

The Limelitters, namely bassist Louis Gottlieb (top), * banjoist Alex Hassilev (middle) and guitarist Glenn Yarbrough (bottom), appear in UMD's Physical Education Building Saturday (Oct. 13) at 8:30 p.m. Currently the nation's hottest folk singing group, the Limelitters appear regularly on television and are making their first appearance in Duluth following an engagement at San Francisco's famous hungry i (c q). Proceeds from the Limeliter's concert will benefit UMD's ~~foreign~~ foreign student program.

UMD NEWS SERVICE
RA 4-8801 Ext 210
~~September~~
October 2, 1962

The Limelitters, America's foremost folk singing group, make their first Duluth appearance this Saturday (Oct. 13) at 8:30 p.m. in UMD's Physical Education Building. Glenn Yarbrough, Louis Gottlieb and Alex Hassilev (left to right) enjoy as much popularity and claim a following equal to any folk singing group in the country. They have held guest spots with Ed Sullivan, Dinah Shore, Perry Como and toured in concert with Mort Sahl and Johnny Mathis. The Limeliter's engagement will benefit the UMD foreign student program.

UMD NEWS SERVICE
RA 4-8801 Ext 210
October 2, 1962