ROSE IN A BURLESQUE

Band Gives Trip Concert Before Students.—"Banda Rossa" The Feature.

"Banda Rossa" in chapel last night was the feature of the evening. Mr. Rose wore his hair "a la spaghetti" and the music was quite impressonistic.

J. A. Sende and Glenn Gullickson played a cornet duet, "Tyrolean Lovers." The "sextet from Lucia" was played as an extra number and with the "Raymond" Overture showed the ability of the band to translate classical music.

The concert was the first given at the University by the band and is the same that will be given on the road next week. The band will leave Minneapolis, Monday morning, returning Saturday night after playing in Benson, Willmar, Granite Falls, Marshall and Pipestone.

PHILOSOPHERS MEET.

Prof. Haynes to Read Paper Before Convention at Iowa City.

Prof. Rowland Haynes and Prof. D. T. Swenson, of the Psychology department, will attend the meeting of the Western Philosophical union, which is to be held at the University of Iowa, Iowa City, March 25, and 26. Professor Haynes will deliver a paper on "An Idealistic Philosophy as a Psychological Basis for Psychotherapy."

AESTHETIC DANCES REPEAT

A second performance of the program of aesthetic gymnastics may be given after Easter. Over-town people were in the majority at the first performance and Miss Butner has received a number of requests from students, who missed the program, to repeat the affair. The success of the first evening leads the gymnastic directors to consider a repetition

LET US BOOST THE TRIBUTE DURING VACATION

A Men's Building may not make the slightest appeal to you. Its advantages, however numerous in the eyes of others, may seem inconsequential. But it is not a rendezvous for men and their interests alone. It will stand, thru out the coming years, a Tribute to Prexy, a token of our, esteem,—yours and mine.

Do we care enough to do our little part? Is it not the least thing that we can do to carry home with us the message of our respect, our personal affection for him, our fellowship with him.

The people of the State of Minnesota are anxious to contribute their mite. It is our duty to see that the opportunity is given them.

CLASS DAY HONORS ARE AWARDED BY SENIORS

Poet, Prophet, Historian, Junior Counselor and Orator Chosen By Graduating Class.

After a close contest, the senior class yesterday elected their class day representatives. Helen Painter, whose work is well known in University circles, was elected class poet; Howard Williams, managing editor of the 1910 Gopher, and an editor of the Minnesota Magazine, class prophet; Anna Lane, who has been prominent in class circles, historian; Jack Bonner, the popular "Cynic" of the Magazine, Junior Councillor; and Sigurd Peterson, who won second place for Minnesota in the Northern Oratorical League last year, orator.

Class day has been set, this year, for Wednesday of Commencement week, and the class day program will be held in the afternoon, in chapel.

JAPANESE APPRECIATES INTENTION OF REGENTS.

Tanikawa Writes Concerning Granting Of Degree To Yamagishi.

A letter has been received from Yoshio Tanikawa, '09, who is now taking a post graduate course at Harvard, in which he says in part:—

"The statement which appeared in the Daily, 'Deceased Japanese to Receive Degree,' gratified me very much. I, as his friend and as a Japanese, am deeply impressed by the kind and thoughtful attitude of the Regents of the University toward Mr. Yamagishi.

"The Japanese people are very particular to honor any person after death who deserves to be and I can well realize how his parents in Japan will be gratified by the news of this honor in the midst of their lamentations."

STUDENTS TO CONDUCT EVANGELISTIC MEETINGS

Y. M. C. A. Workers To Spend Vacation at Alexandria.

Secretary T. W. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Grant, Howard Williams and Walter Nussle will leave here Sunday morning for Alexandria, Minnesota. They will conduct a series of evangelistic meetings during the week before Easter, directing their attention chiefly to the boys and young men. The meetings are under the auspices of the Presbyterian and Congregational churches, the only Protestant denominations in the town.

Delta Gamma gave a tea and Easter sale at the chapter house, Thursday afternoon and evening.

The largest class which has ever been graduated from the school of Agriculture will receive their diplomas Wednesday afternoon, March 23. The class is composed of one hundred and eight students, thirty seven of whom are girls.

W. J. Spillman, chief of the Bureau of Plant Industry at Washington, D. C., is to make the address at the graduating exercises. Mr. Spillman is a personal friend of Dean A. F. Woods of the Agricultural school, and one of the best speakers in the Department of Agriculture at Washington.

Commencement week begins March 19, and the program is as follows:—

NO POLICING FOR BURTON.

Co-Operation and Self Government Only Way to Deal With Cheating.

"Student self government is the only way to develop ethics in the University," is Doctor Burton's opinion. "Cheating will never be done away with by police duty; co-operation of the students is the only remedy. Self government has worked where ever it has been tried."

Dr. Burton went on to say, "I think that examinations ought to be eliminated if a student gets a grade of 75 or 80 per cent and has shown that he has done faithful and honest work. Examinations set up a false idea of education. They make one forget the true ideal, and disregard what we are here for, the broader, wider, personal education."

FAMOUS PAINTER IN CHAPEL.

