OCTOBER 31, 1918

NO. 7

THE HOSTESS HOUSE on the University campus, located at 1609 University Ave. S. E., will be open to interested friends on Friday afternoon from 2:00 to 5:00. A special invitation is given to the members of the faculty and their friends. The S. A. T. C. men are to begin using the house on Saturday, and they are cordially invited to bring their relatives and friends there for information or for rest.

NOTICE! As per order of the Board of Regents, no property belonging to the University of Minnesota may be taken from the building in which it belongs without first securing permission from the Inventory Department in the Mechanic Arts Building. Written orders for transfer will be issued by this department upon request.

J. C. POUCHER, Inventory Clerk

Will those students who worked at the Exposition Building before the opening of the University please call at the Cashier's Office for their checks in payment for their services?

FOUND.—A $20 bill on October 28th. Owner please call at the Post Office.

MASS for Catholics will be celebrated on Friday at 8:30 in the Armory. Masses at St. Lawrence's Church on that same day are to be at 6, 7, 8, and 9 o'clock. On All Souls' Day mass will be celebrated at every half hour from 6 to 9 o'clock in St. Lawrence's Church. A mission for Catholic women will be conducted by Father Mullally from Nov. 3 to 10; for Catholic men from Nov. 10 to 17; for non-Catholics from Nov. 17 to 24. All University students are welcome.

PAULIST FATHERS.

ALL S. A. T. C. men are expected to attend the first MASS SING of the year today at 4:30 in the Armory.

ALL practice teachers in the University High School and in the city schools will meet on Friday in Room 113, College of Education Building.

MUSIC STUDENTS, ATTENTION! There will be a meeting of the Music Club on Friday at 2:00 p.m. in the Music Building. Everyone is requested to attend.

RUTH ROSS, President

THERE are still vacancies in the Senior Normal Practice Class for children who desire piano instruction at a nominal fee. Definite information may be had by calling the Music Department. The work, which consists of two private and one class lesson each week, is under the supervision of Miss Gertrude Reeves.

GRADUATE STUDENTS, ATTENTION! No registration for the first quarter 1918-19 will be allowed in the Graduate School after Friday, November 1st, except in special cases upon petition, with reduced credit and with penalty for late registration.

C. M. JACKSON, Acting Dean.

The first meeting of the GRADUATE TEACHING FACULTY of the Graduate School will be held today at 7:30 p.m. in Room 104, Folwell Hall. A full attendance is requested.

C. M. JACKSON, Acting Dean.

ALL Freshmen women, Home Economics students, and all other newly-entering students, should make appointments this afternoon for their physical examinations on Friday afternoon, Nov. 1st. Examinations will take precedence over regular class work. Students who have already made their appointments need not make any change.

DR. J. ANNA NORRIS.

THE UNIVERSITY FARM

The first Y. W. C. A. meeting will be held on Friday at 12:45 in Room 110, Home Economics Building. Miss Weigley will speak.

Girls wishing to work for room and board or by the hour, call at the Y. W. C. A. Office.

The Agricultural School and College Health Dispensary, with physicians in attendance, is now located in the Boys' New Dormitory. The hours for consultation are 9:00 to 10:00 and from 4:30 to 5:30.

The meeting of the Association of American Agricultural Colleges and Experiment Stations which was to be held in Baltimore, Md., on November 13 to 15, has been postponed because of the influenza situation.
