DULUTH -- Five UMD pre-medical students have been accepted to the University of Minnesota and Creighton University (Omaha, Neb.) medical schools for fall quarter, 1967.

Claudia McEwen and Tedford Luck of Duluth, Stephen Hadley of Hawaii and Tyler Gill of Virginia are headed for the Minneapolis campus and Charles LaTendresse of Eveleth will attend Creighton.

LaTendresse is a three-year pre-med student. The other four are finishing four-year programs and will leave UMD with B.S. degrees. Gill is majoring in zoology, the other three in chemistry.
