

From ~~among~~ five comely candidates will be chosen 1959 Sno-Week's Queen on the UMD campus Thursday.

To be enthroned as the highlight feature of a variety show at 8 p.m. in Kirby Student Center ballroom, the queen will reign during the remainder of Sno-week.

She will succeed Rosemary Radulovich, Morgan Park, elementary education junior, 1958 Sno-Queen.

The 1959 queen will rule over the Sno-ball at 9 p.m. Saturday in Kirby Student center ballroom. The UMD ~~Skis~~ Ski club's two-day trip to Porcupine Mountain, Mich., Saturday will conclude the week.

Queen contest finalists are:

~~Duluth,~~
Marylaine Davis, 18, ~~Residence~~ a freshman in home economics, sponsored by Sigma Psi Gamma social sorority.

Sandra Johnson, 19, a sophomore majoring in home economics, sponsored by the International club and Wesley Fellowship, and endorsed by the ~~the~~ UMD Y club.

Elizabeth Limon, 19, Fort William, Ont., a sophomore majoring in art, sponsored by the PEPS (Physical Education Majors and Minors) and the "M" club.