DULUTH -- The question of "Vietnam, In or Out?" will be discussed at 2:30 p.m. Thursday (Jan. 13) in the Kirby Student Center Fine Arts Lounge under a new discussion program called The Crisis Center.

The Crisis Center is intended to be an interchange of views by UMD students and faculty on a weekly basis with a different discussion topic each week during each week of winter quarter.

The program is sponsored by the Student Association ~~members~~ with Joanne Becklund, the National and International Affairs Commissioner of SA, in ~~the~~ charge. John Steele, a senior from Duluth, will lead the first discussion.

At 9:30 a.m. Thursday, UMD Provost Raymond W. Darland and SA President Edward Thomas of Duluth will receive the first American Legion Lapel flags in the local "Operation Show Your Colors" campaign to demonstrate support for our forces in Viet Nam.
