SECOND CONTEST WITH CORNHUSKERS TONIGHT

Nebraska Team to Meet Gopher Quint in Second Engagement on the Armory Floor.

Nebraska meets the Minnesota basketball quint tonight in the second engagement on the armory floor.

Both will enter the contest wiser by considerable experience, and even a better game than was witnessed last night is expected.

Minnesota will line up with Miur and Deering forward, Woodrich center and Captain Larson at left guard. Uzzell and Pidgeon will alternate at the other guard position.

As an additional feature of the game tonight the gymnastic team has decided to give a few stunts between the halves. Those who will form the team are: J. Hawley, W. Foster, T. Uzzell, G. Stocking and C. Campbell. There will be informal dancing after the game.

ATTACKS LAW FACULTY.

Anonymous Writer Aims Grievances in "Philistine Valentine."

"A Philistine Valentine" was the name of an anonymous document circulated among the members of the law school late Thursday afternoon, in the form of a dodger. It was an unmitigated attack on the law faculty, individually and collectively, the author airing nineteen different grievances, in an exceedingly uncomplimentary manner.

Altho the faculty has well-grounded suspicions as to the author or authors of the document, no action whatever is contemplated. Many of the law students were very emphatic in denouncing the work of the anonymous writer.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION IN ANNUAL MEETING MONDAY

Minnesota Graduates Will Talk Over Needs of the University, and Spend Delightful Evening.

The Minnesota Alumni Association will hold its annual meeting in Alice Shevlin hall Monday evening, February 18, at 8 o'clock.

Between three and four hundred Alumni are expected to attend. The reports of officers and a discussion of the present needs of the University will occupy a part of the meeting. Dr. Colwell will speak and ex-Governor Lind is expected to be present.

The famous Campus Quartet, which is composed of members of the class of '93, will sing, and the days of Auld Lang Syne will be brought back by college songs and yells of bygone days.

The opportunities for a delightful time afforded by the luxurious Woman's building will add to the success of the meeting. Members of the Woman's league will act as ushers and serve frappe. Informal dancing will close the evening.

NO HOPS IN LENT.

President Northrop Desires Military Dances Cease in This Period.

Military hops will be discontinued during Lent. The proud officer and the uniformed cadet will have to forego his social pleasures for a while, because President Northrop has requested that the Lenten season be observed.

The popularity of these dances assures a large attendance when they are resumed after Easter.

EXPLORER IN CHAPEL.

Wm. Edgar Geil Will Address Students This Morning.

William Edgar Geil, F. R. G. S., the African explorer and student of primitive peoples, will speak to the students in chapel this morning. Students in sociology will be particularly interested.

Track and baseball season opens this week at Michigan.

BLUE SLIP SEASON IS PAST

The Last Missive of Sorrow Has Been Delivered.

The blue slips are all out. So say the registrar and his assistant, and they ought to know.

When the good news was spread abroad one girl stood for a moment in stupefied joy and then dashed off to tell "the girls."

A youth who had been haunting the vicinity of the post office for the greater part of the last 48 hours past his hand over his perspiring brow and muttered, "Where's that con in math?"

Some say a phantom voice was heard to murmur the following as the last blue was delivered:

"Cheer up! Cease to toss upon you pillow, haunt your post office box, and question the postmaster, oh students. Buckle down to work and remember there's another time coming in June."

AN ECHO OF ELIZABETH'S AGE IN CHAPEL TODAY

At Stroke of 4, Waving of a Red Flag Will Herald Beginning of Ancient Play.

"Knight of the Burning Pestle," acted in strict accordance with the first performance in London in 1613, will be put on in chapel this afternoon at 4 p. m. by Miss Peck's Modern Drama class.

The Elizabethan Orchestra will begin to play at 3:50. At 4, on the stroke of the hour, the red flag will be displayed and the play will begin. Admittance will be four pence happy. Seats in the pit will be tu-pence extra.

