DULUTH -- The annual UMD Student Leadership and Service Recognition Dinner will be held at 6 p.m., Tuesday, May 4, in Kirby Student Center ballroom.

Faculty and staff also will be honored. An Outstanding Teacher Award will be presented for the first time along with four Faculty-Staff Awards for service to student organizations.

A total of 65 student awards are possible according to Co-Chairmen Diane Skomars of Duluth and Sandra Brownell of Tower. The year's outstanding student organization also will be recognized.

As many as five Sieur Duluth Awards may be awarded. They go to students on the basis of outstanding, cumulative years of service. The Bulldog (possible 15) and the Arrowhead (possible 45) awards are given for one year's outstanding service.

Dick Dreher of Duluth, outgoing Student Association president, will be master of ceremonies. He will pass the gavel of office to Edward Thomas of Duluth, his recently elected successor.

Bill Baumgarten of Duluth, the current Kirby Student Center president, will present the traditional, symbolic key to his successor, Thomas Dock of Duluth.
