LIMIT NEARLY REACHED IN SALE OF J. B. TICKETS

Novel Features in Programs Promised By The Committee.

All Tickets For The Junior Party Must Be Paid For By February 9.

According to a statement issued late yesterday by Waldorf Gansle, president of the Junior Ball Association, all tickets that have been reserved for the 1913 party must be paid for before 12:00 o'clock February 7th. This decision was reached yesterday at a meeting of the J. B. committee, owing to the fact that only one hundred and ten tickets can be sold, and the demand for them is constantly increasing.

The tickets were placed on sale a week ago, and eighty-five have already been sold or reserved. After February 7th all reservations will be sold to the first purchaser as it is necessary to have a complete financial settlement before the day of the Junior Ball.

February 7th has also been selected as program day, and a complete list of the twenty-four dances will be published in the Daily of that day. The time and place for filling the programs has not yet been set, but will be announced later.

Squire's orchestra of eight pieces will play the program of dances which will close at three o'clock. The grand march will begin at nine-thirty sharp, and the dinner will be served between 11:30 and 12:00 o'clock.

The programs have been ordered, and the ladies initials will be engraved upon them, for all who secure tickets before the seventh of February. The committee has hit upon a clever idea for the programs, but refuse to give out any information other than that there will be different styles for the ladies and gentlemen.

The invitations have arrived and are being sent out to the guests by the association, as the tickets are purchased. Tickets may be obtained until February 7th from Waldorf Gansle, Dave West, or John Jenswold.

STUDENTS TO TAKE CENSUS

Class In Labor Problems Will Gather Industrial Data.

Students of Dr. Kaymond Phelan in Labor Problems' next semester will do investigative work for the Woman's Welfare League recently formed in Minneapolis. Dr. Phelan is chairman of a committee which will take an industrial census of the working women in the city. A directory of places employing women has been furnished by the State Labor department and blanks have been prepared for the work. As soon as the data has been turned in, Dr. Phelan will work out a definite time schedule for the investigators. The students in Labor Problems will work in cooperation with a large number of the members of the League of which Miss Gratia Countryman of the Public Library is president. The aim of the League is to improve the conditions for homeless working girls.

HARVARD COACH LIKES IDEA OF GOPHER GAME

Percy D. Houghton, Crimson Mentor, Looks Kindly Upon Gopher Overtures.

Dick Grant In Receipt Of Letter From Big Eastern College.

Every day seems to bring welcome news from the East. The big Eastern colleges, relying on the possibility of a break in the present inefficient and antiquated conference, are to battle with the Maroon and Gold.

Yesterday Dick Grant received a letter from Percy D. Houghton, Coach of the Harvard foot ball team, in which the Crimson mentor expressed the opinion that athletic relations between the big Eastern school and Minnesota would be a benefit to Harvard's schedule. He stated further that he would see that the subject of a great inter-sectional game was given thorough attention at the hands of the Harvard authorities.

Harvard has but one open date at present, November 9th. Should the conference decide to keep up the odious and nefarious practice of using Minnesota as an outlet for their spleen, and should Minnesota then decide to accede to the desires of Illinois to leave the rest of the conference members to their own machinations, the prospects of a Harvard game would loom up as probably the biggest thing on the athletic horizon. In case the Gophers are forced by these petty practices to leave the fold, in which they have had nothing but sap handed to them, such a game would divide the greatest interest of the season with that of a Michigan contest.

The game lies between Minnesota and Vanderbilt, the great southern college. And if the efforts of Dick Grant and the Harvard advocates of an inter-sectional contest avail anything at all, Minnesota's chances are splendid. For although a game between Harvard and Vanderbilt is a fine thing for Harvard, a game between the crimson and the greatest college in the West would undoubtedly be far better.

LANTERN SLIDES SHOWN.

Interesting Pictures Shown to Students of Education Department.

Yesterday afternoon the students in the department of education and others interested were given a real treat in the form of an illustrated lecture on "Some Phases of Education, Ancient and Modern." The views were taken from scenes of student life and showed class rooms, university buildings and teachers; initiations, student pranks and sports were also shown. Mr. Meade who is taking Prof. Swift's place, explained each picture and told many interesting facts regarding the educational methods of the ancients.

So useful was the lecture that plans are on foot to have several such during the next semester. "Students can learn as much from these illustrated talks as from hours of reading" said one member of the department.

TO HAVE PROPERTY MAN

Regents Decide To Employ Expert To Take Inventory of University Possessions.

The university is to have a "property" man. Geo. H. Hayes comptroller announced yesterday that an expert will probably be appointed in the near future to supervise the taking of an inventory of the university buildings, equipment and supplies. The inventory is to be conducted along lines followed by the government in Washington, D. C. and the University of Wisconsin. An inventory was decided upon by the regents last summer, but the results of the property investigation have been unsatisfactory according to Mr. Hayes who is in general charge of the business department of the university.

