QUERIES POURING IN TO "U" EXTENSION BUREAU

Vivid Interest in University Lecture Courses Expressed Throughout State.

Queries from all parts of Minnesota are coming in to the bureau of extension of the University regarding the schedule of lectures for the coming winter. Present indications point to a large demand for extension lectures to discuss political and economic subjects.

Last year lectures were given at Red Wing and with such success that it is planned to have a full course or group this year. Last year being the first year, only three lectures were given the first semester. In the second semester lectures were given in Halstad, Wheaton, Henning, Pipestone, Austin, Rochester, Albert Lea and Atwater, all proving so successful that courses on a large scale are being planned for this winter.

Lecture Fee Is $10.

The arrangements for these courses are usually made by commercial clubs, societies, booster clubs, etc. A nominal fee of $10 per lecture is charged, as this has been found to be a fair average of the expenses on each trip, the aim of the department being to defray nothing but the actual expenses. Lectures are so arranged as to treat in complete form the more important topics of the day in a popular yet scientific manner; the object being to interest those who lack the time or facilities to investigate independently the more complex questions of the day.

Arranged in Groups.

The courses are arranged in nine groups, each lecturer having prepared five, six or seven lectures under some special heading as follows:

- Group I—Democracy and Industry. Professor Gray.
- Group II—Resources and Industries of the Northwest. Prof. Robinson.
- Group III—Current Business Topics. Professor Hess.
- Group IV—The Principles of Conservation and Reclamation. Prof. Hess.
- Group V—Practical Problems in American Government. Prof. Young.
- Group VI—The Relation of Government to Industry. Prof. Young.
- Group VII—The Government Problems of England. Prof. Allin.
- Group VIII—Rural Problems of Today. Prof. Thompson.
- Group IX—Modern Labor Problems. Dr. Phelan.

Aside from the above nine groups a series of twenty-two special lectures have been arranged upon such subjects as Progress, Wealth, Government, Efficiency, Labor, Education, Taxation and Corporations. The field of the bureau is broad and prospects for a phenomenal growth are much in evidence.

LIBERALISTS MEET.

The University Liberal association meets this afternoon at four o'clock in room 205 Library building. Dr. Marion D. Shutter, Rev. Wilson A. Backus, Rev. Wm. H. Ryder, Rev. W. H. Ryder, Rev. W. S. Richardson and other associate members of the association will be present.

HILL REMAINS STRONG PRESIDENTIAL POSSIBILITY

Regents Postpone Action on Northrop's Successor Till After Missouri Election.

Albert Rose Hill, president of Missouri University, is again being considered as a candidate for the presidency of the Minnesota institution.

Last year when Dr. Hill was approached on the subject he was retained by Missouri authorities by the promise of the state of more liberal financial support for their institution. At the Missouri election this fall a constitutional amendment will be voted upon authorizing the legislature to levy a three mill tax for the support of the University. If this amendment passes Dr. Hill will be under obligation to remain. Otherwise he will be free to accept any offers he may receive.

The Board of Regents of the University of Minnesota have decided to postpone all action in regard to choosing a successor for President Northrop until their December meeting when the result of this election is known.

It is not at all certain that Dr. Hill will be the choice of the regents even if he is in a position to accept but he is at present the most promising candidate.

BEQUEST PUZZLES REGENTS

Shevlin Fund Involves New Question as to Disposing of Fellowships.

In a recent bequest Thomas H. Shevlin of Minneapolis set aside $50,000 the interest on which is to be used for four fellowships for graduate students in the colleges of chemistry, medicine, agriculture and the arts, and the Board of Regents is now somewhat at a loss as to how to proceed in the administration of this fund. Each of the four colleges named has the interest on $10,000 for one of its graduate students each year but whether the students to be thus benefited shall be recommended to the Board of Regents by committees from the different colleges or by one general committee has not been decided upon as yet. This question is a new one to the board as these are the first fellowships of their kind.

MEETING POSTPONED.

Girls' Mandolin Club to Meet Monday.

No definite plans were decided upon at the meeting of the Girls' Mandolin Club yesterday, as not a sufficient number of girls turned out. There will be another meeting of the club on Monday at one o'clock in Shevlin Hall assembly room. Any girls who play mandolin, guitar, violin, or any other string instrument are urged to come.

The club is not only for the purpose of giving two or three concerts during the year but to create a feeling of good-fellowship among its members.

BUDDING MUSICIANS TO BE RELIEVED OF STAGE FRIGHT

Glee and Mandolin Clubs Plan New Method of Trying Out Candidates.

A new system of try-outs was decided upon at the first meeting of the Glee and Mandolin clubs, held Wednesday evening at the Phi Sigma Kappa house. In order to relieve candidates of all possible nervousness, they will be given an opportunity of playing with the club instead of being compelled to perform alone. As there are a greater number of vacancies this season than at any time in seven years, it is hoped that the new method will assist in filling the depleted ranks.

