

THE MINNESOTA DAILY

VOL. IX. NUMBER 71. THE UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA, TUESDAY, JAN. 14, 1908. FIVE CENTS THE COPY

MORE TROUBLE FOR THE FACULTY PRESS COMMITTEE COMING

A Long Vacant Place in College Journalism to Be Filled by Proposed Comic Publication.

Minnesota will have a new publication, if the plans outlined by the promoters do not fall thru. The idea is to issue a monthly magazine full of jokes, funny caricatures of students and profs, and will be a perpetual screem from cover to cover. The name of the new mag. will be the "Minnesota Joker," although this may be changed.

The first number will probably appear the first of March.

Minnesota with her new publication will be on an equal footing with most of the universities in the country who already have funny magazines. The most prominent among these is undoubtedly the "Harvard Lampoon" and the "Cornell Widow" and the "Minnesota Joker" will follow much the same lines.

The best college talent will be used in making up the joker and it is their intention to give to the students something for something, the latter being fifteen cents.

The editorial staff is still in the making and those students interested in the new project will please communicate with P. O. Box 1167.

"ESMERALDA," DRAMATIC CLUB OFFERING, FAR-FAMED

Has Been Much in Vogue in the East—Many Stellar Lights Have Starred in It.

Interest grows apace in the University Dramatic Club performance of "Esmeralda" on Thursday next. Few people know of the tremendous vogue which this play has had in the East since its first production some years ago. The play had the splendid record of a 350 night run in New York City. The cast at that time included such stellar lights as Mr. Leslie Allen, who interpreted the part of the old man, Elbert Rogers; Miss Agnes Booth as Nora Desmond; Miss Annie Russell in the title role of "Esmeralda." These, with support of the same quality made of the simple and beautiful drama one of the events and sensations in New York's dramatic history. Since this first successful appearance, the play has had almost annual reproduction, always making the same sweet and unoffensive appeal. Only last summer the leading stock company in New York played "Esmeralda" to capacity houses.

There is a delicacy of charm, a certain lyric quality, which is unmistakable. The old time dissatisfaction of a simple people, cut off from the homely environment which they have come to know and to love, is presented with a pathos very close to tragedy. The fun is plentiful and of a homely unsophisticated sort.

SOPHOMORES.

Meeting at chapel time, Wednesday, January 15, in room 13, Library, to elect a secretary and other important business.

"Average student is not overworked," say Faculty

Committee Acknowledges Many Carry Too Much Work and Some Plenty, But Say That On Average No One Hurts Himself.—Various New Committees Recommended as Necessary.

The chief interest of the academic faculty meeting Saturday afternoon was the report of the special committee appointed some time ago to report on student work, consisting of Professors Schlenker, Chairman, Dr. Leavenworth and Dr. Wilde. A few weeks ago this committee circulated through the second hour classes, blanks of twenty-seven questions covering every phase of a student's life, to be filled in by every academic. Out of the total number, each instructor recommended certain students who were reliable, and then the committee chose a hundred more at random, this giving a total of 378 replies considered as representative of the student body.

Two conclusions were reached first: that altho some students have a reasonable amount and some more than that; the average student is not overworked, and many are not busy enough; and that barring "gym" and drill and counting both recitations and outside work, freshman spend six hours a day on lessons, sophomores seven, juniors eight, and seniors, seven.

Secondly, that there is a great inequality in the amount of work required by the different departments and that on Mon. Wed and Fri., the work is heavier than on Tues. Thurs. and Sat.

The committee then recommended; that there be an equal demand of time by all departments, that the minimum of two and one-half hrs. for each recitation period, and a maximum of two hrs., be established and written work will not be assigned if on Monday, as it necessitates studying on Sunday.

It was found that many students are doing outside work, ranging from 1 to 30 hrs per week; that there is a great deal of time spent on university organizations and on social duties.

The committee recommended the appointment of a committee to oversee the outside work done by students as necessary to their support, and also of another committee to plan a scheme of credit for work on various university enterprises. Also that day courses be recommended and that all work be so arranged as to make Monday work require as little preparation as possible.

Safford Out for Presidency of Athletic Board of Control

Election Boom is On—Numerous Candidates Out—Rumors of Dark Horses.—Question as to Whether Constitution Allows Vice-President A Two Year Term.

