

High Cost of Living

Visscher Explains Italy's War Plight

More than 7,000 persons in Naples today are living in caves.

During the war, more than 40,000 Neapolitans had no other homes but caves, Dr. Maurice B. Visscher, head of the physiology department, told the Cosmopolitan club Saturday.

Speaking of his experiences in Italy with UNRRA from last June to September, Dr. Visscher said the war damage in Italy is much more extensive and widespread than he had expected.

"All coastal cities, such as Pisa and Genoa, are damaged very seriously, some as much as 50 per cent or more," he said.

Dr. Visscher's work on UNRRA was to make scientific medical nutrition studies with respect to opportunities for rehabilitation.

Realizing the deficiencies of UNRRA, Professor Visscher said, "The organization is burdened with too many people interested in things other than their jobs. UNRRA has placed in the hands of certain persons, with tremendous reactionary political power, the right to decide who shall be fed and clothed and treated."

In Naples alone, UNRRA imports 40,000 tons of clothing and food in six months. Expense of this importation is shown by the cost of $800 to rent a truck for seven days and a few workers to handle the material.

"It is virtually impossible to live on less than the American equivalent of $1.50 a day for food," Professor Visscher said. "This $1.50 includes both rationed and unrationed food. Rationed food amounting to only 50 cents and 800 calories is all that is available.

"The pulling out of military personnel in Italy easily may precipitate an economic collapse," Professor Visscher said, "since one out of every seven persons in Naples alone is working under the employment of the Allies."

Professor Visscher believes the problems of sanitation, housing and transportation are even more acute than those of food. "We cannot feed infected persons unless infection first is cured," he said.

Concluding with the problem of educational rehabilitation, Professor Visscher said that in Italian universities, there has been practically no elimination or removal of fascist professors and personnel.

At the University of Naples today there are 10 staff members all of whom held the rank of generals in active fascist government.

Filing Remains Open for YW's Romance, Inc.

Filing remains open for Romance, Inc., YWCA-sponsored speakers' bureau organized to arrange short talks and discussions of youth problems, at the YWCA office, 215 Union.

Initiated in the early thirties, Romance, Inc. was revived in 1943 by Helen Rachie, former president and assistant director of the YWCA. Eight men and 12 girls, sent out in teams, appeared 140 times during 1944 before high school groups, church groups and other youth groups.

This year Romance, Inc. has branched out to include the development of the whole personality, with talks on educational, intercultural and health problems.

Speakers will be free to choose their own subjects if they so desire, but Mavis Kennedy, Graduate student, will help speakers organize their talks and assist them in becoming acquainted with wider ranges of material. Brief dramatic skits will be prepared later.

"Many requests for speakers have already come in," said Miss Kennedy, "and many more students are needed to fill the engagements."

Nazi Fugitive

French Pastor To Speak on War Experience

Andre Trocme, French pastor and for 10 months a fugitive from Nazi and Vichy officials in France, will speak on the war-time experiences of his church, school and village at 8 p.m. tomorrow in 320 Union under the sponsorship of the French Club, YWCA Intercultural commission, and the Fellowship of Reconciliation.

Mr. Trocme, with his colleague the Rev. Edouard Theis, directs an international school in France, A. J. Feraud, assistant professor of French said. Mr. Trocme's school managed to keep its pupils free from Nazi propaganda during the occupation.

"For refusing to furnish lists of the school's Jewish children," he said, "Mr. Trocme and Mr. Theis were ordered to a concentration camp, but public sentiment caused the Vichy government to release them at the end of a month."

Continued evasion of government demands made the two pastors fugitives, Feraud said.

Mr. Trocme arrived in New York city on Oct. 8 and will lecture throughout the country.

BUREAU OF VETERANS AFFAIRS Report on Scholastic Progress for Veterans

The attention of all faculty members is directed to the following extract from the minutes of a joint meeting of the Executive Committee of the Committee on Coordination of Advisory Services for Veterans and the Students Work Committee. The extract outlines the procedure for submitting reports on scholastic progress of veterans enrolled in the University of Minnesota.

These reports are required by the Veterans Administration. Delay or failure to make the report may impair the veterans' benefits or cause serious or undue hardships to the student-veteran. Hence, the University of Minnesota Bureau of Veterans Affairs bespeaks the cooperation of all faculty members.

