

House Appropriations Committee Gets Hospital, Special Service Budget

Pres. J. L. Morrill and his staff presented the University hospitals and special services budget requests before the house appropriations committee yesterday, asking for increased funds in all but one department.

University hospitals are asking for $286,472 less in the state's share of patient support than in the last biennium.

EXPLAINING THE decrease, hospitals director Ray Amberg said that "third party payments" make the reduction possible. These are insurance payments to hospital patients by companies such as Blue Cross.

Although the total appropriation request of the University hospitals this biennium is less, individual departments within the hospital are asking more.

The psychopathic hospital is asking $23,304 more than last session, bringing their request to $469,996. It was given $446,662 last time.

AN INCREASE of $30,822 is being requested by the child psychiatric hospital. In 1954 the hospital was granted $135,178, and this year is asking for $166,000. With the increase in appropriations, said Dr. Reynold C. Jensen, professor of child psychiatry, the hospital would be able to accommodate 25 beds instead of the present 14.

The rehabilitation center of University hospitals also is asking for an increase—$13,345—over the 1954 appropriation of $265,000. This session's budget is for $278,345.

Asking the least amount of money of the departments within University hospitals, is the multiple sclerosis clinic, with its request of $15,000. The request for the treatment of multiple sclerosis—a disease of persons from 20 to 50 years old—includes $10,000 which would be used to pay a specialist.

THE FOLLOWING tabulation gives the present appropriation, the amount asked for the coming biennium 1955-57 and the additional amount for each year for special services, including extension and research activities.

Low grade ore research. For 1954-55 given $83,050. Requesting for the next biennium $90,000. Additional, $6,950.

General agricultural research. For 1954-55, $300,000. Requesting, $380,000. Additional, $80,000.

Medical and cancer research. For 1954-55, $62,500. Requesting, $75,000. Additional, $12,500.

Livestock sanitary board laboratory. For 1954-55, $42,500. Requesting, $50,000. Additional, $7,500.

Institute of child welfare. For 1954-55, $29,000. Requesting, $32,000. Additional, $3,000.

GENERAL research. For 1954-55, $90,000. Requesting, $100,000. Additional, $10,000.

Minnesota Institute of Research. For 1954-55, $30,000. Requesting, $31,500. Additional, $1,500.

Soil conservation. For 1954-55, $73,500. Requesting, $125,000. Additional, $52,000.

Agricultural research — Rosemount. For 1954-55, $90,000. Requesting, $100,000. Additional, $10,000.

State Senate Asks Morrill About Size, Role of University

By Dale Jensen

The role of the University, and how big it should be, were questions put to Pres. J. L. Morrill by members of the state finance committee yesterday.

Sen. Charles Root, committee member, declared: "If we are going to make appropriations and keep the University's high standard up, somebody is going to have to determine what to do with the large number of students in the future. How big should we make the University?"

PRES. MORRILL estimated enrollment of 35,000 students by 1970, and repeatedly referred to the problems arising from such an increase in demands on faculty, buildings and the state.

He reiterated Monday's statement criticizing release of legislative research committee report before he had a chance to reply to its charges that the University consistently underestimated revenue and overestimated its needs.

Pres. Morrill said the University's income has to be estimated and sometimes is underestimated, but he said that is better than to try to finance deficit spending, which is illegal.

"We are doing as honest a job as we can," he said.

The role of junior colleges in the future of Minnesota education also was discussed. Pres. Morrill said junior colleges are "feeders to higher education" and "good selectors-out." He said his personal opinion is that they are necessary and probably will be extended.

IN ADDITION, senators asked whether it is "worthwhile" to have foreign students at the University, or whether the cost of the program is anything to get worried about.

Theodore Blegen, dean of the graduate school, replied "No, the cost is not that high."

Sen. Val Imm, finance committee chairman, said that some taxpayers were "excited in their own minds" about the cost of the foreign student program, and that Blegen's answer should serve to answer their questions.

The University has about 600 foreign students, Blegen said.

Pres. Morrill will appear before the committee again at 2 p.m. today.

No Blarney, No Bull Foresters Announce Open Season on Coeds

By Dick Edblom

The traditional invasion of Main campus by the foresters will take place tomorrow morning, but with one major change.

This year the foresters will not concern themselves with the engineers, they say.

Or at least not very much. Usually the appearance of 40 bearded men on Main campus has meant that all available girls had their vital statistics measured by calipers, which serve to measure tree trunks in the "off" season, and a mock battle with the engineers.

THIS YEAR the foresters say it will be different. No more nonsense. They will concentrate almost entirely on the girls.

