

WANT PAY FOR EXTRA DRILL

Officers and Cadets Alike Object to New Rule—Matter may be Adjusted

The recent orders from the government requiring a minimum of five hrs. of drill per week at Minnesota is now causing considerable excitement among the cadets.

When the orders came last spring requiring four hours per week, the soldier boys thought their cup of work was full; now it is overflowing.

If the new regulation is enforced, extra credit will be demanded by the men. One officer stated this morning to a Daily representative that he would not drill without pay for at least one of the extra hours.

Major Morgan, however, anticipating some misunderstanding on the part of the government as to the conditions here at the University, has written to the authorities explaining the situation, and expects a definite reply in a very short time.

In the meantime drill will go on the same as usual.

Major Morgan stated that, should five hours of drill a week, excluding weekly inspection and other ceremonies, be finally required, in his opinion the department should be made a college.

This would give those who desire to take a greater amount of military science, an opportunity to do so, and would prove less burdensome to those who wish to take no more than is required.

Nothing will be done in regard to the matter until the military department of the government is heard from in reply to Major Morgan's letter.

GIRLS WILL MEET IN CONVENTION

State Convention of Y. M. C. A. will be Held at Winona Next Week

The chief topic of interest among Y. W. C. A. members this week is the state convention, which occurs in Winona, next week, Oct. 21-22-23.

The association at the Winona State Normal is the entertaining body, and elaborate arrangements are being made for the comfort and pleasure of the visiting delegates. The delegates will be entertained at the homes of Winona people, special cars will convey them to and from the Twin Cities, and if the necessary delegation is secured, the entire expenses of the journey will be only $5.00.

A large delegation is going from Hamline, Carleton and Macalester colleges, and the local association expects to outdo them all. Besides many young women who are planning to go, the following are sure to go:

Madge Bogart, '07; Mildred Gans, '07; Anna Norris, '05; Florence Jones, '08; Pearl Smith, '06; Marie Higbee, '07; Madge Reiney, '08; Mrs. Berg; May MacGregor, '07; Ethel Huyck, '06; Katharine Barnes, '07; Emma Whitney, '06.

Any girls who are interested in this trip are urged to see Miss Sanford at the Y. W. C. A. office today.

WINS SCHURMEIER PRIZE

N. Soderberg capture $25 prize in Sociology.

Nathaniel F. Soderberg, '04, assistant in the department of political science has been announced winner of the Schurmeier prize in Sociology.

The subject of his essay was "Sociology in the making of Emerson" and the prize amounted to $25.

He will prepare a monograph on social legislation in Minnesota to be published by Carnegie institute of Washington, D. C.

DAILY IS GOOD FOR FRESHMEN

Prof. Edward Sanford Advises Rhetoric Students to Hand in Copy for Daily

Prof. Edward Sanford in his English classes yesterday discoursed on the value of newspaper writing. In his talk he said:

"While I think the Daily is the best collegiate paper I have ever seen, still, mistakes will occur, and this is the very reason why it is a good thing for you fellows it write up a story and hand it in every time you get the chance.

"A story looks very different in cold type than it does in pen and ink. Many sentences seem vague and are poorly constructed. If many of the students would hand in stories, they would, even though blue pencilled, still show the weaknesses and these could be corrected next time."

He then pointed out twelve possible errors, most of them typographical, on the front page of the Daily, saying that he had reviewed it carefully and commenting on the fact of there being so few.

MAY CHANGE LIBRARY RULE.

Plan for Dividing Books in Circulating and Reference Libraries.

Some time ago, rumor reached the Daily that a new library rule was under consideration. This was to provide that books not in wide and general demand might be listed as a circulating library, to be loaned to students on deposit of 25 cents, to be forfeited if the book be not returned at 8:30 in the morning.

Seen by a reporter yesterday, Dr. Folwell said that he was in favor of this rule and anxious for its speedy adoption. In this he has the concurrence of a large number of students. It would seem that such a rule might settle the question of vigilance committees which are now the fad in many classes.

NEW VOTARIES OF MINERVA.

Girls Literary Society Chooses New Members.

The Minerva Literary Society has been busily at work culling out desirable members for its society, and has elected the following new members: Leah Fligelman, Emma D. Ripley, Rose Crossman, Agnes Tennyson and Jessie Allen. The names of Louise Boutelle and Mrs. Bonnie McElmeel have also been transferred from the honorary roll to the active list.

"SUNNY" THORPE BACK IN GAME

Veteran Guard is Back in School and May Play in Saturday's Game

"SUNNY" THORPE.

"Sunny" Thorpe's appearance on the campus yesterday, caused great joy and excitement among the ranks of the loyal.

It had been rumored for about a week that he was expecting to return, but nothing was positively known until he actually arrived.

Thorpe said when seen yesterday that he wished to take some special mathematics for entrance into the army.

"Sunny" came from Britton, S. D., where he has been coaching a high school team, and is in perfectly fit condition.