Philip Little To Give Short Talk This Morning.

Mr. Philip Little, who is one of the best known American artists, and who has exhibited at the Carnegie Institute and New York Museum, will speak in chapel today.

He has an exhibit of pictures now in the library. These consist mostly of scenes off the Massachusetts coast and interiors of autumnal woods.

Mr. George Northrop says, "We are particularly fortunate in being able to hear Mr. Little as he is a man of large personality and great charm as a speaker."

The Scandinavian society will give a dancing party in Shevlin Hall, Tuesday evening, April 29.

INTERFRATERNITY COUNCIL PRACTICALLY ASSURED

Sixteen Societies Will Present Constitution and Nominees for President to Regents.

Long heralded as a solution for all evils, the Inter-Fraternity Council stands complete with a membership of sixteen of the seventeen academic fraternities. The one out-standing society has asked for time to consider and it is thought will acquiesce rather than stand out alone, thus coming singly under the control of the Board of Regents.

The final vote of the sixteen fraternities showed Professor E. E. Nicholson, Dean Francis C. Shenehon and Professor Fletcher Harper Swift, in the order named, as nominees for president of the Council. Their names, together with the proposed constitution, will be presented to the Board of Regents at its meeting next Tuesday.

There is little doubt that the constitution will be ratified by the Regents as they started the movement which has been carried out on the general lines which they suggested. The council will then be empowered to go ahead and act according to their own laws.

WISCONSIN PROF. LECTURES

Relation of Metals in Chemical Compounds Discussed Before Chemical Society.

Ten years of original research work in determining the relation of metals in chemical compounds was summed up last night by Prof Louis Kahlenberg, head of the Chemistry department of the University of Wisconsin. He spoke before the Minnesota section of the American Chemical Society on "The Chemical Replacement of the Metals by Each Other."

In opening his address Prof. Kahlenberg touched briefly upon the history of the discovery of precipitation of metals. He then outlined the work which he had done since he commenced in 1900, stating that he had been led to investigate the action of metals toward each other in solvents which were insulators, since the common action was based upon the electro-motive force of the metal.

MISS SANFORD HOME FROM EXTENSIVE LECTURE TOUR.

For the first time in forty years Prof. Maria L. Sanford visited her old home in Saybrook, Conn., on a recent lecture tour from which she has just returned. Miss Sanford spoke in the east and southeastern states before various Women's clubs. She delivered twenty-five lectures during her tour.

At Vassar Prof. Sanford was entertained by Miss Gertrude Ballard, a former assistant of Miss Sanfords at Minnesota. Miss Sanford visited Dean F. S. Jones at New Haven.

MINERS HAVE HOLIDAY.

Junior Miners will be excused from classes to-day. Under the direction of M. E. Kingston the class will attend, as a body, the Conservation Congress now being held in St. Paul.

GLOSS FINISH WEARS OUT CLOTHES

Gloss finish is hard upon your linen. To obtain a gloss finish the goods are ironed upon a machine which runs them between two rolls. One of these rolls runs faster than the other, thus producing a friction, which with pressure and heat, shines the starched goods. Domestic finish—our finish—requires no friction, in fact if there is any friction the domestic finish cannot be obtained.

Thus our finish not only looks better, but also prolongs the life of your linen.

COMMUNICATION.

"The student Council will without question from its efficiency in governing those student activities for which no existing organization is responsible, and also in securing unanimity of action by the various classes. It ought to lead to a University Council made up of representatives of the various colleges so that greater unity of feeling and action might be brought about.

"The task of punishing individual students for breaches of discipline is infinitely more difficult. I feel sure that the faculty will be willing to accept the recommendations of the council. But one must have evidence in order to punish. Some one must report individual cases of cheating. It requires moral courage of a high order to report a classmate, friend, or fraternity brother to any body which has the power to suspend him from college. Unless the members of the council are willing to do this they cannot expect other students to do so.

"Are the students so convinced of the necessity of reform that they are willing to take such action? It is a step beyond the honor system, because under that a man is responsible only for himself. The proposed plan would array the honest and honorable students actively against those who use dishonest methods. I hope those who advocate this plan will have the courage of their convictions. The mere knowledge that there is a body of students who are willing openly to condemn the cheater will certainly arouse a social feeling against cheating which in the long run is the greatest, if not the only, safeguard against it."

SPORT GOSSIP

Wednesday night's meet was a vin-dication of Coach Grant's year of coaching. In all the events, but particularly in the runs, his hand was clearly seen.

In the two mile run there were four men, any one of whom was faster than any two miler ever seen in action at Minnesota before. The mile, which went two years ago in 5:22 was traveled in 4:45-4, nearly three-fourths of a minute faster. And it is a safe wager that there are at least thirty men in school who can break the tape in this event in close to the five minute mark. The half-mile, likewise, went in outdoor time,
 with several men well up at the finish.
 The marks in the shorter runs and in the field events also were generally far in advance of former records.