It was agreed that reports on all veterans should be submitted to the Bureau of Veterans Affairs on D.S. Form 356-45 (Instructor's Report on Scholastic Progress) twice each quarter by the college in which the student-veteran is basically registered. It was further agreed that each college would be responsible for obtaining reports from all classes for which each veteran is registered in that college, regardless of the fact that certain of these classes may be in colleges other than that of the veteran's basic registration.

The following procedure was agreed on by all present:

- 1. Each college will secure reports on each veteran in each class for which the veteran is registered in the college involved. These reports will be on D.S. Form 356-45 as noted above and will show standing of the veteran-student on 5 November, 1945, and on 20 November, 1945. Subsequent reports will be for corresponding dates to be indicated later.
2. Each college will transmit reports on veteran-students not basically enrolled in that college to the Dean of the college in which the veteran is basically enrolled.
3. All reports showing unsatisfactory progress or standing will be reviewed by the Student Work Committee of the college in which the student-veteran is basically enrolled and a recommendation will be made by that Student Work Committee as called for on Form 356-45. The report will then be sent to the University of Minnesota Bureau of Veterans Affairs, 203 Eddy hall.
4. All reports showing satisfactory progress or standing will be transmitted immediately as received by the college of basic enrollment to the University of Minnesota Bureau of Veterans Affairs.
5. All reports will be in the hands of the University of Minnesota Bureau of Veterans Affairs not later than Nov. 15, 1945, or a corresponding date in subsequent quarters.
6. Each college will send lists of veterans basically enrolled in that college, but who are taking classes in another college, to each other college in which the veterans is registered for class work, in order to facilitate sorting of reports.
7. The University of Minnesota Bureau of Veterans Affairs will send to each college a list of the responsible persons in all colleges whose duty it is to accumulate and sort the reports on veterans. This will facilitate the gathering of complete reports.

8. Any difficulty encountered in gathering reports will be reported to the University of Minnesota Bureau of Veterans Affairs, which will undertake to expedite the reports in question.
9. The Bureau of Veterans Affairs will consolidate reports as they are received and transmit the reports to the Veterans Administration.
Curtis E. Avery, Director, Bureau of Veterans Affairs and Executive Secretary, Com. on Advisory Services for Veterans.

Ex-Gopher Freshman Star Returns to Bolster Pivot

Warren Beson, former all-city center from Minneapolis West, became the latest addition to the Minnesota football team last night as he appeared on Northrop field in uniform.

Beson, on 45-day leave from the army, will enroll in the short course for veterans this week and will be eligible for the remaining Gopher games. A freshman sensation in 1941, the ex-West Cowboy is expected to bolster materially the pivot position which will be weakened by the loss of Dick Van Dusen, who leaves for sea duty the day after the Indiana game.

The sad story of a fourth quarter fade which has cost the Gophers their last two conference starts was the subject for immediate attention as the Gophers began their preparations for the invasion of Bo McMillan's league-leading Indiana Hoosiers on Saturday.

A scrimmage, designed to improve the Minnesota reserve strength, was directed by Bierman himself, as the varsity thirds clashed with Sheldon Beise's much-abused Bombers.

The stubborn Bombers, led by tackle Charley Teenus Carlson, held the varsity backfield of Hedges, Rooney, Lawrence and Bruhn to only spasmodic gains and Bierman was generous with his criticism of the third team line. Carlson was a frequent intruder in the varsity backfield as he pulled down several ballcarriers for big losses.

Casualties in the rough and tumble scrimmage were Halfback Ken Parent with a painfully bruised knee and Quarterback Joe Hedges with a brain-scrambling jolt on the head. Parent's injury may prove to be of some consequence as he had to be helped from the field.

The Minnesota regulars, bruised and battered from their encounter with Michigan, were excused from heavy drill and ran through a signal drill with the accent on polishing old plays and perfecting one or two new plays.

Absent from the drill were Dick Van Dusen who will rejoin the squad on Wednesday after a brief stay in Michigan and Tommy Cates who was detained in a late afternoon class. Gordon Sullivan replaced Van Dusen at center while Red Williams and Bob Kasper alternated at the tailback position.

Rounding out the first team lineup were Ringer and Marcotte at the ends, Olsonoski and Fitch at the tackles, and Graiziger, Honn and Hanzlik taking turns at the guards. Kispert and Rappana handled the signal calling chores as Lundquist returned to right half and Mealey ran from fullback.