Thorpe was out on the field in a suit yesterday afternoon, although he did not get into scrimmage work. Last year he played right guard and expects to play in that position on Saturday, against Ames. This will call for the shifting of Dan Smith to left guard. After this move we will have a practically invulnerable line, consisting of Luce, Case, Smith, Strathern, Thorpe, Brush, and Marshall; and with O'Brien's return we should have the best team in the West.

NEW TUNE FOR AMES GAME

Band will play The Gridiron at the Saturday Game.

The band will play a new piece, entitled "The Gridiron" at the Ames game on Saturday.

The composition was written by Mr. Isadore Borowsky of this city.

This will be the first time it has ever been played.

CHICAGO PROFESSOR ON PHILANTHROPY.

Dr. Henderson Will Lecture at Plymouth Church.

Students of the department of Sociology and Political Economy will be interested in a lecture at Plymouth church this afternoon at 4:00. Dr. Henderson, professor of sociology at Chicago University, will lecture on "Strength and Weakness of Private Philanthropy." This lecture will be given in the church parlors and is open to all.

FRESHMAN DEBATERS.

Debating League Chooses Officers and Makes Plans for the Year.

Yesterday morning the Freshmen interested in debate held a meeting to organize the Freshman Debating League and officers were elected.

All Freshmen who contemplate doing work in debate or who are especially interested in that line of work are eligible to membership.

A meeting will be held Saturday at chapel time in Dr. McClumpha's room, and all those interested and desiring membership are requested to be present.

HOT SCRIMMAGE PLEASES ROOTERS

Yesterday's Practice Encouraging—Thorpe and Page on Side Lines—Hunter Fit

Life came easy for the football squad last night, and it was long before the shades of eve came down upon the gridiron that the moleskin warriors made their way towards the Armory.

The shining star of the afternoon, the burning gloriousness of whose hair will never be quenched, was "Sunny" Thorpe, who followed the team up and down the field with an eagerness that delighted the crowd of rooters assembled in the grandstand.

It was another open practice and students of both sexes were present in large numbers and cheered on every good play.

The practice opened with some fireworks, everybody taking a hand at booting the ball into the atmosphere.

Scrimmage.

At 5:00 o'clock the first and second teams lined up for scrimmage. The bunch running second best kicked off, but could not hold their line against the rushes of the first team, directed by quarterback Hunter, who was back at the engineers place behind the line.

Hunter All Right.

Hunter's leg is again in working order, thanks to the arnika bottle, and he should play the game of his life against the beefy crowd from the farming institute of Ames, Iowa, Saturday afternoon.

Two touchdowns were the result of about 20 minutes work. Davies and Current played the hard game which has already made them famous. Luce is still plugging away hard at the end position.

A Hit.

The concluding event on the afternoon's program was a hit entitled "Smashing the Dummy" or "Tackling Your Way to Fortune." The tackling dummy never raised a word of complaint.

On the Side Lines.

Case, Burgan and Marshall held down the side lines during the afternoon. Page, center and captain in 1900, was out to help in the coaching. The management reports a large advance sale of tickets for Saturday's game, and the best crowd thus far this season is expected. The prices are 50 cents, $1.00, $1.50.

MANDOLIN CLUB.

Important business meeting of the Mandolin Club will be held today at 4:45 p. m. in the Y. M. C. A. building. All new members especially urged to be present.

ROOTERS RALLY THIS MORNING

Gather at Chapel Time to Prepare Welcome for the Ames Backers

Preparations for today's mass meeting are in fine shape and the gathering should be a record breaker in the voice culture business.

President Mordoff has secured Dr. Williams and Dean Downey as the speakers of the occasion. Johnny Campbell will attend to the yelling part of the program.

It is doubtful whether the limited time will permit a trial of the new football songs, but the old standbys will be sent to the front.

We print them for the benefit of the Freshmen.

(Tune: "Tale of a Kangaroo.")

The farmers, they were jolly,
The farmers, they were gay,
But when the game was over
They felt the other way.
They saw the constellations,
The moon, the stars, the sun,
Their team looked sort of sickly,
When that football game was done.
Oh, U. fo M.'s a daisy,
She'll knock the farmers blue,
She'll set the world all crazy,
'Twill learn a thing or two.
You'll weigh your 1500,
And that's no golden dream,
Before you come a bucking
The Gopher football team.

We'll cheer for Minnesota,
We'll cheer Maroon and Gold,
We'll cheer for Minnesota
In our coffins, when we're cold.
And when we're up in Heaven
We'll give the Gopher yell,
And if we're not so fortunate
We'll give it down in —

PROHIBITION CLUB ORGANIZED

New College Political Organization Starts with Hopeful Prospects for Success

The first meeting of the Prohibition Club was held in the Y. M. C. A. building yesterday noon. The following officers were elected: President, J. R. Chase; vice-president, H. Hare; secretary, Hill; treasurer, J. W. Ash.

A committee consisting of Eberhard, McNally and Babcock was appointed by the chair to draw up a constitution which will be submitted to the members at the first regular meeting of the club, which will be held Tuesday, Oct. 18, at 7:30 in Prof. McClumpha's room.