A committee on inventory has been appointed, consisting of Deans A. F. Woods, F. C. Shenon and George B. Frankforter with Mr. Hayes and President Vincent as ex-officio members. The committee will choose the expert who will appraise the physical value of the state seat of learning.

The equipment of each department will be estimated separately and the figures are to be preserved in a card index system.

Changes in Chapel Schedule.

During examination week several changes have been made in regard to chapel assemblies. On Monday January 29th at 12 o'clock the address will be given by Dr. Richard C. MacLaurin, president of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. There will be a special assembly at 11:40 on Tuesday, January 30th. Cyril G. Hopkins of the University of Illinois will give an address. The exercises will be omitted on Wednesday and Friday.

RIOT PROGRAM COMPOSED OF INTERESTING STUNTS

"Queen of Shirtwaist Strikers" To Be Presented At "Riot."

"Dusty" and "Rusty" Rosenthal Headliners For Newsboys Club.

The melo-drama "Rosalinda, Queen of Shirtwaist strikers," or Right makes Might, will be staged expressly for the Riot by the original company. No words will be heard in this production but the different actors will express every letter in the alphabet by vigorous and emphatic gestures. Students interested in social, economic and ethical questions will be especially interested in this study of contemporaneous life.

Further items on the vaudeville program are the "Pianologue," and the "French Doll."

The program of Wykoff's Newsboys Club will be very similar to that which made such a hit at the Y. M. C. A. stag, several weeks ago. The features will be athletic stunts, by "Dusty" and "Rusty" Rosenthal, a song by "London" Komensky, a 12-year old newsboy, who come from London a few months ago, a sketch entitled "From the Bug House to the Grave Yard" written by Edward Marks and presented by the author, with the assistance of Henry Blumberg, the newsboy with the big hair.

The boy's glee and dramatic club will offer some numbers. Mr. Wykoff hopes to be present and will preside at the piano.

WILL PLAY 13 COLLEGES

Gopher Tennis Pair Will Meet All Big Eastern Schools.

The Minnesota tennis team will play at thirteen colleges this year. The proposed trip includes Michigan, Oberlin, Kenyon, Princeton, College of New York, Pennsylvania, Brown, Yale, Harvard, Dartmouth, Amherst, Cornell and Columbia. The players will leave on May 11 and return to Chicago to play in the Western Intercollegiate tournament on the 7th and 8th of June.

Last year the two players incurred an expense of $530 which was paid by a guarantee of $130 from the colleges played, a $300 appropriation from the Board of Control, and a $100 donation by the railroads. This year 13 colleges will guarantee $175. The cost of the trip will amount to about $525 which will necessitate donations and appropriations of about $350. The team will endeavor to get the Athletic Board of Control to appropriate this sum of money.

The Triangle Club will hold an important business session in the club rooms on Tuesday, February 6th.

THE FORTUNATE SENIORS.
The seniors of the institution are fortunate.

President Northrop always invited
the seniors to his home sometime during their last year, and the outgoing class this year is much pleased to hear that President and Mrs. Vincent have done the same.

Minnesota is different than most institutions, in that very little distinction is made between the members of the different classes. Distinctions of most kinds are undesirable, and we are glad that Minnesota is free from them, but the dignity which is usually attached to the rank of senior has passed here with the rest of the distinctions.

But in the matter of the President's reception the seniors are fortunate.
It is their turn, and members of that class in all departments are glad that it has come. The significance of the occasion will make every senior want to go and the informality will make it possible, and the senior class as a whole can show, at the reception, their appreciation of the kindness of President and Mrs. Vincent.

CHAPEL MUSIC DELIGHTS

Gertrude Murphy and Pearl Sutherland Play Duets in Chapel.

Duets for two pianos were played by Gertrude Murphy and Pearl Sutherland, before an appreciative audience at chapel assembly yesterday. The numbers were Chabier's "Spanish Caprice" and "The Dreamer" and "The Dancers" by Arensky, and they were rendered in a very attractive manner. The Chabier selection, in particular, gave an opportunity for the display of much technique.

PROF. HAYNES WRITES POEM

"Becalmed" is Title and He Expresses His Feelings Concerning His Enforced Rest.

In the Alumni Weekly appears a short poem by Professor Haynes of the department of engineering mathematics, who has been obliged to give up his work for the year on account of a very serious illness. The title of the poem is "Becalmed," and in it the professor expresses some of his feelings concerning his enforced rest. It is rather a pathetic little poem, reminding one somewhat of Tennyson, "When I put out to Sea."

"No ripples stir the glassy depths,
No breezes swell the drooping sail;
My ship lies sleeping on the deep,
Waiting to wake when winds prevail.

The port I left, so long ago,
Lies far below the ocean's rim;
The one I long for is unseen,
The Lord's my Pilot; I'll trust Him.

He rules the wind and wave, as well,
He knows the port my soul would win
His breath will fill the idle sail,
And there I'll anchor safe with Him.
