Annual Junior Short Course, June 14 to 16

Four hundred boys and girls are expected to attend the annual Boys' and Girls' Short course at the Northwest School, Crookston, June 14, 15, and 16. Members of 4-H clubs are looking forward to this event, not only as an annual outing, but with a view to gaining new ideas for their club work.

The entire cost, including meals, lodging, movies and entertainment will be $1.50, half the price of former years.

Athletic contests will feature the recreational program. Counties may enter teams in kitten-ball, volley ball, basket ball, horseshoe, swimming, and field meet. Swimming events will take place in the swimming pool on the ground floor of the new Physical Education building. The pool will be used under the supervision of Coach R. J. Christgau. The tournament will begin at 3:30 on Tuesday and continue each afternoon during the Short Course. The county scoring the greatest number of points in all events will be declared the winner of the tournament.

The Northwest School faculty will be in charge of the classes, assisted by county agents from Red River Valley counties. Miss Mildred Schenck and A. J. Kittleson of the state 4-H Club office will also be here.

Boys and girls will have an opportunity to attend classes in which they are most interested, including livestock, poultry, crops, and home economics work. In livestock and poultry, the instruction will cover feeding, care and management, fitting and showing, rope

PLANS COMPLETED FOR WOMEN'S CAMP

Plans for the Seventh Annual Women's Camp to be held at the Northwest School June 20-23 are rapidly nearing completion. Prospective campers can be assured of an excellent educational and recreational program. Judging from the many letters already received from former campers and the several requests for information from prospective new campers, a large crowd will be in attendance. Many Northwest School students are planning to have their mothers attend.

The camp will open Monday afternoon, June 20, with registration sched-

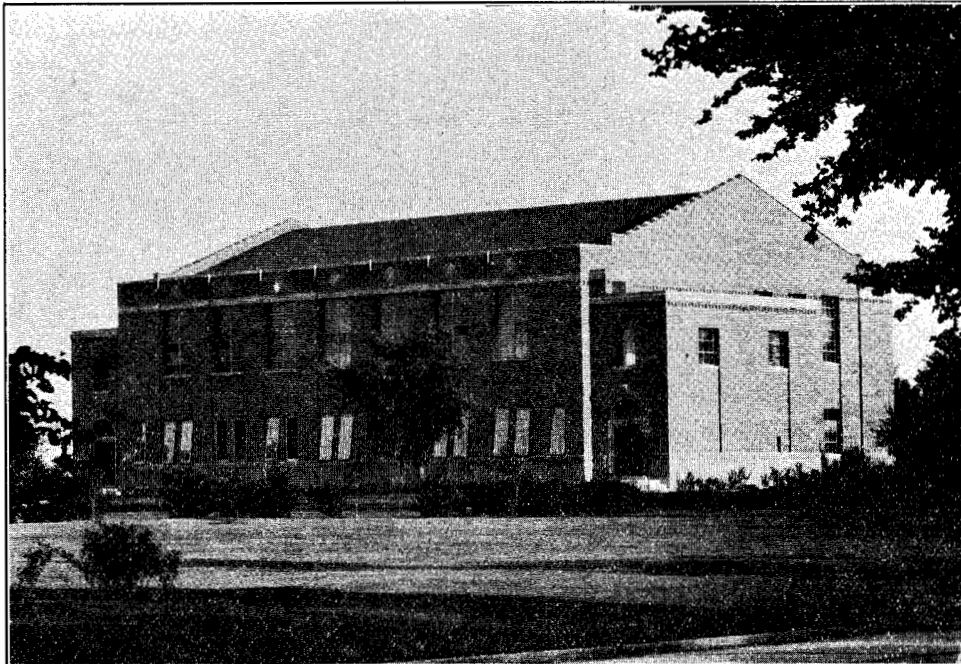

Livestock Feeders' Day June 14

Leading livestock authorities will appear on the Ninth Annual Livestock Feeders' day program to be held at the Northwest Experiment Station Tuesday, June 14. Professor W. H. Peters, a graduate of the Iowa State college, formerly Livestock Extension specialist of the North Dakota Agricultural college, and for the past number of years chief of the Animal Husbandry division, University Farm, will speak on the subject of "The Place of Sheep on the Farm."

Wm. E. Petersen, professor of Dairy Husbandry, University Farm, will discuss "Some Fundamental Studies in Milk Secretion." Dr. Petersen, in collaboration with Dr. W. L. Boyd of the Veterinary section, has made some far-reaching discoveries regarding the treatment of milk fever in dairy cows. The new method has been adopted by all leading veterinarians and has completely replaced the old "air treatment." Together with Dr. C. H. Eckles he has also conducted some valuable investigations regarding mineral requirements of dairy cattle.