Rehearsal Monday.

The first rehearsal of the mandolin division of the club will be held in the band room of the Armory next Monday at 7:30 p. m. The first three or four rehearsals will be conducted along this line and then the names of the successful candidates will be announced. The club requires eight mandolins, five guitars, one cello, one violin and one mandola.

Leader Not Chosen.

Neither division of the club has decided upon a leader. In the Glee club a committee consisting of Ralph Knight and Frank Goodman has been appointed to seek out the available men. It was suggested that the candidates for the leadership of the Mandolin club try out in actual practice before the club as a committee. There was no election of officers Wednesday evening. Manager Goodman announced that in addition to the regular trip at least four concerts in the city are in prospect for this fall. Among these will be a concert-dance to be held in the armory late in November.

This Issue Edited by

At its meeting today the Student Council will name a list of candidates for the positions of Co-Operation rooster kings and assistants. By an unfortunate combination of circumstances a more representative body composed of senior class presidents from all the colleges was unable to perform this duty and necessarily it must be done immediately.

The Students' Council, though an academic organization, has been asked to prepare the list in as representative a manner as possible, and for the sake of the best interests of Minnesota on the gridiron this fall every student, no matter from what department he comes, should do his best to make the project a success. Co-operation means success.

The candidates who are named, also, should make it a point of honor to appear Saturday and take their turn at leading. It will mean much if the Minnesota spirit shows itself in connection with this movement as well as with the actual playing on the gridiron.

The Minneapolis Journal in its edition of yesterday afternoon published a statement purported to have been made by the managing editor of the Daily, defining the attitude of the Daily in the matter of the recent request by the Men's council that it publish a financial statement along with other campus organizations.

No such statement was ever made; the attitude of the Daily has not yet been defined by the business manager who has jurisdiction, and the entire story is false and untrue as regards the Daily.

Minnesota is a great University. In the number of its students, in its financial backing and its administrative and teaching members its rank is high.

The character and the conduct of the students, however, determines the reputation of any university, and when their sense of honor is tarnished the honor of the entire institution is affected in a greater or larger sense.

We refer specifically to the non-payment of just bills by many students. If the trouble were taken to make an investigation among over-town dealers, the amount of unpaid bills contracted for the luxuries of flowers and taxi-cabs down to the stern necessities of clothes, would astonish the most hardened.

It is true that many of the over-town dealers say that they do not want student trade, because of the bills that are run up without the pretence of a complete payment. It is a reflection on the entire institution, but worst of all, it points to a degeneracy in the moral code of many students that is most deplorable.

TUNELL AND FITZIMMONS HEAD GIRLS' ASSOCIATION

Board of Control Elects Officers—
Fall Tennis Tournament for Weld Cup Arranged.

At a meeting of the Board of Control of the Woman's Athletic association registration week the vacancies on the board caused by the failure of Marie Browne and Ruby Burtness to return to school were filled by the election of Winifred Tunell as president and Helena Fitzsimmons as junior representative.

Marjorie Simmons, '10, who was prominent in girls' athletics during her four years at college, was elected to the position of graduate manager.

Yesterday plans were made for the girl's fall tennis tournament when the will be played for. Prizes will also be arranged for the singles, doubles and consolations.

There will be a table in Shevlin at noon hour Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday where the girls may hand in their names together with twenty five cents for the entries. On Wednesday the entries will be closed, drawings will be made and the tournament will begin about the first of October.

Owing to the fact that there are at present two tennis champions in college, Ethel Chase, present holder of the Weld cup, and Winifred Turnell winner of the championship for Minnesota at the Geneva conference, in addition to excellent material among both the freshmen and upperclass girls the board expects an exciting tournament and a close contest for the cup.

MINNESOTA TEAM IN FINE FORM FOR LAWRENCE GAME

Light Scrimmages Now the Order of the Day at Northrop Field.

Light scrimmage interspersed with signal practice and peripatetic dissertations on football philosophy was Dr. Williams' prescription for his troupe of pedal acrobats yesterday afternoon. No injuries were in evidence from Wednesday's scrimmage and every man operated their signals and played in almost midseason form. Pickering and Frank were at the end positions again, and from the way they are working they will soon have strangle-holds on their jobs. Walker and Young were the tackles. Armstrong played left guard and Robinson, although it is a tight fit, has lost weight enough to squeeze into Dad Molstad's old shoes. Morell worked in the pivotal position and is improving in his passing. In the back field Erdahl replaced Capt. Johnston who is suffering from a slight disposition.

Sig's bunch of moleskin ramblers were out in force and the first assistant is rapidly developing an eleven that will give Dr. Williams' neophytes much useful and necessary experience.

The new rules are not causing much trouble and do not seem to have changed the game materially from the spectators' view point. Owing to the fact that pushing and pull-
