DULUTH--Twelve UMD music majors have been awarded scholarships in performance and will take an active part in Department of Music events during the academic year.

Dr. Robert W. House, head of music, today announced the following scholarships and winners:

The Duluth Scottish Rite scholarships to: William Lavato, Eveleth, trumpet; Vincent Jonas, Duluth, clarinet; Christine Buck, Duluth, piano and violin; and Richard Carlson, Duluth, trombone.

The Matinee Musicale scholarships to: Carolyn Gage, Proctor, violin; Julie Ehlers, Duluth, violin; and Janet Wilson, Duluth, clarinet.

The Lachmund scholarships to: Joyce Nicholson, Duluth, cello; Paula Quaderer, Duluth, piano; and Margaret Blankush, Duluth, voice.

The Edson scholarships to: David Nordland, Duluth, trumpet; and Lois Canfield, Duluth, in voice.

The Edson scholarships are new and given in memory of Martha Corneille Edson, Duluth piano teacher, by relatives and friends.