In an official statement released yesterday, the foresters stated that "we feel that by not bothering with the slide rule boys, we will have more time to 'size up' the coeds."

"We know that the engineers can't hide all the girls in the Main Engineering building, which is fortunate, since the coeds undoubtedly want to see some real men. However, since the engineers would be slighted if they were not serenaded with an "O' Leary," we probably will condescend to sing one number for them."

In the past it has been this song that has resulted in mayhem.

TWO YEARS AGO the foresters arrived with a replica of the "Blarney Stone," sacred to all University engineers, and "Babe the Blue Ox" in tow.

All was quiet, except for an occasional coed, until the foresters serenaded the engineers. Then the engineers made a sudden dash at "Babe," dumping pailfuls of green paint over it.

This act has made it difficult to secure bulls ever since, the foresters say.

Last year the foresters came equipped with a frozen mud blarney stone which they allowed the engineers to capture, hoping it would melt when taken inside. The engineers didn't fall for the prank, however.

THESE TWO incidents have caused the foresters to adopt their present policy of "no blarney and no bull."

After hearing the foresters' statement, Robert Wahlstedt, Engineer's day chairman, said the "engineers, as usual, will provide 'protection' for coeds."

Regarding the slighting of engineers, Wahlstedt said, "In the past, the engineers have many times proven their superiority, so that if the foresters want to lose face and quit, it's all right with us. However, we will accept any challenge the foresters might extend."

MINNESOTA HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Weather

Partly cloudy weather is forecast for today with some snow flurries. High will be five degrees with a low tonight of 10 below.

Congress to View Judiciary Draft, Budget Hearings

All-University congress will meet at 7 p.m. today in 109 Nicholson hall to consider the draft for an all-University judiciary council.

John French, chairman of congress judiciary committee, will present the draft for tentative approval by congress.

Congress vice president Bill Soren will review the legislative hearings on University budget requests which he and president Chuck Mohlke have been attending this week as "observers."

Placement commission plans for an evaluation of student participation in University government will be reported. The process for recommending student members for senate and administration committees for 1955-56 will be discussed.

Board of Pub Decides to Change Ivory Tower

Board of publications editorial committee yesterday decided to change the format of the Minnesota Daily Ivory Tower edition beginning spring quarter.

Rising printing costs were the reason for the committee's move to eliminate slick covers from the magazine. The Tower will be printed on better paper, however, and will use two colors besides black on its pages.

Peterson Predicts Stable Legislature

No dramatic changes are foreseen in this session of the legislature, P. Kenneth Peterson, former state legislator, told the University Republican club yesterday. Peterson said the main issue confronting the legislature is that of raising money.

"Money is needed to build mental hospitals, the University needs money and our tax structure is a series of patchworks," he said.

He also stressed the need for constitutional revision, reapportionment and the presidential primary.

Peterson introduced the presidential primary bill in 1949.

On the tax problem, Peterson said that during war-time taxes were raised out of patriotic duty and never were lowered. Peterson said he believes that just enough revenue will be raised this session to carry on present state activities.

District 9 Caucus Deadlocked; Nominates 2 for Regent Post

Deadlocked ninth district legislators yesterday nominated two candidates for a single board of regents' seat.

The 24 caucus members split their votes 12 to 12 between incumbent Herman F. Skyberg, Fisher farmer, and DFL national committeeman Byron G. Allen, Detroit Lakes.

Skyberg was nominated by conservative Rep. Reuben Tweten, Fosston, and Allen by liberal Rep. E. P. Johnson, Hawley.

Because of the tie vote, the names of the candidates have been submitted to the joint legislative University committee which will meet at 9 a.m. today.

Final choice between Allen and Skyberg may have to be made on the floor of the house when the senate and house meet in joint convention Feb. 2.

Nominated for regents in the other three districts with vacancies are: regent Daniel C. Gainey, Owatonna, first district; regent A. J. Olson, Renville, seventh; Edward B. Cosgrove, LeSueur, second.

Cosgrove won out over 81 year old Dr. Edward Novak, New Prague, who has held the second district regent's post since 1939.

College Entrance Examination Board and the College Transfer Test
The college entrance examination and college transfer tests will be given at the University of Minnesota from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and 1:45 to 5:45 p.m. on Saturday, Mar. 12, 1955, in room 201 Westbrook. These tests are not required by the University of Minnesota. Application must be made for the Mar. 12 testing and the fee must be received by the Educational Testing service, Princeton, N. J., no later than Feb. 19, 1955. The examination fee in the form of check or money order, payable to the Educational Testing service, must accompany each application. Students with questions concerning this may call extension 585.

