Signs Brother's Excuse

'Dean' Madge Takes Office On Vote of 8,800 Pennies

By Norman Larson

It took 8,800 pennies to elect Madge Micheels, SLA junior, Dean for a Day. She took over the SLA dean's office at 11:30 a.m. yesterday and even got to sign one "official paper."

Madge and her secretary, Mary Sundberg, SLA junior and runner-up in the contest, started their official day by going to lunch at the Campus club with SLA Dean Errett McDiarmid. She was introduced as "the new dean" to Pres. J. L. Morrill and to her father, William J. Micheels, professor of industrial education.

After lunch Madge skipped an official conference but sent an assistant—Dean McDiarmid—instead. Meanwhile, she walked around the Union to interview her subjects to find out how they felt about "current important issues."

Using the office communication device was a new experience. Roger Page, assistant SLA dean, asked his secretary to tell "the new dean" how to use the inner-com. Then he added in a low voice—which Madge was still able to hear—"Heaven preserve us from a female dean!"

Madge said she learned so much as an orientation leader this summer that she looked forward to the Dean for a Day contest. She added that since the SLA faculty football team was defeated 7 to 2 by the students on Friday, she's glad that her job only lasts a day.

Madge didn't excuse herself from any classes yesterday, but did excuse her brother, an SLA sophomore, from his fourth hour class.

$389,000 Given U for Research In Medical Fields

The University has received two medical grants totaling $389,175.

One grant of $50,000 is from the American Cancer society, the other of $339,175 from the National Public Health service.

THE CANCER RESEARCH grant is for research on "basic and clinical studies in cancer." The money was part of a $1.8 million grant for the entire state and means a renewal of a program already underway at the University.

The Public Health grant was given to 29 University departments in medical and allied schools. The purpose of the grants is to further research on cancer, arthritis, arteriosclerosis and blindness.

SORORITY AND FRATERNITY pledges are shown boarding buses last night to take part in Community Chest clean-up night. The group left at 6:30 p.m. to canvass Twin City districts which were missed during drive. They returned to the YMCA at 9 p.m. for a dance.

Board Names Film Society Shows Chapman New 'Navajo' Tomorrow Forestry Prof

The appointment of Herman H. Chapman as professor in the school of forestry from Oct. 1 to Dec. 15, 1952, was approved Saturday by the Board of Regents.

The 78-year-old professor was described by Pres. J. L. Morrill as the "father of all forestry education."

The regents also approved the appointment of Blanche Moen from principal librarian to chief reference librarian and assistant professor.

Miss Moen will replace the position formerly held by Harold Russell, recently promoted to assistant director.

Campus Chest Sets Auction To Get Money

A quantity of out-of-the-ordinary articles and a whole crew of auctioneers promise to add to the Campus Chest coffers already partially filled by "about $45" collected in yesterday's YWCA Dime day activities.

UP FOR AUCTION today at 11 a.m. in the Union main ballroom will be two whale steaks cooked by academic vice president Malcolm Willey, a football autographed by the Gophers, two tickets to the Homecoming dance, two dinners at the Campus club and two seats in Pres. J. L. Morrill's box for the Nov. 28 Minneapolis Symphony concert.

A number of distinguished auctioneers, including Dean of Students E. G. Williamson, Willey, Dr. Stewart C. Thomson, assistant director of public health, and Clint Johnson, assistant director of service enterprises, have been secured to spell the Toastmaster's club which will do most of the auctioneering.

SEVERAL CAMPUS personalities have entered frogs in the Thursday noon frog jump. Williamson, business vice president William T. Middlebrook and all University congress president Merrill (Dutch) Cragun have entered frogs. Other entries are expected.

The jump will be held at 12:30 p.m. on the lawn in front of the Union. Chances will be sold and the student coming closest to the winning jump will receive a free Homecoming button and free dance passes to the Chester Charity ball Friday night.

An Editorial

It's Up To You

THIS WEEK your feelings toward charity will get plenty of exercise. The fall Campus Chest drive is now underway.

Its success, or failure, depends on how worthwhile you consider the scholarship that permits a foreign student to study here; how much confidence you have in the aims of Twin City community chests, and how important you think it is that deserving students without your financial backing have their chance at college.

It also depends on your willingness to inconvenience yourself a dollar or a dime's worth—and to take the few seconds of time needed to dig into your billfold, or your pocket.

This year's quota is $3,800, $200 under last year's goal. Your individual quota is about 20 cents. There will be little high-pressuring this year, so how much you give is up to you.

But remember that money alone will not fill a Campus Chest. It needs some human spirit.

