NOTICE TO INSTRUCTORS

All instructors are reminded that reports of absences for the past week are due today. Reports from the main campus should be sent to Dean Nicholson; from the Farm campus to Mr. West.

Members of the University are requested to report to the Buildings and Grounds Department any irregularity in the ringing of class bells or in the various clocks in the buildings.

COLLEGE OF SCIENCE, LITERATURE, AND THE ARTS

Revised Curriculum

The faculty has recently adopted the following revised curriculum leading to the B.A. degree. Students now in the Senior College are expected to complete their work in accordance with the old curriculum. Students entering the Senior College in the fall of 1920 or thereafter will follow the new Senior College curriculum. Students now in the Junior College may complete the Junior College requirements on either the new or old plan, at their option.

General Requirements

1. The student must earn one hundred and eighty credits and one hundred and eighty honor points.
2. The student may not receive credit for beginning courses (two quarters, 10 credits) in more than one of the foreign languages, except Greek and Italian, unless his major adviser approves such courses as necessary for the proper development of the student's major work.
3. Not later than the end of his sophomore year, each student must elect the department in which he intends to do his major work. He will then be assigned to a major adviser by that department.
4. The student must earn at least forty-five credits in residence at this college. If the term of residence is only one year, that year must be the senior year; and in any case, he must spend at least two "quarters" of the senior year in residence.

Junior College

Departments offering Junior College courses are grouped as follows:

- Group A—English, Rhetoric, Public Speaking.
- Group B—Foreign Languages: German, Greek, Latin, Romance Languages, Scandinavian Languages.
- Group C—Social Sciences: Anthropology, Economics, History, Political Science, Sociology.
- Group D—Natural Sciences: Animal Biology, Astronomy, Bacteriology and Immunology, Botany, Chemistry, Geology and Mineralogy, Human Physiology, Physics, Psychology.
- Group E—Mathematics, Philosophy.

Requirements for the Junior College

1. Group A—15 credits in English-Rhetoric.
- Group B—The student must present for entrance four years of one foreign language, or he must complete 20 credits in one language in college, or he must continue a language, which he presented for entrance, according to the following schedule:

Amount presented for entrance	Amount required in Junior College
4 years of one language	None
3 years of one language	5 credits in same language
2 years of one language	10 credits in same language
Less than 2 years of one language.	20 credits in one language.

Group C—10 credits in one subject.

Group D—10 credits in one subject (Courses in Physiography and Geography do not meet this requirement).

Group E—No requirement.

2. Two of these required subjects must be begun the first quarter and the others not later than the 4th quarter of a student's course. A subject taken to meet one of these requirements must be continued for at least two quarters.

3. The student must earn 15 additional credits in each of two of the five groups, A, B, C, D, E.

4. The student must earn a total of 90 credits and 90 honor points.

Senior College

Admission.—For admission to the Senior College a student must have satisfied the requirements of the Junior College.

Requirements

1. A major sequence, 27 to 36 credits. Each student must complete a coherent and progressive sequence of courses, known as a major sequence, which shall include, as specified by the department which offers it, from twenty-seven to thirty-six credits in senior college courses. Such major sequences are offered by the following departments: Animal Biology, Astronomy, Botany, Chemistry, Economics, English, Rhetoric and Public Speaking, Geology and Mineralogy, German, Greek (with Latin), History, Human Anatomy, Human Physiology, Latin, Mathematics, Philosophy, Physics, Political Science, Psychology, Romance Languages, Sociology. The courses constituting a major sequence in any department, are announced in the departmental statement.

2. A minor sequence, 9 credits. A student must secure in some department other than his major department and in addition to his major sequence, nine credits in starred courses. Senior College courses which occur in major sequences are marked in the Bulletin by asterisks and are called "starred courses."

NOTICE!

Science, Literature, and the Arts Students

All delinquent students who have received notice from the Registrar's office to see Mr. Shumway must do so this morning. Failure to report will endanger the student's registration.
