five black sheep delivered.

According to Stanley W. Hooper, shepherd, the stork should be pretty tired by the end of the lambing season. About 30 more ewes are expecting.

William E. Petersen, professor of dairy husbandry, was knighted in behalf of the king of Denmark last night for his scientific work and contributions to scientific and cultural exchange between the United States and Denmark.

Andrew Johnson, Danish consul in Minneapolis, acted for King Frederick IX by bestowing the Knight Cross of the Order of Danneborg on Dr. Petersen at a dinner in the Coffman Union campus club.

Brotherhood week will begin on Ag campus tomorrow with a world student day of prayer at 5 p.m. in the St. Anthony Park Lutheran church. Thursday night an international fun night will be held, with skits put on by foreign students in native costumes.

The price of borrowing records from the Ag Union record lending library has been raised from 25 to 50 cents a week for 12 records. The extra money will be used to buy new records for the library.

immorality.

The seven druggists also said in their statement they doubted if cheating, to the extent indicated by University officials, "could have prevailed so long if there had been a good relationship and respect between the student body, the faculty and Dean Rogers."

Asked if they intended to appeal the case to Pres. J. L. Morrill, the group said they "didn't know."

The alumni also declined to make any recommendations as to what they thought would be "proper" discipline for the four suspended students. "We just believe in justice—we're not judges," one of them said.

The seven druggists who signed the statement are Keller, Ben M. Cohen, Angus H. Taylor, George W. Wilharm, James B. Dargavel, Henry M. Moen, E. J. Prochaska.

Panel to Evaluate Student Government At CPRA Meeting

"Evaluation of present student government" will be the theme of the fourth congress public relations agents' meeting at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in 344-345 Union.

Jim Marvin and Al Kaufmann, former all-University congress presidents; Bob Brunzell, Daily editor, and Swede Tinglum, Skol editor, will evaluate existing University student government.

Methods of representation, internal efficiency of structure, and accomplishments on the administration, faculty and student levels in student government will be discussed.

WMMR, student-operated radio station, will carry a live broadcast of the meeting.

The discussion will be open for questions from the public relations agents. Sixty organizations of the University now have CPRA, reports Larry Smith, chairman of the congress public relations commission.

Story by Lardner To Be Broadcast On KUOM Today

The Radio Guild playhouse will broadcast a radio adaptation of Ring Lardner's short story, "Zone of Quiet," at 4:30 p.m. today over KUOM.

The story is about a man on the verge of a nervous breakdown, who is admitted to a hospital. He is attended by a flighty nurse who is in competition with another nurse for a doctor's attention.

The nurses constantly argue until the sick man has a relapse. The flighty nurse loses the doctor, but keeps on talking.

The patient is played by Kerry Johnson, SLA junior, the flighty nurse by Connie Driscoll, Guild alumna and the other nurse by Mary Miller, SLA sophomore.

Saul Wernick, KUOM script supervisor, adapted the story for radio; Mary Lou Reed, graduate student, produced the play.

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

No. 35..

THE LARGEMOUTH
BASS

Always a sucker for attractive bait, our aquatic brother went off the deep end and got caught on the quick-trick cigarette hook! But he wormed his way out when he suddenly realized that cigarette mildness can't be tossed off reel lightly. Millions of smokers have found, too, there's only one true test of cigarette mildness.

It's the sensible test—the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks you to try Camels as your steady smoke on a day-after-day, pack-after-pack basis. No snap judgments! Once you've tried Camels for 30 days in your "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste), you'll see why...

After all the Mildness Tests...

U Six Rocks NDU 9-2

By Mayer Stiebel

Johnny Mayasich's four goals plus sensational defensive play by goalie Jim Mattson paced Minnesota to a 9 to 2 upset win over powerful North Dakota last night in Williams arena.

An enthusiastic crowd of 2,600 fans watched the Gophers play their best hockey of the season as they sped to their third straight victory.

Dick Meredith opened the scoring at 5:36 of the first period and both Pete Steuerwald and Mayasich had also scored before the frame ended.

Dick Dougherty and Gene Campbell scored for Minnesota in the first and last minute of a rough second period while the Nodak's Ben Cherski sandwiched a goal in between. North Dakota was pressing throughout the game, playing good hockey but couldn't dent the Gopher defensive wall.

In the third period Campbell and Mayasich each scored smooth unassisted goals in the first two minutes, boosting the score to 7 to 1. Mayasich tallied again at 8:09 and North Dakota's Cherski repeated at 13:03.

Mayasich's fourth goal at 16:18 was his forty-fifth point in 21 games approaching the all time high of 53 set by Cal Engelstad last year.

On Mayasich's last goal, the Gophers controlled the puck for well over a full minute as they passed smoothly back and forth waiting for the opening.

Mattson was superb in the nets for the Gophers as he stopped 31 Nodak pucks. The classy St. Louis Park sophomore had the spirited crowd roaring as he broke up Nodak plays time and again. Mattson played with the Gopher freshman team three years ago and has since won all-star honors in the Canadian amateur leagues the past two seasons.

The fans witnessed a penalty shot, an unusual occurrence, in the third period when a North Dakota player slid his stick into Mayasich as he was racing for another goal. Johnny narrowly missed his fifth marker when goalie Al Finkelstein stopped the hard shot.