Warmer Today

Students can put away gloves today because the temperature will climb to a high of 55 with clear skies prevailing, so the weatherman says. A dip to 35 is forecast for tonight with Wednesday scheduled for partly cloudy and a high of 60.

Nixon to Be in Twin Cities For Speeches

Sen. Richard Nixon, Republican vice presidential nominee, will appear on the St. Paul campus Thursday. He will stop about 5:30 p.m. at Cleveland and Larpenteur avenues for a brief talk.

Sen. Nixon will speak at 8 p.m. Thursday in the Minneapolis armory. A section of seats has been reserved for the University Republican club and its guests.

Jack Blair, chairman of URC, will board the Nixon campaign train in Litchfield and ride it into St. Paul. URC will have a car in the Nixon caravan as it moves from St. Paul to Minneapolis.

Tomorrow URC will meet at 3:30 p.m. in the Union men's lounge to hear a talk by Bernard LeVander, former Republican state chairman.

Prof Discusses Prime Numbers

Proof that science doesn't know everything about mathematics was given last night by Dr. Paul C. Rosenbloom, assistant professor of mathematics and mechanics.

It was the second of a series of lectures entitled "Man and His Scientific Quest" sponsored by the University's general extension division.

DR. ROSENBLUM'S lecture, "What Nobody Knows About Arithmetic," dealt with the problem of prime numbers—numbers that cannot be divided by the square root of any other number. Examples of prime numbers are 1, 2, 3, 5, 7, 11, and 13.

One of the main things that scientists don't know about prime numbers is whether or not there is any relation in the numerical distance between these numbers, Rosenbloom said.

ALSO, it is not known how many prime numbers there are, or how high they go. Problems ranging up to 10,000,000 numerals have been tried and tested but no substantial conclusion has been reached yet, Rosenbloom said.

Pearson to Speak At Special Convo

Drew Pearson, new writer and ABC commentator, will speak at a special convocation Wednesday. His topic is "The Washington Merry-Go-Round."

Attendance is restricted to students, faculty and staff, but there will be no admission charge.

Pearson was placed second best news commentator by a student poll last year. Newsmen voted him top reporter in the field.

KUOM Will Air Music for UN Day

KUOM will broadcast a special series of musical programs to commemorate United Nations day Friday. Compositions of ten countries will be played.

Numbers scheduled for the first program, starting at 2:30 p.m., are Elgar's Pomp and Circumstance March No. 4 (Great Britain), Debussy' Waltz from Nails (France), Villa-Lobos' "The Little Train of Caipira" (South America), Chopin's Piano Concerto No. 1 (Poland) and Gould's Minstrel Show (America).

Compositions scheduled for the twilight concert, starting at 4:45 p.m., are Von Suppe's Fatinitza Overture (Germany), Dvorak's Humoresque (Czechoslovakia), two traditional Mexican airs, Paganini's Moses Fantasy (Italy) and DeFalla's Nights in the Gardens of Spain (Spain).

Candidates for homecoming queen at University high school are four in number with the winner being named tomorrow at 1:30 p.m. Kallitsa Mauroulis, Jackie Jaenisch, Janna Broek and Judy Christensen, left to right, University high seniors, are vying for the throne and the chance to reign over the day's activities starting with a football game with Waconia at 2:30 p.m. and ending with a homecoming dance from 9 p.m. to midnight in the Union junior ballroom.

500 See Shock Photos, Supersonic Tests at Lab

The 8,000-acre Rosemount Research Laboratories held a public open house Sunday and yesterday.

The laboratories, administered by the aeronautical engineering department, displayed an array of test equipment that ranged in size from quarter-inch turbulence indicators to giant compressors and wind tunnels.

Five hundred visitors toured the test and laboratory buildings the first day. They saw a model Sabre jet as it bounced through induced turbulent air and held their ears as wind tunnels whined at supersonic speeds.

Also on exhibit was an oscilloscope camera that recorded the shock wave produced by a .22 caliber bullet. Other cameras photographed shock waves traveling as fast as seven times the speed of sound.

University High Sets Homecoming

University high school Homecoming dance will be held from 9 to 12 p.m. tomorrow in the Union junior ballroom.

The Homecoming game with Waconia will start at 2:30 p.m. on the Marshall high school field.

Tickets for the dance now are available at University high school.

ALL STAFF
 • University Senate
 The first regular meeting of the University senate for 1952-53 will be held at 3:30 p.m., Nov. 20 in Murphy Hall auditorium. Committee reports and other items to be included in the docket should be sent to the office of admissions and records by Friday, Oct. 31.