Spring Registration
Students in all colleges (except medical, dental and law students who are registered for the year) should obtain material and register for the spring quarter during the period specified for their college. Registration permits for the spring quarter (IBM cards) will be issued at the college office with registration material for students in all colleges except graduate school in which cards will be issued when complete registration by Mar. 10. Students should bring their registration blanks at the office of admissions and records, Institute of Agriculture students will call for their material at their post office boxes beginning Feb. 16.

Registration Dates
Agriculture, Forestry, Home Economics Seniors, Feb. 16, 17
Juniors, Feb. 18, 21
Sophomores, Feb. 23-25
Freshmen, Special Students, Feb. 28-Mar. 10

GRADUATE STUDENTS

Biological Sciences Majors:
Anyone interested in having their candidacies, master's programs, petitions, language declaration forms, Ph.D. programs and thesis title slips reviewed by the biological science group committee for this quarter must have them in the graduate school office by 5 p.m. Friday, Jan. 28.

SLA STUDENTS

Makesup Exams in Inorganic Chemistry
Examinations for the removal of incompletes in all Inorganic Chemistry courses will be given on Saturday, Jan. 29, from 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. in room 215 Chemistry. Students who expect to write makesups should see the professor involved before Thursday, Jan. 27.

COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE, FORESTRY AND HOME ECONOMICS

Health Excuses
Where students have missed certain class work because of illness and a health excuse is requested by instructors before permitting the work to be made up, students will request the Health Service to forward a report of Health Service contact to the college office, at which time a statement may be secured for presentation to instructors.

Exemption Examinations
Exemption examinations are offered in selected introductory courses in agriculture (such as An.Hu. 1, Dy.Hu. 1, Hort. 1, Agron. 1). Students passing such exemption examinations may petition to substitute elective credits for these courses. The exemption examinations must be taken during the first six weeks of residence. Consult college office concerning procedure.
Students wishing to secure credit for subjects in which they have adequate training and preparation may take special examinations for full credit during the first six weeks of residence without fee. After that time, a fee of $5 is required.

Change of Adviser Procedure
Students wishing to change from present adviser to an adviser in a different department should initiate this change by regular petition, securing the approval of the advisor in the department to which they wish to transfer.

SEMINARS

Upcoming Mich. Tech Next Gopher Ice Foe

By Don Follett

While the rest of the WIHL is keeping their eyes on Colorado college and North Dakota—Michigan Tech, Minnesota's weekend opposition keeps moving up in the standings and right now is challenging Colorado for top position. Braced by twin victories over both Denver and Michigan State, the Engineers moved within 2½ points of Colorado.

Although Huskie coach Al Renfrew will bring a predominantly sophomore crew to Minnesota for the two game set, they are possibly the most experienced skaters to appear in Williams arena this campaign.

HIS STARTING line up shows five sophomores and a freshman; the second line skates with the same combination, two second year men and a frosh; and the third wave goes with a pair of yearlings and a soph.

But as usual Renfrew's squad is largely composed of Canadians, most of whom have had three or more years experience in Canada's junior leagues.

Of the nine sophomores on the club, six Engineers are over 22 years old and Harvey Glover, defenseman is 27. Glover is one of three lettermen blue liners back from last year. His coach rates him a steady performer and the best at his position.

ON OFFENSE, forward Jack McManus, fifth high scorer in the league, teams with Cliff Wylie and Ron Stenlund giving the Engineers one of the circuits' best balanced and most potent lines.

Wylie and Stenlund are freshmen hailing from Canada. Both already have given Tech fans plenty to rave about in their first season. They are top notch playmakers, passers and shoot on a par with most league veterans.

But of course, the Tech surge wouldn't have been possible without soph Jim McManus' work in the nets. McManus is far ahead of WIHL goalies with a 2.5 average goals allowed.

HE HAD ONE of his greatest series in holding North Dakota to four goals at Grand Forks two weeks ago. Then he topped that by slamming the door in Tech's climb last week. He allowed just 10 counters in the Engineers four wins last week.

Home Hex Dubious—Cowles

It would appear that home teams have a definite edge in Big Ten basketball play. This fact is evidenced by Minnesota's six straight victories in Williams arena this season.

But Gopher coach Ozzie Cowles yesterday debunked the theory by saying that every team in the conference can be dangerous—at any time.

"I can't say that we'll win every game remaining at home," said Cowles. "I don't own a crystal ball and there's certainly no hex cast upon our floor."

Co-captains Chuck Mencil and Dick Garmaker expressed the same thoughts by saying every team has an edge in playing on its own court but it's no insurance of winning.

