DULUTH--Fashions for school, career and holiday will be modeled to music at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 14 in UMD's Kirby Ballroom.

Future teachers from the Kindergarten-Primary Club will wear creations from Maurices-Albenberg Apparel Shops including casual clothes, outfits for student teaching, sportswear, party dresses and a bridal gown.

In keeping with the theme "Fashions in Song" senior Loy Kay Clemmons, Duluth, will sing Broadway tunes befitting the costumes. Mobiles, black-and-white musical notes and silhouettes will decorate the ballroom.

General chairman Sharon Uttley, Duluth, said proceeds from the show will go to the Duluth Rehabilitation Center and the St. James Children's Home.

Tickets at 50 cents will be sold at the door or may be purchased from any member of the Kindergarten-Primary Club, according to ticket chairman Andrea Forlan, Duluth.

Other students in charge of arrangements are Karen Netland, Schroeder, publicity; Duluthians Judy McArton, ballroom; Karen M. Anderson, music and entertainment, and Sandra Alpert, decorations.

Models, besides Misses Alpert, Anderson and Forlan of the arrangements committee include Duluth students Karen Johnson, Adrienne Erickson, Dawn Boberg, Jean Askeland and Joan Berg. Also modeling will be Mary Jane Sterle and Gail Benney, Eveleth; Leslie Olson, Carlton, and Lois Borg, McGrath.

Miss Jeane-Marie Sword, instructor of education, is club adviser.
