Northwest School of Agriculture and U of M Crookston Alumni to Gather in Mesa, Arizona, for Social Friday, February 20, 2009

By Sue Dwyer, Elizabeth Tollefson on Monday, January 26, 2009

Alumni and community friends of the Northwest School of Agriculture (NWSA) and the University of Minnesota Crookston will gather for a social on Friday, Feb. 20, 2009, at the Terrace Green at ViewPoint Resort, 640 North Hawes Road, Mesa, Arizona. The annual alumni social will be held from 11:30 a.m. until 3 p.m. with a buffet lunch served at noon for $13.50 per person.

This year's event is hosted by Corby Kemmer, director of development & alumni relations, and will include greetings from U of M Crookston Chancellor Charles H. Casey. “We are looking forward to a great time in Arizona this year,” Kemmer said, “It’s a time for our alumni who share memories of this campus to have an opportunity to reminisce as well as get a glimpse of what the U of M Crookston is all about today.”

If you are interested in attending the Arizona Social, please call Lorraine (Zipoy) Love, '54, at 480-986-9416 or the Office of Development & Alumni Relations at 800-862-6466, ext. 8401, by Feb. 13, to confirm attendance. Disability accommodations are available upon request.

The NWSA Alumni Association represents the 5,433 graduates of the residential agriculture high school, which operated from 1905 through 1968, on what is now the campus of the University of Minnesota Crookston.

For more information on ViewPoint RV Resort, call 480-373-8700 or 800-822-4404.

Today the University of Minnesota Crookston delivers more than 25 applied-science undergraduate degree programs and 50 concentrations, including several online degrees, in agriculture; arts, humanities and social sciences; business; math, science and technology; and natural resources.
