NOTICE TO ALL INSTRUCTORS

Instructors are reminded that reports of absences for the past week are due today. Reports of absences on the agricultural campus should be sent to Mr. West, on the main campus, to Mr. Nicholson.

ALL STUDENTS will be furnished through their post-office boxes envelopes for the protection of their deposit cards. These will be distributed on Monday.

NOTICE TO STUDENTS IN RHETORIC A1 AND RHETORIC 4f

Your attention is called to the following regulation of the faculty of the College of Science, Literature, and the Arts, and to the fact that the probation period referred to will end on Wednesday, November 5th.

"All students taking Freshman Rhetoric shall be regarded as on probation during the first four weeks of the course. At the end of that period those who have shown their inability to do satisfactory work because of lack of preparation shall be dropped from the course with a record of failed. To be eligible to enter the course again the next quarter, such students must make up their deficiency in preparation by devoting at least an equivalent amount of time each week to regular instruction in this subject outside the College, and must pass an examination given by the Department. Until this examination is passed such students will not be permitted to carry any course for credit in place of the one from which they have been dropped."

J. M. THOMAS

THE ACADEMIC UPPERCLASSMEN'S ASSOCIATION will meet at dinner at six o'clock next Thursday, October 23, in Room 204, Minnesota Union. Between courses there will be an election of the commission of ten described in the constitution of the Association.

Dean Nicholson will lead the informal discussion following his address on "Diplomacy."

Tickets may be bought from Paul Nelson, Paul Hathaway, Niel Upham, Burton Forster, and other men on the campus.

DICK HAUPT, President

ACADEMIC FRESHMEN, men and women, will meet in the Armory at 12:20 Tuesday noon, October 21, to elect the class president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer.

The Academic Upperclassmen's Committee on Freshmen Relations will announce its plans for cooperation through Niel Upham, Chairman.

The meeting will end before one o'clock.

ACADEMIC STUDENT COUNCIL

ACADEMIC SOPHOMORES will meet in the Little Theater at 12:20, Tuesday noon, October 21, for regular class elections.

NOTICE TO FOREIGN STUDENTS

Mr. Rypins of the Rhetoric Department has been appointed special adviser for all foreign students in the University. It is hoped that all foreign students will call on Mr. Rypins as he desires to serve these students in every way possible.

E. E. NICHOLSON