Despite the roughness and intensity of Saturday's play, only Guard Dave Day was unable to don a uniform for the Monday session. Day suffered minor injuries to both knees which necessitated his reporting to practice in sweat clothes.

Visitors at the practice last night were Frank (Butch) Larson, All-American end for the Gophers in 1933-34, and Stan Kostka, pile-driving fullback on the 1934 national championship Minnesota eleven.

Canfield Holds Scoring Lead; Cline Threatens

Holding his first place position as the conference leading scorer for the third straight week was Bill Canfield, sensational Purdue sophomore halfback. Canfield has crossed into pay dirt six times in four games to hold a 12-point lead over the field.

Who's Zoo?

Three Bucks, Wolves, Cats On All-Stars

The weekly All-Conference team, as chosen Sunday by Coach Bernie Bierman and sports writers Charlie Johnson and Halsey Hall of the Minneapolis Star-Journal, is dominated by three men each from Michigan, Northwestern and Ohio State.

For their brilliant work in the Wolverine triumph over Minnesota, Walt Teninga was placed at one of the halfback posts, Len Ford, six foot five inch giant, was placed at one end and Harold Watts was put at center on the weekly selection.

Teninga was considered one of the hardest runners to face Minnesota all season, while Watts was a rock on defense all afternoon.

Ollie Cline, hard charging Buckeye fullback, who scored both of Ohio's touchdowns in his team's last minute 16-14 victory over Northwestern, Warren Amling, bruising guard and Max Schnittker, who booted the winning field goal in the last few seconds, were the Ohio men on the mythical team. It was the fourth consecutive week that Amling was so honored.

The Northwestern men selected include Jim Farrar at quarterback, Max Morris at the end opposite Ford and Jim Lecture at the other guard post. It was the latter's third straight week on the select group.

Rounding out the team were Purdue's All-American candidate, Tom Hughes, at the remaining tackle position, and Wisconsin's one-man backfield, Don Kindt at the halfback spot opposite Teninga.

Hughes is the only one of the select group to be honored on every one of these weekly teams. He has been placed there six times.

Minnesota Skids to 20th in Writers' Poll

Plummeting to twentieth place in the national football rankings, Minnesota's Golden Gophers were able to corral no more than five votes in the Associated Press poll of sportswriters to fall behind such previous also-rans as Texas, Washington and Tulsa.

Holding the first place ranking they have maintained since the start of the season, the rampaging cadets from West Point led the pack with 982 votes while Notre Dame's Irish were hard-pressed to hold second place against insurgent Alabama. The Crimson Tide's 60-19 Saturday win over Kentucky netted them 799 votes to fall just short of Notre Dame's 804.

I-M Touchball Leaders to Play

Phi Kappa Psi, Division I pace-maker, will meet SAE, Division IV, winner, in the first game of the intramural touchball semifinals tonight.

The second division leaders, Alpha Delta Phi, will take on the Beta Stars, Division III front-runners.

SAE gained top rung of Division IV Thursday night when they defeated a strong Psi Upsilon aggregation, 12-0. This game was also a replay of a protested game.

Hard-fought football was the order of the day last night in the army league when three gridiron clashes took place on the arc-lighted intramural fields.

Army D nosed out Army B, 6-0, in the waning moments when they intercepted one of Army B's desperation passes and ran it back for the only tally.

The second scheduled game of the evening was not played since neither Army G eight nor the Army H squad showed up.

The Army A-Army C tilt was moved up to 7:45 p.m. whereupon Army A promptly scored on the opening kickoff to register a touchdown. They successfully protected their slim lead for the remainder of the game, thus shoving Army C further into the league cellar.

According to IM rules, under which all University games are played, if there is no scoring during the regularly-scheduled period of play each team is given the ball for five downs on the 40 yard line, each going in the same direction.

Puckmen Open Drills

Thirty men have drawn equipment for the University of Minnesota hockey team, according to word from Coach Larry Armstrong. Suits will be issued at 9:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. on Tuesday and Wednesday for those men who didn't receive them yesterday.

The first practice of the season will be held at the Minneapolis Arena Wednesday night at 5 p.m. Cabs will leave from Cooke hall at 4 o'clock for the Arena.

Max Schnittker, Buckeye tackle, booted one point after touchdown to go into a tie with Tom Hughes, Purdue's All-American tackle candidate, with 10 perfect placements. He also booted a field goal to have alongside of Merland Kispert of Minnesota as the only ones scoring in that department.
