FIVE CENTS THE COPY

ENCYCLOPEDIA PUBLISHED BY MINNESOTA ALUMNUS

Five Volume Edition published for Popular Use—Many of Faculty Contribute and Criticise.

George B. Aiton, '80, inspector of state high schools has recently published a five volume encyclopedia for practical reference work in the home school and library. The books contain references of all kinds, geography with maps, history with biographical sketches, literature, and the latest developments in agriculture and agricultural education, as well as the most recent scientific discoveries in heavier than air machines.

The encyclopedia represents twelve years of work by Mr. Aiton, who wrote the greater part. He credits the following with contributions as department critics and writers: History and social sciences, Professor West; natural and physical sciences, Ellen Torelle, dean of Milwaukee-Downer college; Geography and Pedagogy, Professor A. W. Rankin; Literature and Domestic Science, Mary Blanchard Murphy, former teacher in the Minneapolis public schools. John Lawson, a Chicago journalist edited the works and other contributions were made by Julius Hortvet, Minnesota State Chemist, and Samuel A. Challman, inspector of State graded schools in Minnesota.

Dean G. F. James of the College of Education says, "The encyclopedia is the best thing for the purpose in the schools that we can get. It has the advantage of using ordinary terms; the accounts are not too technical, yet they open up the subject so that one can know how to go on with it. It is up to date and sufficiently accurate and represents a dozen years of work by Mr. Aiton, who is to be congratulated upon it."

THE CONFERENCE SITUATION.

Whether Minnesota will or will not stay in the western conference is a question that is now on every lip. Minnesota is really in an embarrassing situation. If she deems it wise to stay in the conference and be governed by the ruling that is made by the conference teams, she will lose the Michigan game that has featured football in the West for the past two years. Altho no definite action has been taken to the members of the conference in relation to this Michigan game, rumors have spread from them that they will not favor games Minnesota if she insists on playing Michigan. This is rather an odd case as Chicago yearly plays Cornell and no one yet has conceived the idea of stopping that game. Outside colleges seem as though they desired to ignore the Wolverines completely, just because they do not care to abide by the rules made up by the western colleges. If Minnesota does stay by the conference, as she probably will, she will have her hands full to retain that championship. In the past two years, Minnesota has had two of the very best teams ever turned out by Dr. Williams,—they have easily defeated the other conference teams who unfortunately had weak teams. Within the next year or so the situation may be entirely changed with some other teams taking the lead. Should such a thing happen, Minnesota would be in a hard position and have to fight against many odds if she were not in the conference.

The very best manner by which the problem could be solved would be to have Michigan come back into the fold. Then Minnesota could keep her games with her Western teams and also play Michigan without any fears of being questioned on their action.

Dr. Williams believes that the Wolverines should come back into the conference altho he further says that Minnesota "could go along" all right without the Michigan game. He says, "In case Michigan decides to rejoin the conference the difficulties are at once removed. While a game of football between Minnesota and Michigan is highly desirable if the two can meet on a fair and equal basis it would be the height of folly for Minnesota to sacrifice all her athletic relations with Chicago, Wisconsin and Illinois and other conference schools for the sake of an annual game with Michigan." The present is a very opportune time for Michigan to re-establish her athletic relations in the west by rejoining the conference. I think that Michigan will make a serious mistake if they elect to remain outside the western conference."

An International club was recently organized at the University of California, which is to become a member of the Intercollegiate Association of Cosmopolitan Clubs.

From now until after Dec. 1, the Business manager or his Assistant will be in the Daily Office between the hours of 8:30 and 11 o'clock. If you have not yet paid your Daily subscription please do so at once.

DR. BURTON ON THEATRES.

The thing at the local theatres worth emphasizing this week, is "The Chocolate Soldier." The book is based upon Bernard Shaw's brilliant play, "Arms and The Man," and the music is of a very high order, the entertainment as a whole representing a return to the Gilbert & Sullivan days when comic opera was a more commendable form of amusement.

"Madame Sherry" has some charming music and a good company, but is far below the other in all the essentials of intelligent appeal.

Special attention should be given to The Lyric, beginning December 4, when Sarah Truax will play for six weeks a round of parts. She is an able actress of standing and the plays will be worth while.

Regular Glee Club practice will be held in chapel today at 4:30.

BASKET BALL SCHEDULE
ARRANGED FOR YEAR

Officials from "Big Eight" Schools Meet at Conference. No Eastern Games Scheduled.

Now that the football season is over the eyes of the sporting world turn to basketball, the king of winter sports. The tossing game has the center of the stage in this section at least and other sports will receive less attention from athletes and from the public in comparison with the floor sport.

Officials and members of the Western Intercollegiate Basketball association held their annual meeting Saturday evening at the Auditorium hotel, Chicago. They arranged the schedule for the coming season and also rearranged some of the rules. This gathering marks the beginning of the current basketball season in the West.