As a special feature of the day, visitors will inspect the 32 baby beef calves that have been on feed since last November. In this trial one lot of calves has been fed ground rye; another lot, ground wheat; a third lot, wheat and barley, and a fourth lot, rye and barley. In addition to the grain, all lots have received sweet clover hay and linseed oilmeal. Results of the trial will be explained by O. M. Kiser, station animal husbandman.

New Physical Education Building

uled from 4:00 to 6:00 P. M. Monday evening a reception for all campers will be held. Beginning with Tuesday morning and continuing through Thursday noon, a program of lectures, demonstrations, games, races, swimming, singing, movies, stunts and exhibits is being planned by the committee in charge.

A feature, introduced at last year's camp and to be continued this year, is the exhibit of homemade articles with a prize to be awarded to the best exhibit. The committee plans to enlarge

AVERY AWARDED WIDSETH-LAVOI MEDAL

To Kenneth Avery, Hallock, goes the honor of being the 1932 winner of the Arthur Widseth-D. H. LaVoi Athletic-Scholarship medal. This announcement was made by Superintendent A. A. Dowell at the graduation exercises at the close of the year.

Kenneth Avery

This medal, awarded for the first time one year ago, was presented by former Athletic Coach D. H. LaVoi, in memory of the excellent scholastic and athletic record of Arthur Widseth, who passed away during the summer of 1930.

Regulations governing the award state that the medal shall be presented to the member of the Advanced Class who has done outstanding work in athletics as well as maintained a high scholastic average. Candidates for the medal must be in attendance at the school for at least three years. The selection is made by the faculty.

Avery has been one of the most outstanding athletes in the history of the Northwest School, having been awarded four letters in football and three in basketball. He was captain of the championship 1931 football team and was also named winner of the Ruettell Honor football sweater. In addition to his athletic prowess he has established an excellent record in other extra-curricular activities. During the 1930-1931 year he played the leading male role in the school operetta "Sunbonnet Girl" and was athletic editor of the 1931 Red River Aggie. He was a member of the Pioneer Literary society, the boys' glee club, and mixed chorus.

Throughout his four years at the Northwest School, he maintained an average of B in his classroom work.

The 1931 award of the Widseth-LaVoi medal went to Lawrence Elton, Hawley.

work, judging, and culling. In crops work, judging and selecting exhibits, growing the seed plot, storing the seed, gardening and beautifying the home grounds will be included. In home economics, the discussion will center around cooking, clothing and canning.

District Club Leader H. A. Pflughoeff states that junior and adult leaders, together with older club members, will have special work and discussions pertaining to the county and state program, as well as local monthly programs, demonstrations, and project instruction.

One-act plays, stunts, and movies will furnish entertainment for the evening programs.

The short course is open to any boy or girl 12 to 20 years of age. Those planning to attend should arrive Tuesday afternoon, June 14, in time to register before supper. The school bus will meet all trains.

Prospective short course members should bring their own bedding, such as blankets, sheets, and pillows, also soap, towels, comb, etc. Tennis shoes, if available, should also be taken along with the necessary change of clothing.

Reservation of rooms for the course should be made at once. Those who plan to attend are urged to write to the Northwest School, Crookston, for room reservation and for further information.

SCHOOL TEAMS BANQUETED

Members of the five inter-school teams were guests of honor at the annual Honors banquet held in the school cafeteria Wednesday, March 15. An unusual decorative scheme, consisting of various plants, flowers, Japanese lanterns, and crepe paper, gave a very appropriate setting for the impressive program in which members of the faculty, coaches, and team captains took part.

Professor T. M. McCall acted as toastmaster. Short speeches were made by the coaches of the various teams. R. J. Christgau spoke in behalf of the football and basketball teams, R. S. Dunham for the crops judging team, O. M. Kiser for the livestock judging team, and D. C. McGenty for the debate team. Responses were made by captains or representatives of the five teams. The music for the occasion was furnished by Miss Polski, Mrs. Hollander, and Miss Warne. Superintendent A. A. Dowell, reviewed the excellent work done by the five inter-school teams. The record established in inter-school events made the 1931-

32 year the most remarkable in the history of the Northwest School.

Guests at the banquet were Kenneth Avery, Arnold Wolden, Clarence Carlson, Alvin Gronner, Rudolph Berger, Leo Maattala, Glenn Kramer, Arthur Hendrickson, Searle Nelson, Donald Anderson, Edwin Widseth, Stanley Radniecki, Mervin Hagen, Alfred Torkelson, Erling Strand, Arnold Strand, Kermit Greenley, John Pearson, Walter Dorseth, Allan Hoff, Orin Refling, Ingolf Swanson, Arvin Gorden, Herbert Hanson, Roy Boman, Halbert Johnson, Lloyd Chapman, Clinton Donley, Darwin Krogman, Richard Holmgren, Donald McCall, Dayton Hanson, Paul Hanson, Edward Sargent, Phillip LeMasurier, D. C. McGenty, R. S. Dunham, J. W. Mlinar, E. L. Ocock, R. J. Christgau, A. J. Anderson, T. M. McCall, George Hillmon, Superintendent A. A. Dowell, Mrs. Roy W. Hollander, Miss Grace Warne, Miss Rose Polski, and Mr. O. M. Kiser.

FACULTY DEDICATE

GEORGE WASHINGTON ELM

Members of the Northwest School staff, together with their families, joined in the planting and dedication of a George Washington Bicentennial elm on the main Campus quadrangle April 28.

Professor T. M. McCall, Horticulturist, in charge of the campus beautification project, served as master of ceremonies and explained briefly the history of the elm selected from the station nursery for the George Washington memorial. A group of three ten-year-old elms and two fifteen-year-old Colorado Blue spruce trees were moved to the north end of the main campus nearby the sunken garden.

The memorial address was delivered by Superintendent A. A. Dowell, who expressed the hope that the George Washington elm should not only grow in size and beauty, thus adding its full share to the beauty of the Campus, but perhaps give rest and comfort to a second George Washington in the years to come. The memorial address closed with the reading of the "Salute to the Trees" by Henry Van Dyke, and the placing of the names of all resident staff members and their families in a sealed bottle at the root of the tree.

Swimming contest, which proved very popular last year, will again be held. Prizes will be offered to those making most progress.

The annual camp birthday dinner will be held Tuesday evening in the school dining hall after which the campers' stunt night will be held in the auditorium. An evening lawn party is also being planned.

The excellent educational and recreational programs of the past six camps plus ideal vacation surroundings have made the Northwest School Women's camps exceedingly popular.

The total expense for board, room, and entertainment, beginning with the dinner Monday evening and continuing through Thursday afternoon will be $3.75.

At the opening of the 1931 camp the following officers were elected and a committee appointed to make suggestions and assist with the planning of the 1932 camp: President, Mrs. V. C. Noper, Thief River Falls; Vice president, Mrs. C. H. Roholt, Mayville, North Dakota; Secretary, Mrs. E. E. Green, Crookston; Treasurer, Mrs. A. E. Morkassel, Warren; sergeant-at-arms, Mrs. A. F. Stroble, Angus. Committee: Mrs. Otto Gibson, Ulen; Mrs. A. D. Marmorine, Clearbrook; Mrs. John Brendal, Hallock; Mrs. Louis A. Novak, Mahnomen; Mrs. August Swenson, Ada; Mrs. R. H. McDonald, Goodridge; Mrs. L. A. Wentzel, Crookston; Mrs. Emil Malwitz, Red Lake Falls.

The completed program for the Seventh Annual Women's Camp will be announced in the next issue of the Northwest Monthly.

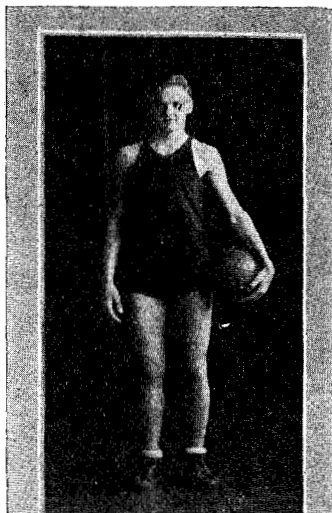

Write to the Northwest School of Agriculture, Crookston, for additional information and for room reservation.

GRONNER ELECTED

BASKETBALL CAPTAIN

Following the completion of the regular playing schedule, lettermen on the championship basketball team elected Alvin Gronner, Underwood, captain for the 1932-33 season.

Gronner has been a regular on Northwest School basketball teams for the past two seasons. During his first year he held down one of the guard posts. The past season saw him displaying considerable versatility when he performed excellently at three different positions, forward, center, and guard.

The captain-elect enrolled at the Northwest School in the fall of 1929 and immediately became active in athletics. He played on the freshmen football and basketball team, captaining the latter outfit. As a junior he won a place as a reserve on the school football squad and became regular guard on the basketball team. During his senior year he starred at one of the end posts on the football team and again was on the first-string in basketball.

In addition to his participation in athletics, Gronner has taken part in other extra-curricular activities. He acted as athletic editor of the 1932 Red River Aggie and as treasurer of the 1932 Senior class. He was also a member of the Lincoln Literary society and the boys' glee club.

SPECIAL SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS

A feature of the Commencement program was the announcement of special scholarship and music awards. Scholarship awards are made each year to the boy and the girl in the Freshman, Junior and Senior classes, who have made the greatest progress and shown the highest scholastic attainments during the year. All awards are based upon the recommendations of the faculty in cooperation with the Special Scholarship committee.

In the Senior Class, Christian Holte, Baudette, ranked first among the boys with Kermit Greenley, Viking, second. Ruby Edeen, Clearbrook, was first among the girls, with Hazel Tonsfeldt, Sabin, second.

Similar honors in the Junior class were won by Richard Holmgren, Carp, and Harold Letnes, Hillsboro, North Dakota, and Jean Nisbet, East Grand Forks, and Ethel Torkelson, Crookston.

Selmer Johnson, Crookston, won first among the boys of the Freshman class, with Allan Lee, Halma, second, while Elna Mattson, Frazee, ranked first among the Freshman girls, and Ida Dalager, Pelican Rapids, second.

Greatest progress in piano was made by Donald McCall, Crookston; voice, Esther Torgerson, Fosston, and violin, Allan Lee, Halma.

IS YOUR FLAX

WILT RESISTANT?

The Northwest Experiment Station is prepared to test a limited number of flax seed lots this summer to determine whether they are wilt resistant. If readers of the Northwest Monthly have a supply of seed that has not been recently certified and that may have become mixed with non-resistant strains, one pound samples may be sent to the station for testing during the summer.

A plot of land has been thoroughly inoculated with wilt. Seed samples will be planted on this wilt-sick soil; notes on the amount of wilt developing will be taken, and a report made at the close of the season. Samples should be addressed to the Agronomy Department, Northwest School, Crookston. No charge will be made for this service.

IMPRESSIVE AWARDS ASSEMBLY

As a reward for services on their respective teams during the winter session, members of the basketball, crop judging, stock judging, and debate teams were honored at the final assembly of the year, Saturday, March 19.

Upon recommendation of the faculty, letters and bars were presented to the members of the basketball team, while medals were awarded to members of the crops, livestock judging, and debate teams.

The following were awarded their basketball letters for the first time: Donald Anderson, Searle Nelson, Leo Maattala, Arthur Hendrickson, and Glenn Kramer. Service bars, awarded to students who had previously received the athletic letter, were presented to Kenneth Avery, Clarence Carlson, Rudy Berger, Alvin Gronner and Arnold Wolden. The captain's star was awarded to Clarence Carlson. T. M. McCall, chairman of the Athletic committee, made the athletic awards.

George Wight presented Clinton Donley and Ingolf Swanson of the crops judging team with medals, while J. W. Mlinar made a similar award to Roy Boman, Halbert Johnson, and Herbert Hanson of the livestock judging team. Miss Cynthia Weinberger made the presentation of the debate medals to John Pearson, Donald McCall, Clinton Donley, Richard Holmgren, Kermit Greenley, and Darwin Krogman.

Coach R. J. Christgau formally awarded the class basketball trophy to Helmer Nornes, captain of the Advanced class team, winner of the annual tournament. Mr. Christgau also presented a rooster's megaphone to Arlene Hill for services rendered as cheer leader during the past two years. The cheer leader's award was the second to be made at the Northwest School and the first to be made to a girl. Dan Letnes received the award one year ago.

Announcement of the winner of the Ruettell Honor sweater in basketball was made by Captain Mickle Bang of the Ruettell Clothing company of Crookston. The award is made at the end of each athletic season and is given to the student who has been voted as the most valuable man on the team. Clarence Carlson, Stephen, was named winner of this honor. Carlson had been elected honorary 1931-32 basketball captain by his teammates at the close of the playing season.

ALUMNI PLAN

SUMMER REUNION

In accordance with the plan adopted by the Alumni association several years ago, the annual summer reunion will be held on the Campus June 25th, this being the last Saturday in the month. Already many graduates have written to the school requesting information as to the exact date, and judging from advance reports, the 1932 reunion promises to attract a large number of graduates and former students.