The primary object of this club is to effect a permanent organization for the college. The immediate object is the booming of the present campaign, especially in regard to W. G. Calderwood, the East Side candidate for representative.

There are many energetic men in the club and they are all extremely optimistic regarding its prospects.

COLD WAVE FOR AMES.

Down at Ames they're getting ready a football team which expects to find a Waterloo for us tomorrow afternoon.

Up here at Minnesota we're going to have a mass meeting this morning that means a Waterloo for Ames.

You'd better believe it!

There's an atmosphere in a Minnesota mass meeting that explains why Northrop Field has never seen a defeat for the Maroon and Gold.

There's electricity in the atmosphere this morning that says Northrop Field won't see one this year.

Hear the conclusion of the whole matter.

We must remain champions of the west!

Come out to the meeting and help us say:

We shall!

DO YOU LIKE FUDGE?

If so, the Sophomore girls can supply your wants. An energetic group, in charge of Miss Polly Stebbins, will dispense the best quality of home-made fudges and kindred sweets, in the Library rotunda on Saturday morning, and preparations are being made for a large patronage. The proceeds will go toward the expenses of the Y. W. C. A.

SAVED BY OZONE.

Being the Thrilling Performance of Two Co-eds at the Frankforter.

Two Sophomore co-eds, while analyzing chemical mysteries in the Qualitative Analysis laboratory yesterday morning, became too intimately associated with the hydrogen-sulphide generator, so that they required a large amount of exciting attention and the whole out-doors full of Minnesota ozone to bring them back to consciousness of this wicked world.

It will probably take more than ozone to bring them back to so friendly a connection with hydrogen-sulphide generators again.

The occasion was one which might have brought forth a wealth of heroic situations, but Prof. Nicholson stepped in and calmly set matters straight again with the afflicted.

He afterward made the occasion a subject for a little warning to the other students, but declared that there was little or no danger at all to most people from inhaling the gas.

THALIANS ELECT

New Girls chosen to Thalian Literary Society

A meeting of Thalian was held Monday to elect new members.

The following girls have joined the society, Bessie Healy, Jessie Hill, Laura Wilson, Mabel MacDonald, Monica Keating and Katherine T. Janey.

She described the conditions of the girls' life here and urged that the Federation assist the Woman's League to secure a Woman's Building on the campus.

Mr. Elmer Adams, of Fergue Falls, a University Regent, also spoke on this subject. He said that this need was recognized by the regents and that an appropriation will be asked for. He suggested that donations be made by Minnesota Women to help out the cause, and advised the pledging of candidates for the legislature before

TO THE STUDENT:

When I clerked in the store at Carter's Corners, we used to run a trier thru farmer Fron's butter to see whether the middle of the tub was as good as the top. If Mrs. Ahnest, brought in a tub of butter we never used the trier; we knew it was all right. The habit of using the trier has clung to me. I used it this morning on a book I found on a shelf at the Students Bookstore, and the idea came right out of the middle chapter: "In all college undertakings the conditions are very much as you will find them in the outer world after graduation." The author then shows how the microcosmic character, the little-worldness of the college affords an opportunity for real experience in life.

If I had looked at the title page first I would have known it was like Mrs. Ahnest's butter—the name guaranteed its merit. It is called "The College Student and His Problems" and its author is James Hulme Canfield, Librarian of Columbia University, formerly Chancellor of the University of Nebraska, and President of Ohio State University. Seeing the name, I plunked down a silver disc which the gentlemanly clerk referred to as a plunk, and took the book.

When I want a good book, good stationery or good supplies of any kind, I go to School Education Company's Students Bookstore on the "Street Car Corner," 327-331 S. E. Fourteenth Ave.

TAKE THAT.

If one characteristic more than any other marks a free and untrammelled intellect, a clear conscience, and creative power bordering close onto genius, it is a rough and ready handling of English orthography.

We guess that we can hold the field against all comers, at long distance, cross-country, high-hurdle misspelling.

Yet that case of mental astigmatism, O'Laughlin of the Yellow Hammer, who does not have imagination enough to misspell the largest, most incoherent, and unphonetic polysyllabic monstrosity to be found in Webster's form book, ventures to make our freedom of manner the subject of carping criticism.

Eddie Sanford's Freshmen are going to butt into journalism. Watch the price of blue pencils soar.

GOOD WORK.

If the manly miners who spanked an effeminate member infected with the fussing habit have hunted out their own preserves and are still game, they might drop into the Library building. The result should be pleasant to them and profitable to the public.

ORATORY.

A meeting is called of the Freshmen in front of the Chemistry Building. Sidney, the rodent remarker, will address the class on the virtues of the rat. Girls having them concealed on their person will be bald out.

Well, any how, no body is shining up four flights of stairs 3 minutes late for a recitation these days but we have seen some 10 flat sprinting on the half mile course between the Y. M. C. A. and the armory.

The post office course is the severest sufferer from the fire but there has been a marked increase in the quality of the campus work, so the final show down should be about as usual, or more so.