The most unusual figures are the giant in a uniform of boxes; the singing and dancing master, Merry Thot, clad in scarlet; the lover-apprentice, and Ralph the hero.

Jacob Wilk, the Daily dramatic critic, says:

"I was surprised to see the brilliance of the costuming. Whoever designed them is an artist. All parts being in girls' hands, the humor of the situation will surprise the person who has raised the nine cents, and I can guarantee the largest amount of return in laughter and good cheer for the inexpressibly small sum. Dr. Burton says that this is the first opportunity in his life to see the play."

UNDERGLASS ORATORS READY

Ten Aspirants for Places in the Peavy-Dunwoody Contest—Five Freshmen Will Also Try.

Following is the list of sophomores who will enter for the Peavy Dunwoody prize at the preliminary contest February 18 at 4 p. m. in the law lecture room. They will deliver their orations before the faculty of the rhetoric department and outside judges.

Raymond Chamberlain, Etoile B. Duine, Jens Johnson, Harold F. Knoff, Max Lowenthal, Sigurd H. Peterson, Edgar B. Rehnke, Zenas L. Potter, Allen Burnham Stork, Carl H. Weir. Four will be chosen from these to contest on March 6 for the $50 prize.

On Tuesday February 19, at the same hour, the following Freshmen will compete for the remaining four places: Wm. Bethke, Wm. S. Erwin, Fred R. Johnson, Knut J. Knutson, Henry W. Lauderdale, Edith Paulos, Lambert F. Prigge, Gustav P. Washer, Allan J. Wash.

FRESHMAN ILL.

Oscar Davis, a Freshman dent, is in the city hospital with diphtheria.

FOR MRS. BURTON.

Faculty Dames and English Students to Entertain in Her Honor.

The ladies of the faculty and a few of the students in English will entertain the girls of the department in Shevlin hall in honor of Mrs. Richard Burton Saturday, February 23, at 3:30 o'clock.

No written invitations have been issued and it is desired that this notice be considered by each as a personal invitation.

"SIX-DAY SYSTEM WORST EVER INVENTED," SAYS DEAN

Downey Believes System Is Pernicious and Partly Responsible for Increase of "Flunks."

"The six-day system is the worst system ever invented," said Dean Downey to a Daily representative yesterday.

When asked for statistics of the number of "cons" and "flunks" under the old and new systems, the Dean said:

"I cannot give you the exact data now, but I think I am quite safe in saying that there were never more than five students dropt at the end of a semester under the old five-day system. It is true that many students were allowed to continue who should have been dropt, but this was due to the lack of a committee on students' work. Even so, the proportion of those failing in the greater part of their work was far less than it is now.

Scatters Energies.

"The present system scatters the energies of a student and disturbs his mind. He cannot concentrate his thought on a few subjects. He must pick up one subject, study it for a few moments, drop it and hurry on to the next. When he gets behind there is no time to make up work. Something is always pushing on. There is no day except Sunday in which to do extra work, and if we use Sunday for such a purpose we are an ungodly institution.

"The six-day system gives a restlessness to the students which is antagonistic to their settling down to concentrated study. It keeps them at it from morning to night, every day in the week. It is the worst system ever invented."

MISSION WORK FOR Y. W. C. A.

Bethel and Hope Missions Are Scenes of Labor—Glee Club Formed of Cash Girls.

The Y. W. C. A. has a mission committee which is sub-divided into several divisions. One has charge of the mission study classes which meet weekly to study India under Lella Albrecht, Japan under Mrs. Albrecht (full of personal reminiscences), and one a study of home missions, including settlement work and civic questions, immigration and the like, under Elsa Ueland.

Still another division is the department of practical work for Bethel settlement, Hope mission and others.

