

UMD HAS A NEW HONORARY fraternity--the campus chapter of Pi Kappa Delta, speech honorary. James C. McCarthy, professor of speech at St. Thomas college and governor of the Upper Mississippi Province, Pi Kappa Delta, has advised Robert Haakenson, head of the UMD speech department, of approval of UMD's application.

-UMD-

CHARTER APPLICANTS in addition to Haakenson are Ray Anselment, Michael Berman, William Mularie, Donald Peterson, Pat Rooney and Jack West, all of Duluth, and James Bernard, Proctor. The chapter will be installed at a later date.

-UMD-

UMD ALSO HAS RECEIVED membership in the American Forensic association, an organization of extra-curricular speech groups in the nation's colleges and universities. It is a clearing house for information on participating institutions, tourneys and other events, speech materials and similar services. Its annual national meeting will be held in conjunction with the Speech Association of America annual convention in Chicago Dec. 27-31.

-UMD-

MINTS WITH A MEANING is the slogan of the UMD-Y club in its sale of candies to raise funds for their athletic parties for Duluth orphans, attendance at state and regional Y conferences and other service projects. Dale Erickson, Duluth, is mint chairman. Richard Puglisi, Duluth, is club president; Floyd Hackl, Duluth, vice president; Paul Cocoanto, Hibbing, treasurer, and James Leborious, Duluth, secretary.

-UMD-

UMD PSYCHOLOGY MAJORS AND MINORS, as well as graduates, are eligible for the new Psi Chi fraternity to be installed Dec. 5 at UMD. The national honorary society of psychology admits students and graduates with a B average in psychology and with 12 psychology credits completed or nine completed and enrolled in three. Frank Hansen, UMD instructor of psychology, is chapter adviser.

-UMD-

WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE'S "The Comedy of Errors" will be presented in the new UMD studio theater in Main building, converted from former library space, at 8:20 p.m. Dec. 4-6 directed by student Perry Lueders, Canby. It will be the first production in the new "pocket theater," which doubles during the day as an economics classroom.

-UMD-

CAST MEMBERS INCLUDE Dennis Velander, Donald Besser, Neal Landry, Ronald Reed, Robert Murdock, Dennis Suderburg, Ruth Kent, Joan Engberg and Melanie Abrahamson, all of Duluth; Robert Harper, Motley; Joseph Ketola, Virginia; Robert Kutsi, Moose Lake; Elizabeth Vodovnik, Chisholm; Marian Kukkola, Cromwell, and Gerhard Schmidt, Clarissa.

-UMD-

UNIVERSITY STAFF members at UMD are now eligible for payroll deduction to save in the State Capitol Credit Union and to repay loans. The program went into effect this month. UMD representatives for the SCCU are Robert W. Bridges, principal engineer, and Harvard Archerd, senior student personnel worker.

-UMD-

CHRISTMAS EVENTS on the UMD campus begin with a Christmas ball at 9 p.m., in Kirby Student center ballroom, sponsored by the Kirby committee, and the Community Christmas program at 3 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 7 in the Physical Education building.