Garmaker continues to lead Gopher scoring with a 25.1 point average while Mencil is second with 18.9.

Engineers Whip Rackets 54-19; Hillel House Wins

Warren Johnson's 22 points led the Civil Engineers to a 54-19 win over the 1316 Rackets in intramural basketball last night in Cooke hall. Ronny Johnson helped the Engineers' cause with 10 points.

In other games, Larry's, showing a well-balanced attack, topped U.R.V. 44-26. Hockey star Johnny Mayasich scored 12 points for Larry's, with Jon Jelacic and Bob Manney adding 10 each.

Marv Stillman's 11 points paced Hillel house to a 33-23 win over Belois's Bums. Sleepy Eye Indians beat the Giants 46-31 on Kern Schwartz's 17 points.

Dave Mills continued his high-scoring ways with 21 points at Williams arena to lead Unpusillanious over the Independents 41-19.

A GUIDE FOR THE DATELESS

With the cost of dating rising higher and higher (seems the only pleasure that costs the same these days is Philip Morris), it is no wonder that so many of us men are turning to discuss throwing. Naturally, we would prefer nuzzling warm coeds to flinging cold discs, but who's got that kind of money? Prices being what they are, the average man today has a simple choice: dating or eating.

Unless the average man happens to be Finster Sigafos.

Let me tell you how Finster Sigafos, a man no smarter, no richer, than you or I, solved his dating problem. Finster came to college with the normal ambition of any average man: he wanted to find the prettiest coed on campus and make her his. He looked long and carefully, and at last he found her—a tall job named Kretchma Inskip, with hair like beaten gold.

He asked her for a date. She accepted. He appeared at her sorority house that night, smiling, eager, and carrying a bouquet of modestly priced flowers.

"Now then," said Kretchma, tossing the sleazy flora to a pledge, "where are we going tonight?"

Finster was a man short on cash, but long on ideas. He had prepared several attractive plans for this evening. "How would you like to go out to the Ag campus and see the milking machine?" he asked.

"Ick," she replied.

"Well then, how about running over to the dental school to fool with the drills?"

"Bah," she replied.

"Well, what would you like to do?" he asked.

"Come," said she, "to a funny little place I know just outside of town."

And away they went.

The place was Millionaires Roost, a simple country inn made of solid ivory. It was filled with beautiful ladies in backless gowns, handsome men in dickeys. Waiters scurried about bearing costly eats on flaming swords. Original Rembrandts adorned the walls. Philip Morris trays adorned the cigarette girls. Chained to each table was a gypsy violinist.

Finster and Kretchma were seated. "I," said Kretchma to the waiter, "will start with shrimps remoulade. Then I will have lobster and capon in madeira sauce with asparagus spears. For dessert I will have loads of out-of-season fruit."

"And you, Sir?" said the waiter to Finster.

"Just bring me a pack of Philip Morris," replied Finster, "for if ever a man needed the soothing, steady, beneficent aromas of mild vintage tobaccos, it is me now."

So, smoking the best of all possible cigarettes, Finster watched Kretchma ingest her meal and calculated that every time her fetching young adam's apple rose and fell, he was out another 97¢. Then he took her home.

It was while saying goodnight that Finster got his brilliant idea. "Listen!" he cried excitedly. "I just had a wonderful notion. Next time we go out, let's go Dutch treat!"

By way of reply, Kretchma slashed him across the face with her house mother and stormed into the house.

"Well, the heck with her," said Finster to himself. "She is just a gold digger and I am well rid of her. I am sure there are many girls just as beautiful as Kretchma who will understand the justice of my position. For after all, girls get as much money from home as men, so what could be more fair than sharing expenses on a date?"

With good heart and high hopes, Finster began a search for a girl who would appreciate the equity of Dutch treat, and you will be pleased to hear that he soon found one.

Today Finster goes everywhere and shares expenses fifty-fifty with Mary Alice Hematoma, a lovely three legged girl with sideburns.

—agricultural schools. No change in the 1954-55 appropriation in this year's request of $72,000.

Business and economic research. For 1954-55, $5,000. Requesting, $23,590. Additional, $18,590.

AGRICULTURAL extension, $130,000; county agents, $170,000; home demonstration and 4-H clubs, $50,000 (1954-55 figures).

Instead of appropriating separate funds for these three departments this biennium, they are being combined under one general heading of agricultural extension for reasons of greater efficiency, with a total request of $415,200, an additional $65,200.

Total for the 1954-55 appropriations was $1,227,550. Total requests for 1955-57 is $1,494,290, which means a hike of $266,740 in requests by special services.
