DULUTH--Dr. Arthur E. Smith, head of UMD's art department and director of Tweed Gallery, will speak before both the western and northeastern Minnesota Education Association conventions next week.

Dr. Smith will speak on "Art Appreciation for Today's Schools" at the NEMEA meeting at UMD October 12 and at the western section meeting at Moorhead State College October 13.

Dr. Smith received his B.S. degree at Buffalo State Teachers College, Buffalo, N. Y.; his M.A. degree at Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y.; and his doctor's degree at Syracuse University, Syracuse, N. Y.

He joined the UMD art staff in 1949.

Professor Smith is co-author of the book "Flexibility in the Elementary School."
