

Duluth--- Twenty Master's degrees and 137 undergraduate degrees will be awarded at the University of Minnesota, Duluth (UMD) Summer Commencement exercises at 4 p.m. Friday (Aug. 19) in the Physical Education building.

Superintendent of Schools George A. Eddie, Hibbing, will give the commencement address. University Regent William K. Montague, Duluth, will congratulate the class.

UMD Provost Raymond W. Darland will confer the undergraduate degrees and Academic Dean Thomas W. Chamberlin will award the Master's degrees. Dr. Chester W. Wood, director of Student Personnel Services, will present all the candidates.

Fr. Sarantos Servious, presbyter of the 12 Apostles Greek Orthodox Church, will give the invocation and benediction. Donald H. Andrews, instructor in music, will present two organ recitals.

A reception for graduates, their parents and friends will be held in Kirby Student Center lounge following commencement.

The graduates, their degrees, major fields of study and home towns are:
