

Feb. 26 WOMEN'S LIBERATION 12:30 p.m.
TEACH-IN
Coffman Union - Main Ballroom
Child care provided *

University of Minnesota Women's liberation is planning an all day teach-in to educate the students on this campus about all of the issues of the female liberation movement. We are aware of the fact that the mass media has presented a distorted image of our movement. We urge all students to attend and find out about women's liberation through discussion with participants.

- 12:30 - "Females and Self Defense" - Delpfine Welch a member of Boston Female Liberation and an activist in the movement for two years will give a self defense demonstration and discuss the position of women in this society and the need to build the feminist movement. (all women invited)
- 1:30 - "Why Liberation?" discussion for women - What is feminism? What are women demanding? What are the basic issues of the movement? What is consciousness raising? Bring your questions and ideas and share your views with other women.
- 2:45 - "Women in History" - A dramatic presentation - Feminists from the past will step forward and discuss the position of women in the past. (Men invited)
- 3:45 - Abortion Action Coalition - Etta Magnusen a coordinator of the AAC and a member of the U. of M. women's liberation group. She will discuss the need for abortion repeal and plans for a march on the Capitol, April 3. (Men invited)
- 4:00 - Workshops and discussion groups - Find out about the activities of women's liberation and get involved.