Coaches and managers from all the "Big Eight" college were present and planned out the largest schedule since the formation of the association. The members of the association are the universities of Minnesota, Illinois, Indiana, Purdue, Chicago, Iowa, Wisconsin and Northwestern. Dr. J. L. Cooke and Helen Leach represented Minnesota at the meeting and returned yesterday, fully satisfied with the result of the meeting.

Dr. Cooke is speaking of the coming basketball season is looking forward to one of the best teams that Minnesota has boasted of for years. Dr. Cooke had hoped however, that a schedule might have been arranged with a couple of eastern teams, as was done several years ago when the Dr. took his famous five east and defeated every quint of any class including the greatest team in the country, the one at Columbia.

OUT OF TOWN STUDENTS ROYALLY ENTERTAINED.

One hundred and ten girls ate Thanksgiving dinner with the woman's League in Shevlin last Thursday night. The time honored turkey and pumpkin pie were served up with the proper trimmings of cranberry sauce and dressing, also sweet potatoes, green peas and fruit salad. Dr. Raymond Phelan spoke in the value of college life in general. Mrs. Phelan told of the social opportunities for girls and Dr. Roberts on toasted the Woman's League.

After the dinner nearly three hundred men arrived, both singly and in groups, and a vaudeville program was given. This consisted in "The Wise Entanglement," a twenty-minute farce by Enza Zeller, Hazel Stone and Myrle Wheeler, a song and dance farce by Hermnie Shearer and Norma Rosholt, a reading by Rhoda Dickinson, a violin solo by Lillian Nippert, a piano duet by Miss Sutherland and Miss Murphy, and a dance by Genevieve Griffith. After this there was informal dancing in the assembly hall of Shevlin, and games in the dining room.

PINAFORES NOTICE!

This morning, second, third and fourth hours, will be the last chance for the Pinafores to buy tickets for the spread Friday evening. Tables will be placed in Folwell and the Library these hours, and there will be a table in Shevlin after fourth hour, during lunch time.

Of the various college football captains this year, fifteen are backs.

DOCTOR PLEASSED WITH TEAM

Thinks wrestling Squad will develop Some good Men—Fencing delegate to Conference.

Speaking of Minnesota's prospects in the Western Intercollegiate Gymnastic meet, Dr. Cooke says, "Our prospects in wrestling look fine. We have a wrestling club which meets four or five times per week. The men will be given a chance to appear before the public between halves of the basketball games. Local tournaments will be held after the holidays, and triple meets with athletic associations and small colleges may be pulled off. In spring we will send three wrestlers to the Western meet."

Last year the annual gymnastic meet was held at Minnesota and we carried off championships in the light and middle weight wrestling matches, besides winning the meet. This spring the meet comes off at Chicago.

A novelty for Minnesota at this year's meet will be sending representatives, this being the first time that a fencer will be sent from this university. A class of fifteen is now meeting at 6:30 on Tuesday and at 4:00 on Saturday, and considerable interest and ability is shown in the new sport. Local tournaments and exhibitions at the coming basket ball games will afford the men considerable teaming in appearing before the public. The best man will be sent to Chicago next spring to represent Minnesota for the first time in its history.

SKI U ROOTERS WERE GAME BUNCH.

You've got to hand it to those Minnesota boys for being game sports. They sure are all wool and a yard wide. Minnesota doesn't care an awful lot for Michigan, but every mother's son of the Ski-U bunch was ready to cheer for every Wolverine that was laid out and it didn't matter whether the gentleman had just made ten yards or not. Sure because luck was against them in the first quarter when they really were outplaying Michigan? Not so that it showed. When Shorty McMillan was laid out for a moment with a bent rib in the first quarter they whooped it up for him between whoops for the injured Young, and the way that magnificent band of theirs played whenever a Minnesota man took time out would have put heart into a wooden man.

At the Whitney that night, with the western championship gone after weeks of confident preparation, gray-haired Minnesota-rooters in the parquet led the cheers for Michigan.

McGovern, the plucky Minnesota quarterback, was there, his head swathed in bandages necessitated by the deadly tackling of the Michigan ends in the afternoon. The Minnesota rooters in the audience cheered him to the echo and the Michigan boys followed suit.

They may not like us, but no Michigan man can help liking them. They're game, and they're true sportsmen. There is room for that kind on the Michigan schedule.

Here's hoping Michigan and Minnesota come to understand each other better.—Ann Arbor Daily Times-News, Nov. 21st.

Interwoven TOE AND HEEL

If, the next time you buy socks, the words "Interwoven Toe and Heel" appear on the ticket at the top of the pair, we won't have to worry about the kind you will wear in the future. "Interwovens" have made the problem of darning socks a thing of the past. They are heavily woven in the wearing parts and very thin in the other parts. Two distinctly different fabrics combined in one sock.

Fit perfectly, look like silk and come in black and all fashionable colors.
A single trial pair will show you the difference.
25 cents the pair.