* * * * *
 * President, Orren Safford; Vice-president, Theodore Vita; Secretary, Joseph Maland; Academic, Aris R. Kelly; Engineer, Edwin Lambert, Stephen Nestaval; Law, H. B. Duff, R. W. Muir.

Another annual election of the Athletic Board of Control is launched. It began with the announcement of Safford's candidacy for president. The rapidity of the boom is indicated by the number of candidates who came out to-day. Still there is reason to believe that no political custom as long established as that of late announcements will be violated here. On the other hand there is every reason to believe that it will be lived up to, and the above list is but a forecast of what the election will call forth.

As a matter of fact there are several who have signified their intention of being candidates, but who have refrained from making their announcements since there is a possibility of postponing the election until after examinations.

Right here it might be said that a committee of the Board will meet this afternoon to come to a definite decision about the postponement of the election. Furthermore they will report as to whether or not the constitution allows the vice-president to hold over two years Herbert Knowlton, the present vice-president, would hold over in case the constitution is so interpreted.

SENIOR GIRLS HUNGRY AGAIN

"Cap and Gown" will have its second spread Thursday, Jan. 16th. The hour is set at 5:30 in order that it will not interfere with "Esmeralda."

All girls who are going to attend are requested to hand their names and 25c to any committee members before Wednesday noon.

The committee consists of Anastasia Doyle, Maude Bush, Grace Elliot, Kate Firmin.

GENEROUS PRIZES.

Orations for the Pillsbury Oratorical Contest must be presented to Prof. E. M. McDermott on or before March 1.

The judges will select twelve of the orations, which are best in thought and composition. This will be followed by a preliminary contest in delivery.

The final contest will be held March 20, in chapel.

MINNESOTA DOWNS IOWA FIVE IN FIRST BIG LEAGUE CONTEST

Fast Gopher Squad Run Away From Visitors—Anderson, Cahaley and Deering Star.

Minnesota scored a decided victory over Iowa last Saturday evening in a fast and interesting game of basket ball, the score being 32 to 12. The superior passing and basket shooting of the Gophers won the game. The Iowa men played well, but Minnesota's speed and team work were too much for them.

The Gophers shot several baskets at the outset and in spite of a Hawkeye rally, the aggressiveness of Minnesota soon told and the half ended with the score 16 to 7.

Iowa put in two substitutes in the second half; for a time it seemed like a change for the better, but soon Minnesota pulled away and shot baskets almost at will.

Buckner, for the visitors, shot three goals and covered Hansen closely. The remaining Iowans showed little scoring ability and seemed unable to keep up with their fast opponents.

Anderson led in the scoring for Minnesota. Critchfield and Cahaley played their positions well and the latter, as usual, shot several baskets. Capt. Deering played his accustomed strong, telling game, exhibiting his ability to be in the midst of the play all of the time. The playing of all the men was of a fast order.

The lineups were:
 Minnesota ..... Iowa
 Hansen ..... Stewart
 Deering (Capt.) ..... Norton
 Anderson ..... Ramsell
 Cahaley ..... Morrissey
 Critchfield ..... Buckwell (Capt.)
 Perrine and Brown went in at center and left guard in the second half for Iowa.

BEN JONSON TO BE REVIVED BY ENGLISH DRAMA CLASS

Will Be Produced in Sixteenth Century Costumes and Staging After Exams.

"The Silent Woman" will be put on by Miss Peck's Modern Drama class in chapel early in February. The play was written by our second greatest dramatist, Ben Jonson, during the last years of Shakespeare's life. It will be presented in the 17th century manner.

The cast of characters is as follows: Prologue, Clarence Harter; Morose, Elsa Ueland; Dauphine, Edward Eklund; Truemit, Charles Remer; Clermont, Grace Kingsley, Daw, Arnold Lien; La Foole, Monica Keating; Cutbeard, Mary Lucas; Capt. Otter, Jessie Marsh; Page, Louise Leavenworth; Mute, Rewey Belle Inglis; Parson, Rewey Belle Inglis; Epicoene, Elizabeth Breen; Lady Haughty, Alice Green; Madame Cantoure, Freda Weinstein; Mistress Mavis, Alice Finch; Mistress Otter, Margaret Denfeld; Trusty, M. Lyon.