ACADEMIC STAFF
 • Faculty Consultative Committee
 The members of this committee for 1952-53, are as follows:
 1. Elected by mail ballot of the University senate early last summer:
 William Anderson, 399 Ford hall
 Ernest A. Heilman, 14B Vincent hall
 Oscar B. Jensen, 308A, Hatcher hall, St. Paul campus
 Lloyd M. Short, 395 Ford hall
 Roland S. Vaile, 202 Vincent hall
 Maurice B. Vischer, 316 Millard hall
 John E. Williams, 20 Physics building.
 2. Nominated by the committee and appointed by the president, in order to provide representation for the Duluth branch:
 Raymond W. Darland, biology department, Duluth branch.
 The function of the committee is that of consulting with the president and presenting him with an informed faculty viewpoint on all matters of general University policy, including the budget. In order to discharge its responsibilities successfully, the committee needs the assistance of all members of the faculty. At this time it would like to have suggestions along the following lines:
 1. Effective, democratic, yet inexpensive ways for establishing two-way communications between the committee and the faculty.
 2. Identification of important general problems of the University on which faculty opinion should be formulated and submitted to the president.
 Suggestions may be submitted to any member of the committee.
 The first of the proposed series of periodic reports on the activities of the committee will appear in the Senate agenda for Nov. 20.

MEDICAL STUDENTS

The Ag and I U Livestock Judging Team Places Third in Competition

The college of agriculture judging team placed third in national competition at the American Royal livestock show now being held in Kansas City.

Competing in a field of 20 college teams, the group placed second in both swine and cattle judging.

Members of the team are Dudley Kaushagen, Arnold Sandager, Curtis Pietz, Noel Smith, LeRoy Olson and John Miska, all agriculture seniors.

Lloyd J. Williams, school of agriculture senior, will represent the school at the first Pan-American congress of architectural students in Mexico City this week.

Williams was selected for the trip by a special committee of the architecture school faculty and Twin City architects. His trip was made possible by a grant from the Flour City architectural education fund, established in 1945 by the Flour City Ornamental Iron company.

Home economics association will hold a membership drive tomorrow. Membership cards are payable all day in the Union.

Filing may be made for publicity chairman and freshman representatives in the college office before noon tomorrow.

Johnny O Prophet

U Picture Brightens

By Dwayne Netland

PROSPERITY RETURNED—if only for a week—to the Gopher football camp over the weekend, thanks to a stunning upset win over Illinois which made a golden prophet out of California's Johnny Olszewski.

Only two weeks ago it was Olszewski, bellwether of the California team which had just thrashed the Gophers 49 to 13, who told his locker room congratulants about Wea Fesler's club.

"The Gophers aren't that weak a team," big John insisted, despite the ease with which his Bear teammates triumphed that afternoon. "So help me, they're going to be tough. Whatever you do, don't give up on that team."

There's a fearsome encounter with high-flying Michigan coming up Saturday at Ann Arbor, which may well burst that current glow of golden optimism, but even so Fesler couldn't resist hashing over Saturday's conquest yesterday in his Cooke hall office.

"That was a game all Minnesotans should be justly proud of," he smiled. "Not just because we beat a good ball club, but because our kids hung in there week after week and refused to quit."

"WE HAD SO MANY obstacles to overcome. Most of their linemen were faster than our backs. That was one where we absolutely had to extend 100 per cent effort at all times. And that's just what the boys did."

Fesler thought the correction of those small mistakes which proved fatal in the Washington and California games were most instrumental in the defensive resurgence.

That, plus tremendous desire by the defensive platoon to repudiate previous talk of their impotence, provided the first half spark which generated into a second half flame when the Gophers realized they were holding their foes in check.

The installation of new men—linebacker Jerry Helgeson, guard Percy Zachary and defensive half-back Max Schmitt—also proved a shot in the arm. All three will start Saturday at Michigan.

In any event, old-timers are comparing the Illinois triumph to a similar win over the Illini in 1924, when Memorial stadium was dedicated. It was that savory.

GRID GRAMS—The Gophers returned to work yesterday and received frosh coach John Kulbitzki's scouting report on Michigan. . . . Mel Holme, with a bruised (1) hip, (2) hand and (3) foot, romped about in sweat clothes. . . . Bob Rutford's injured calf isn't expected to sideline him Saturday. . . . If it does, Rog French will get some offensive work. . . .

Quarterbacks don't usually become ball-carrying stars, but here Minnesota's Don Swanson picks up 10 yards in the fourth quarter drive for the second Gopher touchdown against Illinois Saturday. Swanson raced from the Illini 14 to the 4 on the quarterback "keep" play setting up Mel Holme's touchdown a moment later. Swanson evaded Buckey Tate (72) but was nabbed by Joe Hall (62). The Hibbing sophomore racked up 46 yards in rushing alone while the Gophers recorded their second straight Big Ten win.