Dick Meredith had to leave the game in the third period after a chest injury but will suit up tonight.

A crowd of 300 hockey-mad North Dakota fans accompanied their team in a special train.

The teams face off again at 8:30 tonight in Williams arena.

VERSATILE JOHNNY Mayasich, a four-goal hero of Minnesota's 9 to 2 hockey win last night, back checks defensively to clear the puck for goalie Jim Mattson while Gophers Tom Wegleitner and Jim Tschida and Nodak Bob Krumholz skate in.

Easy, Tough Games Line Weekend Slate

Minnesota needs three more wins to assure a third place Big Ten basketball finish, and the Gophers can sweep aside two of them with victories this weekend on the Michigan road trip.

Tonight the visiting Maroon cagers face Michigan for the second time this season, before invading East Lansing for a Monday night affair with Michigan State.

Previous victors over the Wolves 70 to 60, the Gophers weren't expecting too much trouble in recording their eighth conference win as they took off yesterday by plane.

Ozzie Cowles' main worry in the Ann Arbor contest is the pressing defense Ernie McCoy may use. The Wolves have tried both the man-to-man and zone without too much success this season, and Cowles is anticipating a tight, full-court press from forwards Jim Skala and Carl Brunsting.

Since coming to Minnesota in 1948, Cowles has won six of seven games against his former proteges from Ann Arbor. The lone setback came at Michigan a year ago, when the Wolves weathered a last-quarter Gopher spurt to take a 52 to 48 overtime decision. Game time is 8 p.m. today.

One of the toughest Minnesota road engagements of the season is on tap at East Lansing, where Michigan State will defend a 5-1 home court conference record against the Gophers Monday.

The Spartans added Ohio State to its back yard scalp list a week ago by dumping the Buckeyes 70 to 52, then bumped into a red-hot Illinois outfit at Champaign Monday and bowed 84 to 62.

Forward Keith Stackhouse is the chief Spartan offensive threat, with a 14-point average, but it was forward Bill Bower and guard Gordy Stauffer who harassed the Gophers in the Williams arena till a month ago.

Cowles will probably assign Bob Gelle to Stackhouse, with Dick Means drawing Stauffer. Ed Kalafat, Charlie Mencil and Jerry Mitchell round out the Gopher starting five.

NET NOTES — Cowles didn't say whether the Gophers will shoot their free throws against Michigan State. . . . In previous Spartan games he has ordered the ball taken out of bounds. . . . "It depends on the game situation, and who we have at the free throw line," said Cowles. . . . The Gophers were fouled 35 times in the last MSC contest. . . .

Indoor Track Finals Slated Here Today

Nineteen Gopher trackmen passed preliminary tests yesterday and qualified for the State Invitational track meet finals to be held at 2:30 p.m. today in the Indoor Sports building.

Six of them qualified with top times and distances in their events, though no points were awarded either individually or collectively in yesterday's prelims.

Wally Walbaum in the broad jump, Jim Nold in the shot put, Dick Gregory in the 60-yard dash, Harry Nash in the 440, Walt Ostrem in the 880 and Dave Bernard in the high hurdles collected theoretical firsts for the Gophers.

Gregory ran the half century in 6.1 seconds, and Chuck Bradley and Bernard qualified in both the high and low hurdles for Minnesota's best showings.

Only Jerry Kirk of Carleton had the best qualifying time among the five participating state colleges.

Students will be admitted free to today's 2:30 finals.

Soltau Signs with Pro San Francisco 49ers

Gordie Soltau has signed his 1952 football contract with the San Francisco 49'ers. Soltau, an end, was one of the highest-scoring pros last fall with several touchdowns on pass receiving and one of the better point-after-touchdown records.

NCAA Champs Spartans Face Boxers

Minnesota's boxing team will try to snap a two-meet losing streak tonight when it faces the defending NCAA champions of Michigan State here.

Coach Ray Chisholm has promoted junior Mark Hurd and freshman Jerry Ferrell to the first squad for the match with the Spartans. Hurd replaces the injured Don Illies at 156 pounds while Ferrell fills in for Jim Hedlund at 165 pounds.

The Spartans are in a puzzling slump this year with a record of one win, one loss, and a draw to their arch-rival San Jose State. However, two of these meets were away from home, where most college teams seem to suffer.

Veteran coach George Makris has an abundance of talent to draw from for his boxing crews. NCAA champions Chuck Spieser and Jed Black, the two outstanding Michigan State glovers, have yet to drop an intercollegiate bout. Letterwinners Leon Hamilton and Fred Weeks and experienced newcomers Jimmy Evans and Herb Odom also give Makris added strength to defend the NCAA crown.

Chuck Davey, professional welterweight who was a four-time NCAA titleholder for the Spartans in collegiate competition, says this year's squad should be the best amateur boxing team outside the Olympics.

On the home front, Chisholm says the Gophers are definite underdogs on the basis of comparative scores but "will not concede one iota to Michigan State."

Judging from this week's workouts, the Gophers are a much improved team after the experience gained in the San Jose and Idaho matches.

Spirit on the Minnesota team is remarkably high regardless of the two losses suffered thus far. The fighters have worked hard this week to prepare for the Spartans and don't appear discouraged by the setbacks.

The meet will start at 7:30 p.m. to allow fans to watch the Minnesota-North Dakota hockey game which starts at 8:30.