All these marks spell "Grant" in large letters, and not any individual merit on the part of the contestants.
 Grant, moreover, is not only developing exceptional men and instilling into them a new kind of Minnesota spirit, but is keeping an eye on all prep. school stars and exerting what influence he can to induce them to enter school here. He is carrying on this work on a larger scale than any coach Minnesota has yet had.

From present indications, after the close of the present track season, Minnesota will owe Dr. Grant a vote of thanks for lifting this really important branch of athletics from its former neglected condition. He will

BOUGHNER MARRIES
GENEVIEVE JACKSON, '06.

Genevieve Jackson, '06, was married to Leroy G. Boughner, Saturday evening. Miss Jackson was prominent in University circles.

She was a member of several student organizations while in college, among them the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority and the Quill. Mr. Boughner, as city editor of the Tribune, is well known among University people as he has delivered a course of lectures on journalism here.

"The Wolf" will have a strong note of local appeal, in that the one woman character, to be played by Lillian Raymond, is that of a beautiful little Swedish girl.

"The Wolf" is one of the most sensational successes of Eugene Walter,
 and was produced by the Shuberts.
 Mr. Walter has gone to the picturesque and wild Hudson Bay country for his characters and locale, a fine spot about which to lay a melodrama. The story really begins some time before the curtain rises at a time when a half sister of Jules Beaubien has been led astray by an American adventurer.
 This man has later departed with the woman, and all trace of them has been lost. The disgrace brought upon Jules' father weighs upon him, and on his death bed he exacts a promise from Jules to find his stepsister, Annette and care for her.

Jules sets forth and discovers that his sister is dead. He also finds her betrayer, William McDonald. A duel follows. The fight occurs in the dark, and is the strong scene of the play,
 with the ominous howling of wolves
 in the distance.

Sunday matinee will begin on Easter day.

STAR WEIGHT MA HURT

Leonard Frank Suffers Torn Ligament.—Second Point Winner Lost to Team.

An inquiry occurred day before yesterday in the wrestling room in the Armory which sadly impaired the strength of the Minnesota track team this coming season. Leonard Frank, the premier weight man of the Minnesota squad, suffered a broken ligament in his right shoulder while wrestling. The physicians say that at the very best he will not be able to compete before the conference meet, and possibly never again. His injury is of such a serious nature that his arm cannot come out of a sling for at least a month, and then it will be too weak and sore to use.

This is merely one of a series of accidents which have deeply discouraged the immune members of the team. This coming on the heels of the discovery of Strane's weak heart, and his inability to vault again, has cast a damper on the spirit of all the squad. Frank was undoubtedly the nonpareil weight man of the Middle West, and was a sure winner of ten points in each dual meet. The result of his injury is that these points will go to the other teams, for Minnesota has no man to take his place. The injury is to be deplored, for conditions just began to look ripe for Minnesota having her first strong track team.

FRESHMEN WIN PENNANT

Basket Ball Season Closes With Tournament.—Luck Favors First Year Men.

The yearlings pulled down the pennant in yesterday afternoon's four-cornered inter-class basket-ball tournament by defeating the sophomore quint 21 to 11. Both the teams that entered the finals played good ball, but the better organization and superior condition of the first year men soon turned the tables in their favor. McCoy did most of the scoring for the freshmen, and had a streak of luck that enabled him to slither the sphere into the net from almost any angle. Whipperman, altho he did not figure in the scoring, played clever ball, and looks good for varsity material. For the sophomores, Dan Long and Critchfield did clever work, but the whole quint were unlucky in their shots.

In the first preliminary the freshmen drew the juniors and won handily by score of 29 to 10. Hill, Sawyer and McElmeel of the upper-class team worked desperately to hold their own but were unable to break up the team work of the yearlings.

In the second preliminary the sophomores were matched against the seniors. At the end of the first half the near-graduates held the lead, but in the last session the second year men forged ahead and finished with the long end of a 24 to 17 score in their possession.

The tournament was the windup of the basket-ball season at Minnesota.

SPORT GOSSIP

That Minnesota and Chicago are tied for the championship of the west in basket ball is the general consensus of critical opinion. If the pennant is to go strictly on a percentage basis the Gophers have two games which have not been played, and which can be claimed by forfeit. This makes the number of games won and lost by both teams the same, and on whatever basis one wishes to take it, neither quint has a better claim to the bunting than the other.

Of course, aftermath of this kind will have no definite result, as there is no possibility of a post-season game. Minnesota however has cause to feel proud of her team, and has every right to proclaim them as good as the best. Illinois and Purdue both support the Gopher's claim to a tie, and competent basket ball critics throught the west have taken the same stand.

Dr. Raycroft of Chicago picks Captain Hansen of the Minnesota team as one of the forwards of his all-western team. This choice was of course to be expected and is a well deserved tribute to one of the greatest little players that ever donned a jersey at Minnesota. "Christy" Hansen is not only a clever and brainy individual player, but the fashion in which he has led his team thru a long and difficult schedule to a tie for the championship, has won him the respect and admiration of all who are interested in sport. He has played his last collegiate game and Minnesota owes him a debt of gratitude for having borne her colors so well for three seasons on the field of honor. Three "rahs" for Christy!