An attractive program is being planned for the day. The main features will be the student-alumni baseball game in the afternoon, the alumni-faculty kittenball game early in the evening, and the annual alumni dance in the evening. The swimming pool will be opened late in the afternoon to graduates only.

A special effort will be made to encourage members of the classes of 1912, '17, '22, and '27 to be present at the reunion.

Members of the class of 1929 have purchased a 75 foot steel flag pole which is to be formally dedicated and presented to the school on "Alumni Day."

Officers of the Alumni Association for the year are: President, John Gronner, '22, Underwood; Vice President, Paul Engelstad, '16, Thief River Falls, and Secretary-Treasurer, Dr. Harry Hedin, '11, East Grand Forks.

WIDSETH TO CAPTAIN 1932 FOOTBALL TEAM

When the curtain goes up on the 1932 football season, the Northwest School gridgers will be captained by Edwin Widseth, McIntosh, hard-hitting fullback on the 1931 football team. Widseth was the unanimous choice of last year's championship team for the captaincy.

Since first enrolling at the Northwest School in the fall of 1929, Widseth has been a star performer on the gridiron. In his first and second years he held down a tackle position on the school team. Last fall Coach Christgau switched him to the fullback position where he played a most brilliant game, scoring at least once in every contest and establishing the reputation of being one of the hardest hitting fullbacks in the northwestern part of the state.

Widseth has not, however, confined his efforts solely to athletics. His list of extra-curricular activities is unusually large: mixed chorus, glee club, operetta in 1931 and 1932; Y. M. C. A. president, Pioneer Literary society, declamatory contest, Aggie board, senior class president, and senior class play.

Northwest School students are looking forward to a continuation of his brilliant playing on the gridiron during the 1932 season.

STEPHENS HALL TO BE REMODELED

Stephens Hall, the second oldest building on the Campus, is to be completely remodelled and repaired during the summer vacation. This building was erected twenty-five years ago and named in honor of Mr. A. D. Stephens, State senator at the time funds were appropriated for the purpose of erecting the first boys' dormitory on the school campus. More recently other dormitories have been erected so that Stephens Hall has been used by first and second year students. It has been the temporary home of hundreds of students and graduates now scattered throughout Northwestern Minnesota.

Plans call for terrazo entrances, hardwood floors, replastering of all walls and modern plumbing and lighting fixtures throughout. A special room for Y. M. C. A. and other meetings will also be provided.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Clementson (Conrad '15) of McIntosh are the parents of a son born May 6.

Olive (Larness) and Paul Engelstad celebrated their sixteenth wedding anniversary in April. This year also marks the sixteenth anniversary of their graduation from the Northwest School.

Mrs. Esther Gilbertson Henshaw (instructor 1917-19) is a social worker at Hull-House, 800 South Halsted Street, Chicago.

Miss Ruth Haakenson and Mr. Edwin Morberg (1919-20) of Oslo were married Saturday morning, April 16.

Joe Brunnelle '20 of Crookston was a recent visitor at the school.

Mr. and Mrs. John Courneya (Myrtle Fingalson 1924-25) of Detroit Lakes are the parents of a daughter born May 9.

Russell Ash (1925-26) of the Minnesota School of Business, Minneapolis, was a Campus visitor on May 13.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kulik (Helen Miska 1925-26) of Buhl, Idaho have announced the birth of a son, Robert Charles, on October 14, 1931.

Arthur Grove '31 has been appointed club assistant for the summer in both Pope and Grant Counties and will headquarter at Glenwood and Albert Lea, Minnesota.

Miss Christine B. Hegrenes and Mr. Einar Barstad (1928-29) were married at Mavie on May 15. Following their wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Barstad will make their home at Thief River Falls.

Mrs. E. W. Avery, Cass Lake, was guest of honor at an informal tea given by Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Clark, St. Anthony Park, St. Paul, Sunday afternoon, April 24. The guests were friends of Mrs. Avery residing in the Twin Cities and included Misses Anne Simley, Mildred Schenck, Grace Warne, Rose Polski, Cynthia Weinberger, Ruth Sheldon, Evelyn Bierbaum, Lois Harvey, and Dorothy Foker; Mrs. DeEtte Cenfield Genung, Mrs. Hildur Peterson Hollander, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Kittleson, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Warne, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Odland, and Messrs. E. L. Ocock and Elmer Miller.

Richard Radway '31 of Roosevelt writes: "I can easily say that the days I spent at the Northwest School will always stand out to me as some of the most valuable days and hours of my life, and helped me to decide what my future vocation was to be. I look forward to receiving the Northwest Monthly as much as I do a letter from a friend. You may always consider me a booster for the old A. C."