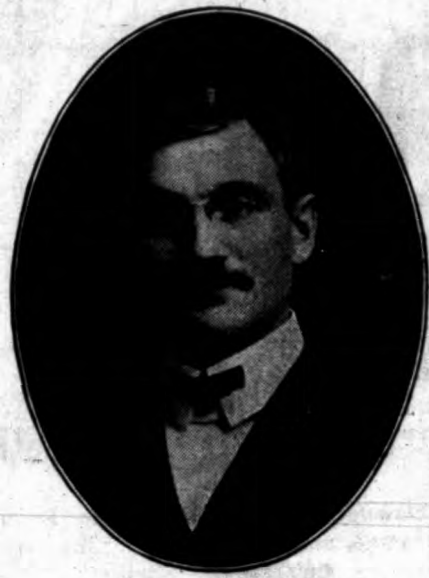

At Bethel settlement the association has provided a number of leaders for clubs and classes which meet afternoons and evenings.

A girls' Glee Club was formed this week of Glass Block cash girls, which is to be under the charge of Enid Hutchinson, Miss Scartem and Mary Heritage.

Friday afternoon's programs are to be furnished for the Woman's Work Club and on some evening in March the association will give a general entertainment for all the Girls' Clubs of the settlement.

A new medical building, Palmer Memorial ward, was dedicated this week at Michigan.

Two additions to the Daily staff and two promotions were made at the last meeting of the Daily board of publishers. W. P. Freligh and Alan Wash. were elected reporters; Marjorie Vance was elected society editor, to fill the position vacated by Vera Cole, and Amy Oliver was elected woman's editor.

Hard, faithful work, and a real newspaper standard was used in making the selections. Other elections will be made from time to time, as fast as the candidates prove their efficiency. Many are trying for the staff, and these need in no wise be discouraged. Neither should their number discourage others from entering the race. There is always room on the Daily staff for a good reporter.

Friday was set aside as the official "Senior Day," on which all members of the class are expected to wear their caps and gowns.

Self-Government Amendment Gives Men Another Opportunity.

"Any twenty or more girls, not in a recognized woman's organization other than the Y. W. C. A. or Woman's League, may by petitioning secure the use of the Woman's building for entertaining men once a year,"—this was the amendment adopted at a mass meeting of the self-government association.

The object of the amendment is to give the privileges of the hall to all girls alike. From now on the house rules will be enforced.

Last Saturday was like the good old Summer time with me. I took lots of orders for Spring clothes, and I want to tell you right now that there are six weeks to Easter and you'll oblige me if you will get your order in now while my tailors are not so very busy.

It won't be necessary to pay for the clothes until you want them delivered. Just a small deposit with the order will do.

Another pointer I want to make public: If you want medium or heavy weight materials, I'll give you the best BARGAIN in a suit made to order you can possibly conceive of.

I am overstocked on heavy weight goods; that's all. Yours truly,

STAFF OF LIFE IS POPULAR AT ALICE SHEVLIN HALL

Shocking, isn't it? And everyone always thought they had such delicate appetites!

Twenty loaves of bread at one meal, not to mention soup, salad, coffee, cake fruit and other sundries! And then to eat up everything but the cheese and crackers, is almost as bad as the Mother Hubbard story.

That is the tale they tell on the college girls who eat at Alice Shevlin Hall. Tuesday of last week was the day on which such marvelous amounts were devoured by the fair ones.

The Shevlin restaurant has proved almost too great a success. Every day a long line of hungry co-eds winds its way up to the counter.

An enlargement of the dining room is contemplated. The builder and architect have been consulted about the matter. Two counters, one for the cold, and the other for the hot "eatables" would simplify matters considerably and is one of the crying needs of the restaurants.

Part of the delay, however, is due to the girls themselves, who are slow in making up their mind as to what they will select from the menu. Quick business-like methods would facilitate matters. The room is especially crowded to the point of disastrous collision, in the narrow place where those entering the dining room with their full trays meet those coming out, carrying the empty dishes. A window, opening from the counter to the dining room has been suggested. The empty dishes could be handed in thru this window, thus avoiding much confusion.

Financially, the restaurant has been a great success. $30 was taken in on one day. So far a nice little nest egg of $400 has been collected.