The forestry department of Harvard University has received a gift of 2,000 acres of timber land at Petersham, Mass.

AT YOUR SERVICE.

The Daily will be pleased to place before the student body the platform of any candidate for the Athletic Board of Control.

A SENIOR COUNCIL.

The more one becomes acquainted with the various Minnesota customs and traditions, the more one understands the motives and ambitions of the various student activities, something seems lacking. It is a need of a centralizing, controlling influence over our various spasmodic efforts and ideals. It is the lack of an authoritative board to voice the sentiment of the student body, to present the student side before the meetings of the faculty or regents, to govern under-class rushes, to supervise student enterprises, to initiate needed reforms, in short to fill a place in our student life long felt needed.

Syracuse has a Senior Council with whom the University Chancellor constantly confers, Columbia has a Board of Student Representatives and other schools have their various names and systems for arriving at the same end. But whether we would be the first or the last it remains nevertheless that there is a need for such a governing-council.

SOMETHING WORTH WHILE

"Les Miserables" read by Miss Barry
 —She Will Lecture This Afternoon on Ibsen and Shaw. . . .

Miss Margaret Barry, who read "Les Miserables" fourth hour yesterday for Mrs. Potter's English Novel class, won her audience immediately by her wonderful interpretation and her charming personality.

Today at 4 o'clock Miss Barry will speak at the Metropolitan theatre upon the plays of Ibsen and Shaw. This lecture will be free and is given in anticipation of the plays which will be put on the first part of next week by the Mary Shaw company.

Miss Barry will read "Monovana" Wednesday in Miss Peck's Modern Drama class.

Miss Mary Shaw, who will appear in Ibsen's "Ghosts" and Bernard Shaw's "Candide," will speak in Chapel next Monday. Following this, she will be given a reception in Shevlin Hall by the English faculty. This reception will be attended by girls only and the students of English are especially invited.

Tuesday evening and Wednesday afternoon next week will be college days and reduced rates will be secured for students.

A REQUEST FROM THE GOPHER HOLE.

A word seems necessary in regard to the cards that have been issued to all the juniors of the University by the Gopher Board. These blanks have been given out to secure the full name, box number, preparatory school, course in college, societies, honors, etc., to be printed in connection with the junior pictures.

The board insists that these blanks be filled out with accuracy and care, and returned as soon as possible to any of the Gopher boxes about college or in the mail slit in the Gopher office door. The latest date for filling them out will be February 1. More cards may be obtained at the Gopher hole. There has been much delay in past years in getting these cards returned, so that the juniors are requested to attend to this matter without further "dunning" on the part of the editors.—T. H. Uzzell K. K., Editor-in-Chief.

Men's Smart Suits FOR HOLIDAY WEAR

You will want to "dress up" a little for the holidays, at least you ought to—most everybody does.

Perhaps you DO want to, but think that with all the Christmas buying, you can't afford a New Suit just now. You're wrong! Come in and see what we can offer you for, say fifteen dollars. Surely you wouldn't go shabby at the price!

Among our low-priced Suits you will find a splendid showing of the latest styles in the new Browns and Mixtures—just the swell things that are now being sold in New York. These garments are cut over the same patterns as are our more expensive garments—all the difference is in the cloth and finish. Come and see these bully good bargains at

THEATRICAL

Grace George, one of our most delightful comedienne, is at the Metropolitan in Sardou's famous comedy, "Divorcons." Miss George has never done better work than she does in her present part. Her supporting company is splendid. The result is one of the most pleasing performances of the season.

The Lyceum players have another thriller on their hands this week in Hal Reid's "La Belle Marie." Sensational incident follows upon sensational incident and thrills are very much in evidence.

The Orpheum has their best bill of the season this week. Fred Walton, the famous English pantomimist, makes a very interesting head-liner.

"Fallen by the Wayside," is the card at the Bijou. The scenery is truly marvelous and some of the mechanical effects show that a great deal of ingenuity has been expended on them. The story and the acting are justly but secondary to these marvelous exhibitions of stage-craft.
